

In the Statutes made for Corpus Christi College, Oxford, by the University of Oxford Commissioners and approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council on the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

In the substituted clause 24 (b) approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council on the twelfth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, instead of the words "and the other two either Tutors, Assistant Tutors, Lecturers or Officers of the College" the following words shall be substituted "and the other two either Fellows, Lecturers, Officers or Chaplains of the College."

Given under our Corporate Seal, this thirteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and five. (L. S.)

Thomas Case, President.

The Governing Body of Corpus Christi College, Oxford, begs to submit for the approval of His Majesty in Council, the following alterations of Statutes made at a General Meeting of that Governing Body, specially summoned for the purpose, by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting on the second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and five, and sealed on the thirteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and five.

In the Statutes made for Corpus Christi College, Oxford, by the University of Oxford Commissioners, and approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council on the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

In the substituted clause 24 (b) approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council, on the twelfth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, after the words "if the College shall desire to retain his services as a Tutor or Assistant Tutor" at the end of the clause the additional words shall be inserted "for the purposes of this clause residence in Beam Hall shall count as residence in College."

In clause 32 (a) instead of the words "in which case the Scholar's tenure shall be renewed for a further term of two years," the following words shall be substituted, "in which case the tenure of his Scholarship shall be renewed for such period, not exceeding two years, as the College shall, in each case determine, and the said tenure may from time to time be further renewed for such period as the College shall in each case determine, but so that the periods of tenure, original and renewed, shall not exceed four years in all."

Given under our Corporate Seal this thirteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and five. (L. S.)

The following Statutes made by the Governing Body of Merton College, Oxford, on the ninth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and five (and sealed on the fourteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and five), have been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

The Warden and Fellows of Merton College, Oxford, respectfully submit to His Majesty the King in Council the following new Statutes, which were passed unanimously on Saturday, December ninth, one thousand nine hundred and five, at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the College, specially summoned for that purpose, in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877," section 54.

I.

At a General Meeting of the Governing Body of Merton College, held on December ninth, one thousand nine hundred and five, it was resolved unanimously—

"That the following sub-section (h) be added at the end of the new Statute III 8 (made by the College on March eighteenth, one thousand nine hundred and four)—

"Statute III 8.

"(h) A person holding a Fellowship under the provisions of sub-section iii of clause 7 is hereinafter called an Official Fellow.

"Also any Fellow, not holding his Fellowship under the provisions of the aforesaid sub-section, who, being appointed to act as Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar, is regularly employed in the service of the College, shall be deemed to be an Official Fellow for the purposes of Statute V 5, and Statute VIII, provided that the number of Official Fellows shall never exceed ten."

Given under our Common Seal this fourteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and five. (L. S.)

II.

At a General Meeting of the Governing Body of Merton College, held on December ninth, one thousand nine hundred and five, it was resolved unanimously:—

"That the whole of Statute V 5 be repealed; and that the following new Statute be made:—

"Statute V.

5. "(a) Every Official Fellow shall be entitled to retire on a pension payable out of the Pension Fund hereinafter provided, after completing twenty-one years of service.

"(b) The scale of payment shall be as follows:—Two hundred pounds a year after twenty-one years' service, with the addition of sixteen pounds a year up to thirty years' service; three hundred and fifty pounds a year after thirty years' service and upwards.

"(c) A person who is entitled to a pension under this clause shall not be disqualified for receiving it by reason of his holding any other property, pension or office; provided that if and so long as such person hold any Ecclesiastical Benefice, Headship or Fellowship in a College, Professorship, Mastership in a School, office tenable for life or during good behaviour, or office in the permanent Civil Service of the State, his pension from the College shall not exceed such amount as with the income derivable from all these sources, clear of deductions (except for Property or Income Tax), will make up a sum of eight hundred pounds a year.

"(d) On the retirement of an Official Fellow, who, not having served for twenty-one years, retires on account of mental or bodily infirmity, and whose circumstances seem to require such assistance, the Warden and Fellows may grant to him, at a Stated College Meeting, a pension
