WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate at Buckland, within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mark, Portsea, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Portsea, of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint James, Milton, of the parish of Portsea, and of the district chapelry of All Saints, Portsea, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes, parish and district chapelry.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Portsea, of the said new parish of Saint James, Milton, of the said parish of Portsea, and of the said district chapelry of All Saints, Portsea, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Buckland as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation, and with the consent of the warden and scholars, clerks of Saint Mary's College, of Winchester, in the said county of Southampton, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Portsea (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or corporate seal to this representation), and with the consent of the Reverend Bernard Robert Wilson, the Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage of the parish of Portsea, and as such vicar the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Portsea, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James, Milton, and of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of All Saints, Portsea (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Portsea, of the said new parish of Saint James, Milton, of the said parish of Portsea; and of the said district chapelry of All Saints, Portsea, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Buckland as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Portsea.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.
