

appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials, in the parish churchyard of Saint Mary, Leighton, in the county of Salop, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas the time for the discontinuance of burials therein, was, by Order in Council of the tenth May, one thousand nine hundred and five, postponed to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and five, and whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be further postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Mary, Leighton, in the county of Salop, be further postponed to the thirtieth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and five.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court of Saint James, the 7th day of August, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Peter, Selsey, in the county of West Sussex, of the parish of Saint Leodegarius, Ashby Saint Legers, in the county of Northampton, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial grounds should be opened in the civil parishes of Selsey, and Ashby Saint Legers, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz.:

SELSEY.—Forthwith and entirely in the present Parish Church of Saint Peter, Selsey, in the county of West Sussex; and in the churchyard attached thereto, except as follows:—

(a.) In earthen graves now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the bodies of Mrs. Harriett James, Mr. William Petts, and Mr. Legg, at their decease;

(b.) In the said churchyard in grave spaces in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the bodies of Mr. Grantham, Mrs. Bateman, Mrs. Fisher, Mr. Arnell Smith, and Miss Katherine Lockhart Foster, at their decease.

ASHBY SAINT LEGERS.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Leodegarius in the said parish, and in the churchyard.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-fifth day of September next:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representations one month before the said twenty-fifth day of September.

A. W. FitzRoy.

Whitehall, August 10, 1905.

The KING has been pleased to order a Congé d'Élire to pass the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Ely to elect a Bishop of that See, the same being void by the resignation of the Right Reverend Father in God Doctor Alwyne Compton (commonly called Lord Alwyne Compton), late Bishop thereof; and His Majesty has been pleased to recommend to the said Dean and Chapter the Reverend Frederic Henry Chase, D.D., President of Queens' College, Cambridge, to be by them elected Bishop of the said See of Ely.

Whitehall, August 1, 1905.

The KING has been pleased to grant unto Stephen Granville Ashfordby-Trenchard, of Vista Linda, in the parish of Torquay and county of Devon, Gentleman, fifth son of John Ashfordby-Trenchard, now of Stanton Fitzwarren, Highworth, in the county of Wilts, by Augusta Sarah Mary Ann, his wife, late of Vista Linda aforesaid, and daughter of Henry Robert Fowler, late of Adelaide-crescent, Brighton, in the county of Sussex, Clerk in Holy Orders, both deceased, His Royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with a clause contained in the will of the said Augusta Sarah Mary Ann Ashfordby-Trenchard, assume and use the surname and arms of Fowler, instead of those of Ashfordby-Trenchard, and that such surname and arms may in like manner be taken, borne, and used by his issue; the said arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.
