

said late Majesty, chapter fourteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Philip, Cheam Common, situate within the parish of Cheam, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Cheam and of the parish of Cuddington, in the said county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Cheam and of the said parish of Cuddington should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Philip, Cheam Common, situate as aforesaid.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, as such Bishop, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, as such Bishop, and also as the Patron (in right of his See) of the vicarage of the said parish of Cuddington (in testimony whereof they the said Bishops have respectively signed and sealed this representation) and with the consent of the president and scholars of the College of Saint John the Baptist in the University of Oxford, as the Patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Cheam (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common or Corporate Seal to be affixed to this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Cheam and of the said parish of Cuddington which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Philip, Cheam Common, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Philip, Cheam Common,' and that such consolidated chapelry should become, and be, and form part of the said diocese of Southwark, and should be included within and form part of the rural deanery of Beddington and of the archdeaconry of Kingston-upon-Thames in the said diocese of Southwark.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

× "The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Philip, Cheam Common, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Cheam in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark, and of the parish of Cuddington in the said county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, which, taken together, are bounded upon the north-east partly (but only for a few yards) by the new parish of Benhilton and partly by the parish of Morden, upon the north-west by the parish of Malden, all in the said county of Surrey and in the said diocese of Southwark, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the west, upon the south-west, and upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Malden from the said parish of Cuddington crosses the middle of the Wimbledon and Epsom line of the London and South Western Railway, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of fifty-four chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the roadway leading to the house called Sparrow Farm over the said line of railway, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway or footpath leading towards the houses called Bankside and Ewell Court Farm, and extending thence in a straight line due east for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the roadway which leads from the house called Sparrow Farm to the high road leading from Epsom to London, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the said high road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said high road for a distance of one mile and nineteen chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Cuddington from the said parish of Cheam) to the centre of Pylford Bridge which carries the said road across Pyl Brook upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Cheam from the said new parish of Benhilton."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said diocese of Southwark and of the said diocese of Winchester.
