

pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the rectory of East Lydford, situate in the county of Somerset and diocese of Bath and Wells, and the rectory of Wheathill, situate in the same county and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of December, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught and Strathearn.

Lord Chancellor.
Mr. A. J. Balfour.
Lord President.
Marquess of Lansdowne.
Mr. Secretary Akers-Douglas.
Mr. John Atkinson.
Sir Edward Carson.
Sir Alfred Wills.
Mr. J. S. Sandars.
Mr. Victor Cavendish.
Sir Charles Dalrymple.
Lieutenant-Colonel Mark Lockwood.

WHEREAS by the Medical Act, 1886, it is provided (amongst other things) that His Majesty may from time to time, by Order in Council, declare that the Second Part of the said Act shall be deemed, on and after a day to be named in such Order, to apply to any Foreign Country which in His Majesty's opinion affords to the medical practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in the said Foreign Country as to His Majesty may seem just, and from and after the day named in such Order in Council such Foreign Country shall be deemed to be a Foreign Country to which the said Act applies, within the meaning of the Second Part thereof, and that until such Order in Council has been made in respect of any Foreign Country the said Second Part of the said Act shall not be deemed to apply to any such Country.

And whereas the Empire of Japan affords, in His Majesty's opinion, to the registered medical practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in Japan as to His Majesty seems just.

Now, therefore, His Majesty doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, direct, and declare that the Second Part of the Medical Act, 1886, shall be deemed to apply to the Empire of Japan.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of December, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught and Strathearn.

Lord Chancellor.
Mr. A. J. Balfour.
Lord President.
Marquess of Lansdowne.
Mr. Secretary Akers-Douglas.
Mr. John Atkinson.
Sir Edward Carson.

Sir Alfred Wills.

Sir Charles Dalrymple.
Lieutenant-Colonel Mark Lockwood.

WHEREAS by "The Brunei Order in Council, 1901" (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Order), certain fines, penalties, and other sums of money are stated in terms of dollar currency, and it is expedient that the same should be stated in terms of British currency, provision being made for payments in dollars at temporary rates of exchange, and that those rates of exchange should apply to the ascertainment of value in cases where any value is required to be reckoned in terms of British currency:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Principal Order shall be amended as follows:

Five pounds shall be substituted for fifty dollars in Articles 11, 16, 25, and 89;

Twenty pounds shall be substituted for two hundred dollars in Articles 64 and 86;

Fifty pounds shall be substituted for five hundred dollars in Articles 38, 41, 66, 68, 69, and 89;

Two hundred pounds shall be substituted for two thousand dollars in Article 69;

Five hundred pounds shall be substituted for five thousand dollars in Article 37.

2. All fees, fines, penalties, and other sums of money which, under the provisions of the Principal Order as amended by this Order, or of any other Order or any Rules or Regulations, are stated or imposed in terms of British currency shall, if not paid in British gold, be paid at the rate of ten dollars to the pound sterling, or at such other rate as may be from time to time fixed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

The rate of exchange for the time being in force under this Article shall apply to the ascertainment of any value for the purposes of any limitation, security, or qualification in any case where, under the Principal Order (as amended by this Order), or any other Order, or any Rules or Regulations, such value is required to be reckoned in terms of British currency.

3. This Order shall take effect on such day not less than one month, nor more than two months, after it is first publicly exhibited at Brunei, as the Consul shall appoint.

4. This Order may be cited as "The Brunei Order in Council, 1905."

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of December, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the
