

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of November, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Emmanuel, Southport, situate in the parish of North Meols, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Liverpool.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Emmanuel, Southport, situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis James, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of North Meols which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Emmanuel, Southport situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Emmanuel, Southport.’

“And with the like consent of the said Francis James, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Emmanuel, Southport, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Emmanuel, Southport, being:—

“All that part of the parish of North Meols, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool, which is bounded upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint John, Crossens, in the said county and diocese, upon the north-west by the sea, upon the south-west by the new parish of All Saints, Southport, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at a point, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints, Southport, from the said parish of North Meols, on the northerly side of Preston-road and extending thence first eastward to the middle of the West Lancashire Branch of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway and then north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of one mile and fifty chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of North Meols from the said new parish of Saint John, Crossens.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Liverpool.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of November, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of the Elementary Education Act, 1876, it is enacted as follows:—

“It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, to apply to a certified day Industrial School the provisions of the Industrial Schools Act, 1866, and the Acts amending the same, with such modifications as appear to Her Majesty to be necessary or proper for adapting such provisions to a day Industrial School, and bringing them into conformity with this Act.

“It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, to revoke and vary any Order in Council made under this section.

“Every such Order shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within one month after it is made, if Parliament be then sitting, or if not, within one month after the beginning of the then next session of Parliament, and while in force shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Act.”

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, it is ordered that the school named in an order of detention or in an attendance order requiring detention or attendance in a certified day Industrial School shall
