The KING has been pleased to give and graut unto Martin Andrew Sharp Hume, Esq., His Majesty's Royal licence and authority that he may accept and wear the Grand Cross of the Order of "Isabel la Catolica," conferred upon him by His Majesty the King of Spain in recognition of valuable services rendered by him to His Majesty.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of July, 1905.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.

Mr. Secretary Akers-Douglas.

Mr. Gerald Balfour.

Whereas by the Pharmacy Act, 1868, section 2, it is enacted that the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain may from time to time, by resolution, declare that any article in such resolution named ought to be deemed a poison within the meaning of that Act, and thereupon the said Society shall submit the same for approval of the Privy Council; and that, if such approval shall be given, then such resolution and approval shall be advertised in the London Gazette; and, on the expiration of one month from such advertisement, the article named in such resolution shall be deemed to be a poison within the meaning of that Act:

And whereas the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain did, on the fifth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and five, resolve and declare, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, that each of the following articles, namely:—

Cocaine and its salts,

Picrotoxin,

Preparations of Cocaine,

Digitalis and its preparations,

Mercuric Iodide,

Mercuric Sulphocyanide,

Strophanthus and its preparations, ought to be deemed a poison within the meaning of the Pharmacy Act, 1868; and also that of the same, each of the following articles, namely:

Cocaine and its salts,

Picrotoxin,

ought to be deemed a poison in the first part of Schedule A to the said Pharmacy Act, 1868:

And whereas the said Society have submitted the said resolution for the approval of the Privy Council, and the Lords of the Privy Council are of opinion that the said resolution should be approved:

Now, therefore, their Lordships are hereby pleased to signify their approval of the said resolution.

A. W. FitzRoy.
