THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

RUFFORD FAIR.

Whereas on the 14th December, 1905, a representation was made to the Secretary of State for the Home Department by the West Lancashire Rural District Council to the effect that a Fair has been held annually in the parish of Rufford, in the county of Lancaster, on the 13th day of May, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should in future be held on the second Saturday in the month of May in each year:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when the same would be taken into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873":

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should in future be held on the second Saturday in the month of May in each year:

Now therefore I, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the Fair which has been held annually in the parish of Rufford, in the county of Lancaster, on the 13th day of May, shall in future be held on the second Saturday in the month of May in each year.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 26th day of February, 1906.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), London, February 26, 1906.

H. 2813.

The Board of Trade have received a copy of the following Rules made by the Governor of St. Lucia, under section 12 of the Quarantine Ordinance, 1905:—

1. Rat Island is an Observation "Station," and is hereinafter called the Station.

2. The Station is under the control and management of the Health Officer, who may engage verbally such number of servants at such rates of pay as the Governor shall in writing approve.

3. Persons to be detained under observation and their baggage shall be removed from the ship to the Station in the ship's boats, or at ship's expense by boats provided by the agents and approved by the Health Officer.

4. The Health Officer is authorised to charge in respect of every 1st Class Passenger for board and lodging for every 24 hours or part thereof, a sum not exceeding ten shillings, and for every other passenger a sum not exceeding one shilling and nine pence.

5. All expenses incurred in respect of the detention or maintenance of any person at the Station may be sued for and recovered by the Health Officer from such person, or from the master, owner, or agent of the ship bringing such person to the Colony.

6. The Health Officer with the approval of the Governor in writing, may order all stores, food, and liquor necessary for the maintenance of persons detained at the Station.

7. The Health Officer may detain the baggage and effects of any person who fails to pay before leaving the Station the amount due from him, and may sell the same after seven days should the said amount then remain unpaid, and deduct from the proceeds of sale the said amount and all costs and expenses.

8. During the detention of persons at the Station a police guard shall be stationed at the Guard House.

9. All persons at the Station shall obey the Health Officer and conform to his directions in every respect, and any such person wilfully disobeying any reasonable order or failing to conform to any reasonable direction of the Health Officer shall be guilty of a breach of these Rules.

10. When any person has been ordered to be detained at the Station no one shall land at or leave the Station without the Health Officer's express permission.

11. So long as the Station is not required for quarantine purposes the Health Officer may let the same at £5 a month, £3 a fortnight, or 20s. the first day, and 5s. every day thereafter.

12. Any person damaging or injuring Government property at the Station shall be guilty of a breach of these Rules.

13. Any person contravening any of these Rules shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £50.

Approved by the Governor-in-Council this 11th January, 1906.

SAMUEL OKELL,
Clerk of Councils.
