

BOROUGH OF DERBY.

Tramway Bye-laws.

NOTICE is hereby given that the following Bye-laws were duly made at a Meeting of the Council of the Borough of Derby, held at the Guildhall, Derby, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of May, 1905.

Dated this 16th day of May, 1905.

G. TREVELYAN LEE,

Town Clerk.

Town Clerk's Office,
15, Tenant-street, Derby.

BOROUGH OF DERBY.

Derby Corporation Tramways.

BYE-LAWS made by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, being the promoters of the Derby Corporation Tramways Undertaking, and the Local Authority, under and in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Tramways Act, 1870, at a meeting of the Council of the said borough, held at the Guildhall, in the said borough, on the third day of May, 1905.

Interpretation.

1. Throughout these Bye-laws the word "Corporation" means the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Derby; the word "tramways" means the tramway system worked by the Corporation whether situate within the borough of Derby or in any other district; the word "car" means any carriage or car run upon the tramways for the conveyance of passengers; the word "conductor" means any officer or servant of the Corporation having charge of or helping in the charge of a car; and the word "driver" means any officer or servant of the Corporation driving or helping to drive a car.

2. Every passenger shall enter or depart from a car by the step of the hindermost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise unless so directed by the conductor. All persons desiring to alight from any car shall do so before any person enters or mounts upon such car for the purpose of travelling thereon, and all persons desiring to enter or mount upon the car shall permit such persons to alight as aforesaid.

3. No passenger shall smoke or carry a lighted pipe, or cigar, or cigarette, in or upon any car, except in the portion (if any) of such car set apart for the purpose.

4. No passenger or other person shall, while travelling in or upon any car, play or perform upon any musical instrument.

5. No person in a state of intoxication, or affected with any dangerous, contagious, or infectious disorder or disease, shall enter or mount upon any car, nor shall any article, likely to spread any contagious or infectious disorder or disease, be placed by any person upon any car.

6. No person shall swear, or use obscene, or offensive, or abusive language whilst in or upon any car, or spit or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any car, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

7. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice in or on the car, or break or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage a car. Any person acting in contravention of this Bye-law shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

8. No person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a car, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, nor any person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might, for any other reason be offensive to any passenger, shall be entitled to enter or mount upon or remain in or upon any car, and any such person may be prevented from entering or mounting upon any car. No such person shall enter or mount upon any car after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if any such person be found in or upon any car shall, on the request of the conductor, leave such car.

9. Each passenger shall on demand, or if not demanded, before leaving the car, pay to the conductor or other servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, the fare legally demandable for the journey, or for the stage thereof, for which it is demanded. Any person leaving a car shall be deemed to have completed his journey.

10. Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any) when required so to do to the conductor or other servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, and shall also, when requested so to do by the conductor or other servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

11. No passenger shall wilfully alter or deface his ticket so as to render the number, or any material portion thereof, illegible, or shall use or attempt to use a ticket for any car or on any day for which such ticket is not available, or use or attempt to use a ticket which has been used on a previous journey.

12. A passenger, not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the tramways, shall not use or attempt to use any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

13. No passenger shall bring on to any car any luggage other than his own personal luggage.

14. No person other than the driver or conductor of a car, or a servant of the Corporation, in the performance of his duties, shall travel or ride upon the steps, platforms, outside rails, buffers, or guards of any car, or shall stand in any case on the outside, or except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained, in the interior of any car. No person except a passenger or intending passenger, shall enter or mount upon any car, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any car.

15. When any car contains in the interior thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided in such interior, no person beyond such number shall enter or mount upon or remain therein except
