

Vienna, July 27. The General Officers that are still here, are now hastening away to the Army; and Prince Louis of Baden intends to go thither Post, and to set out in two or three days. In the mean time, Orders have been sent to General Becke, to send a strong Detachment from the Imperial Army near Esseck, to observe the Enemy, who, as we hear from the Frontiers, had passed the Save in several Bodies, and were forming a Camp near Semlin. The Regiments that are going from Upper Hungary to joyn the Imperial Army on the Drave, are already passed by Buda; and the Auxiliary Forces of Munster and Lunenburgh are likewise far advanced in their way thither. Teckley draws together some Troops near the Frontiers of Transylvania, and threatens to make an Invasion into that Principality, but without any great appearance of being able to effect it; General Veterani having posted himself so as that he may oppose any such Design and at the same time streighten the Garrison of Temeswaer.

Hamburg, August 1. They write from Copenhagen of the 29th past, That the King of Denmark intended to set out the 31st towards Lalandt; and after his return from thence, to take a Journey for a few days to Holstein. The Duke of Zell is gone to visit the Fortifications of Ratsenburg in the Country of Saxe-Lawenburg, on which several hundred Men are daily at work. The Duke of Meclenburg does fortifie Butzow and Gustrow, two small Places within that Principality. Lieutenant-Colonel Molcke, who is banished out of the Dominions of the Princes of Lunenburgh, came hither two days ago. We have Advice, That the Troops of Munster are on their march to joyn those of the Confederate Princes on the Lower Rhine.

Falmouth, August 1. We hear by a Vessel from Scilly, That the Anne of London, of about 280 Tuns, is put in there from Maryland, whence she came about six weeks ago.

Newcastle, August 2. On the 31st past failed out of our Harbor about 300 Laden Colliers, bound to the Southward, under the Convoy of two Men of War.

Portsmouth, August 4. Their Majesties Ships that are come in from Cruising on the Coast of France, have retaken several small English Ships that were taken lately in the Irish Seas by Privateers, having Commissions from the late King

James, one of which was found on board one of these Prizes, being dated the 22d of February last at St. Germain, and counter-signed Melior, by which Patrick Lambert is appointed Captain of the Frigate called the Providance, and empowered to enter into any Port or River of these Dominions, and either there, or at Sea, to take and apprehend, and in case of resistance to sink, fire, or otherwise destroy all Ships and Vessels, together with their Goods, Lading and Merchandizes, belonging to the Inhabitants of England, Scotland, or Ireland, or either of them, together with the Ships, Goods and Merchandizes of the States of the United Provinces, or their Subjects; and to bring or send up all such Ships and Goods as they shall take, into some Port of France, and to procure the same to be adjudged Lawful Prize in the next Court of Admiralty established by his dear Brother the Most Christian King. And the Tenth, and other Dues arising out of the said Prizes, are to be paid to Thomas Stratford, or in his absence to Jean Nimport of Brest, or to such other Persons as shall have Authority from the late King James to receive the same.

The Mail from Holland of Tuesday last is not yet come in.

Advertisements.

 An Exposition of the Creed. By John Lord Bishop of Chester. The sixth Edition, Revised, and now more enlarged. Printed for J. Williams, and sold by T. Sawbridge at the Three Flower-de-Luces in Little-Britain.

 The Good Housewife made a Doctor; or Healths Choice and sure Friend. Being a plain way of natures own prescribing to prevent and cure most Diseases incident to Men, Women and Children, by Diet and Kitchen-Physick only. With some Remarks on the Practice of Physick and Chymistry. By Thomas Tryon, Student in Physick. The second Edition, with Additions. Printed for H. N. and T. S. and sold by R. Taylor near Stationers-Hall.

TOBY, an East-India Black, about 20 years old, pretty tall and slender, with thick bushy hair, lately run away from on board the Ship Beaufort, Captain Stagenns Commander: He wore a red Waistcoat with Tin Buttons, a leathern Mounseer Cap, and Canvas Breeches. Whoever brings him to Captain Nobles at the Fountain-Tavern in the Minories, London, shall have a Guinea Reward, and Charges.

Taken away from a Gentleman at or near Footscroy in Kent, on the 18th past, by some Foot-Pads, a brown Bay Gelding, above 14 hands, Trots and Gallops, has a Blase, a Scar in the Saddle-place; Also a Bond given by one William Kitchenham Gentleman, to Peter Theobald Gentleman, Penalty 100l. for Payment of 50l. dated the 20th of Nov. 1686. And also an Assignment of the same Bond from the said Peter Theobald to Francis Tooke Gent. dated the 14th Decemb. 1686. Whoever brings the said Horse or Bond and Assignment to Mr. Marshall's Sword-Cutler at the Inner-Temple-gate in Fleet-street, shall have a Guinea Reward for each.

A Hulms Chappel in Cheshire, the Red-lion-Inn, a good Cellar, Stabling, a large Garden, and all other Conveniences, to be Let; and all the Household goods, with the Hay and Corn, are to be sold at reasonable Rates, at or before Michaelmas next, by Peter Yates, Master of the said House.

Taken from Mr. Robert Murrel on the 5th instanc, by Foot-Pads, near Newington, a Pendulum Watch, made by David Lecount, a small Hanger with a Bucks horn Handle, and silver Guard, with his Name upon the Blade in Golden Letters, also a Case of Lances. Whoever gives Notice of the Things or Person to Mr. Robert Murrel at the Green Dragon in Enfield, or to Mr. Paul Kery at the Feathers-Tavern in Cheapside, London, shall have a Guinea Reward.