

game, or gamble, or deposit remnants of food or fruit in or upon any car.

Damage to Cars.

8. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the seats, cushions, curtains, or linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice, in or on any car, or break or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage any car. Any person acting in contravention of this Bye-law shall be liable, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, to pay the amount of any damage so done.

Objectionable persons.

9. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of a conductor of a car, soil or injure the seats, linings, or cushions of the car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in or upon any car, and may be prevented from entering or remaining in or upon any car, and shall not enter in or upon any car after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and, if found in or upon any car, shall, on the request of the conductor, leave such car upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

Payment of Fares.

10. Each passenger shall, before leaving the car, pay to the conductor or other servant of the Tramways Committee, acting in the performance of his duty, the fare legally demandable for the journey, or for the stage thereof for which it is demanded, and obtain a ticket therefor. Any person leaving a car shall be deemed to have completed his journey.

Children's Fares.

11. No child under three years of age shall be liable to pay a fare; a child over three and under seven years of age shall pay the fare of one penny for any distance, whilst two children, over three and under seven years of age, shall together be liable to pay one full ordinary fare.

Tickets.

12. Each passenger shall show his ticket when required so to do to the conductor or other servant of the Tramways Committee, acting in the performance of his duty, and shall also, when required so to do by the conductor or other servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger. Tickets shall not be transferable, and shall only be available by the car on which they are issued.

Artisans.

13. A passenger, not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer, within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Corporation, shall not use, or attempt to use, any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers, or travel or attempt to travel on the tramways as an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer.

Luggage.

14. No passenger shall bring on to any car any luggage other than his own personal luggage, and any such personal luggage shall be carried at the responsibility of the passenger, and shall be placed by the passenger in such position on the car as shall be directed by the conductor, and shall not exceed 28 lbs. in weight.

Travelling on Steps, &c.

15. No passenger or other person, not being a servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty, shall be permitted to travel or ride on the steps, platforms, outside rails, buffers, or guards of any car, or sit on the outside rail on the outside of any car, or stand in any case on the outside, or, except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained, in the interior of any car.

No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, shall enter or board any car, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any car.

Full Number of Passengers.

16. When any car contains in the interior thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided in such interior, no additional person shall enter, board, or remain therein, except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained.

When a car contains, on the outside thereof, the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided on such outside, no person beyond such number shall enter, board, or remain thereon.

Entering or leaving a Car when in motion.

17. No person shall enter, board, or leave, or attempt to enter, board, or leave any car whilst in motion.

Dogs.

18. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any car, except by permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to passengers. No person shall take a dog or other animal into any car, after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any car in breach of this Bye-law, shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the car, immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request, may be removed by, or under the direction of, the conductor.

Firearms, &c.

19. No person shall enter, board, or travel in or on any car with firearms, or with any article, instrument, or implement, or any material or substance which may in the opinion of the conductor be dangerous or offensive to the passengers, provided that nothing in this Bye-law shall apply to persons in the Naval, Military, Reserve, or Auxiliary Forces carrying unloaded firearms.

Interference with Conductor or Driver.

20. No person, other than the conductor, driver, or other servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty, shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controllers, brakes, lights, ventilators, trolley cord, or any part of a car, or its equipment, or signal a car to start.

Obstruction.

21. No person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any conductor, driver, or other servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty upon or in connection with any car or tramway; and no person shall within the county borough of Bury wilfully obstruct or impede any car.
