

Streatham, in the county and diocese aforesaid from the said new parish of Saint Mary, Streatham, and extending thence south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Streatham, from the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John the Divine, Bedford Hill, Balham aforesaid and extending thence north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts (thereby following in part the middle of the Croydon and Balham Line of the said London, Brighton and South Coast Railway and in part the middle of the said Crystal Palace and West End line of the same railway) to the first described point at the centre of the bridge which carries the said last-named line of railway over Bedford Hill-road, aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of November, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Northumberland Heath, in the parish of Erith, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Northumberland Heath, as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Reginald, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Erith, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Northumberland Heath as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Northumberland Heath, Erith.'

"And with the like consent of the said John Reginald, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Northumberland Heath as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Northumberland Heath, Erith, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Erith, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester, which is bounded upon part of the north and upon the west by the new parish of All Saints, Belvedere, upon the south partly by the new parish of Christ Church, Bexley Heath, and partly by the parish of Crayford, upon the east by the new parish of Christ Church, Erith, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Erith, from the said parish of Erith at the junction of Bexley-road with Carlton-road, and extending thence first north-westward then westward and then south-westward along the middle of Carlton-road for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction with Brook-street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Brook-street for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Parsonage Manor Way upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Erith from the said new parish of All Saints, Belvedere."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.
