LORD CHANCELLOR.

PRIME MINISTER. LORD PRESIDENT.

Lord Privy Seal.

Earl Carrington.

Mr. Sinclair.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and six, to nominate and appoint the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Prime Minister, and the Lord President of the Council, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto they should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual and to do further on His behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto they should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two) chapter twenty-six duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two), chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain additions and improvements at the episcopal residence belonging to the See of Carlisle which is situate in the county of Cumberland and is known as Rose Castle.

"Whereas the Right Reverend John William, now Bishop of the diocese of Carlisle is desirous that certain additions and improvements should be made at the said episcopal residence known as Rose Castle and has submitted to us the particulars of such improvements and we have specified our general approval of the same.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the aforesaid additions and improvements a sum of six hundred pounds (being a sum which does not exceed two years' income of the See) should be provided by his borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishoprick of Carlisle.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John William, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified by his having affixed his signature and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding six hundred pounds and that as a security for the same the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by deed for a term of twenty years or until the said sum of six hundred pounds, with interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following, that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter, pay to the said Governors their successors or assigns one fifteenth part of the said principal sum of six hundred pounds until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months, computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid. And that if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors their successors and assigns to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind as well the said John William now Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, as every succeeding Bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of six hundred pounds shall be paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that the receipt of our Joint Treasurers for the time being indorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge of the Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of six hundred pounds the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such time or times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards defraying the cost of the aforesaid additions and improvements at the episcopal residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that the Bishop of Carlisle for the time being shall insure against loss or damage by fire and keep insured the said episcopal residence the said insurance to be for a sum of not less than ten thousand pounds and to be effected in one or more of the public offices of insurance in London or Westminster to be approved by us and that in case of loss or damage by fire to the said episcopal residence the moneys receivable in respect of the said insurance shall be paid over to us by the said Bishop and shall with any interest or accumulations thereon be applied by us in rebuilding or repairing the same episcopal residence with the concurrence of the said Bishop.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the herein named Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission: Now, therefore, The Lord Chancellor, The Prime Minister, and The Lord President being authorized in that behalf by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, do hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and further on His Majesty's behalf, by and with the like advice, do hereby direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

PRESENT,
LORD CHANCELLOR.
PRIME MINISTER. LORD PRESIDENT.
Lord Privy Seal.
Earl Carrington.
Mr. Sinclair.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and six, to nominate and appoint the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Prime Minister, and the Lord President of the Council, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto they should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further, on His behalf, any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto they should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a new Archdeaconry within the diocese of Rochester, for endowing such new Archdeaconry and for altering the names or the boundaries of some of the rural deaneries within the same diocese.

"Whereas the said diocese of Rochester has heretofore comprised one Archdeaconry and no more, namely, the Archdeaconry of Rochester.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester, has represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that a new Archdeaconry should be constituted within the said diocese of Rochester and should comprise the rural deaneries of North Malling, South Malling, Shoreham and Tonbridge which are at present within the said Archdeaconry of Rochester and within the said diocese of Rochester, that such new Archdeaconry should be endowed in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed, that the said rural deanery of North Malling shall be named 'The rural deanery of Malling,' that the said rural deanery of South Malling shall be named 'The rural deanery of Tunbridge Wells,' and that the parish of Stansted shall be transferred from the said rural deanery of Shoreham to the rural deanery of Cobham within the said Archdeaconry of Rochester.

"And whereas it appears to us to be undesirable that procurations, synodals, visitation fees and induction fees should be received by the Archdeacon of the said proposed new Archdeaconry.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the discontinuance of the collection of the said fees there will be no annual income available for the said proposed Archdeaconry from fees, dues and emoluments, and that the grant hereinafter recommended and proposed will not be such as to raise the annual income of the said proposed Archdeaconry to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds.

"Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order one new Archdeaconry shall be created within the said diocese of Rochester, and that such Archdeaconry shall be named 'The Archdeaconry of Tonbridge' and shall comprise and consist of the rural deaneries of North Malling, South Malling, Shoreham and Tonbridge which have hitherto been situate within the said Archdeaconry of Rochester, that the said rural deanery of North Malling shall cease to bear that name, and shall in lieu thereof be named 'The rural deanery of Malling,' that the said rural deanery of South Malling shall cease to bear that name and shall in lieu thereof be named 'The rural deanery of Tunbridge Wells,' and that the said parish of Stansted shall be dis severed from the said rural deanery of Shoreham, and shall be annexed to and shall become and be and form part of the said rural deanery of Cobham.

"And we further recommend and propose that the rural deans and other the clergy and the inhabitants generally of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Tonbridge shall be under and subject to the archidiaconal jurisdiction, authority and control of the Archdeacon of such proposed Archdeaconry for the time being and that such Archdeacon shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and duties of an Archdeacon within the limits of his Archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that we be authorized to pay by half-yearly instalments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year out of the common fund created by the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act to the Archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Tonbridge and to his successors in the same Archdeaconry the yearly sum of two hundred pounds, the instalment so first becoming due being an apportioned part only of the said sum of two hundred pounds in respect of the period between the date of the institution of the first Archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Tonbridge and the first half-yearly day of payment next ensuing: provided always that every payment in respect of the said yearly sum of two hundred pounds shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the Archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous twelve calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law and that he has not collected procurations, synodals, visitation fees or induction fees during the same period.

"And we further recommend and propose that whenever any Archdeacon who may be entitled to receive the said yearly sum of two hundred pounds shall resign or otherwise avoid his Archdeaconry such yearly sum shall be apportionable between such Archdeacon or his representatives (as the case may be) and the Archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same Archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the Archdeacon affected thereby and he has signified his consent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission: Now, therefore, The Lord Chancellor, The Prime Minister, and The Lord President being authorized in that behalf by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, do hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on His Majesty's behalf, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and further on His Majesty's behalf, by and with the like advice, do hereby direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

Mr. Sinclair.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and six, to nominate and appoint the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Prime Minister, and the Lord President of the Council, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto they should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto they should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the rural deaneries or some of them which are within the archdeaconry of Liverpool, within the diocese of Liverpool.

"Whereas by an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of the month following there were effected certain rearrangements of the areas of the said archdeaconry of Liverpool and of the said archdeaconry of Warrington in the said diocese of Liverpool and of some of the rural deaneries therein.

"And whereas by another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the eleventh day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and published in the London Gazette on the seventeenth day of the same month there were effected certain further rearrangements of the areas of the said archdeaconries of Liverpool and Warrington and some of the rural deaneries therein.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Francis James, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the rural deaneries within the said archdeaconry of Liverpool or some of them are desirable and should be carried into effect and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

"And whereas the said arrangements involve the transfer of six cures, namely, the cures of All Saints, Liverpool, Christ Church, Liverpool, Holy Trinity, Liverpool, Saint Anne, Liverpool, Saint Mary Magdalene, Liverpool, and Saint Matthew, Liverpool, from the rural deanery of Walton within the said archdeaconry of Liverpool to the rural deanery of North Liverpool within the same archdeaconry.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Francis James, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that, as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the said rural deanery of North Liverpool and the said rural deanery of Walton shall respectively comprise and consist of the parishes, cures, and churches, the names of which are set down in numbered order under the names of such rural deaneries respectively in the schedule to this scheme annexed, and each of the said parishes or cures or churches shall belong to and be and form part of the rural deanery under the name of which it is set down as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the rural dean of the rural deanery under which it is so set down as aforesaid and shall not belong to or be a part of any other rural deanery nor be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of any other rural dean.

"And we further recommend and propose that

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at St. James's, the 4th day of April, 1906.

PRESENT,
LORD CHANCELLOR,
PRIME MINISTER. LORD PRESIDENT.
Lord Privy Seal.
Earl Carrington.
Mr. Sinclair.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and six, to nominate and appoint the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Prime Minister, and the Lord President of the Council, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat his approval of any matter or thing whereunto they should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto they should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish (sometime district) of All Saints, Newton, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

“Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of All Saints, Newton, is a parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of All Saints, Newton, which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas we are satisfied that an adequate and permanent maintenance for the support of the Minister of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish then for the support of the Incumbent thereof will be secured as from the date of the licensing or appointment of such Minister or Incumbent by the payment of a sum of not less than one hundred and fifty pounds which will be annually provided out of the moneys received by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under the provisions of the Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbutnot, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of All Saints, Newton, which is more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Wilfrid, Newton Heath.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Wilfrid, Newton Heath, being all that part of the parish (sometime district) of All Saints, Newton, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded upon the west partly by the parish of Saint Anne, Newton Heath, and partly by the parish of Saint Augustine, Newton Heath, upon the north by the parish of Saint Mary, Moston, upon the east by the district of the Holy Trinity, Failsworth, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said district of the Holy Trinity, Failsworth, from the said parish of All Saints, Newton, crosses the middle of the Rochdale Canal, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the Rochdale Canal for a distance of sixty-five chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of All Saints, Newton, from the said parish of Saint Anne, Newton Heath."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission: Now therefore The Lord Chancellor, The Prime Minister, and The Lord President being authorized in that behalf by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, do hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on his Majesty's behalf, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and further, on his Majesty's behalf, by and with the like advice, do hereby direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at St James's, the 4th day of April, 1906.

PRESENT,
LORD CHANCELLOR.

PRIME MINISTER. LORD PRESIDENT.
Lord Privy Seal.
Earl Carrington.
Mr. Sinclair.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and six, to nominate and appoint the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Prime Minister, and the Lord President of the Council, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto they should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto they should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the first day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Christ Church, Herne Bay, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas by the authority of an instrument bearing date the twelfth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, a particular district was assigned to the consecrated church called Christ Church, Herne Bay, situate in the parish of Herne, in the said county and diocese, and such particular district was known as 'The Particular District of Christ Church, Herne Bay.'

"And whereas by the authority of an instrument bearing date the second day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, and being under our common seal and under the hand and seal of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, the publication of banns of matrimony and the solemnisation of marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials were authorized in the said church called Christ Church, Herne Bay.

"And whereas the said particular district of Christ Church, Herne Bay, has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Herne Bay, shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Herne Bay, shall be altered so that all that portion of the said parish of Herne, which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Herne Bay.

(See sub-division d, and the last paragraph of Article 15.)

(2.) The Secretary of State, or the Minister, as the case may be, may temporarily attach to the Court for Siam such persons, being Consular officers, as he thinks fit.

(3.) Every officer, clerk, and other person thus attached shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers in connection with the Court as may be prescribed, or as the Judge may direct, subject to any instructions of the Secretary of State.

11. The Judge and each Assistant Judge shall hold office during the pleasure of His Majesty.

12. In case at any time His Majesty thinks fit by warrant under His Royal sign manual to revoke the warrant appointing any person to be Judge or Assistant Judge, or while there is a Judge or Assistant Judge in office thinks fit by warrant under His Royal sign manual to appoint another person to be Judge or Assistant Judge (as the case may be), then, and in every such case, until the warrant of revocation or of new appointment is notified by the Minister to the person holding office, all powers and authorities vested in that person shall continue and be deemed to have continued in as full force—and he shall continue, and be deemed to have continued, entitled to all the privileges and emoluments of the office as fully, and all things done by him shall be and be deemed to have been as valid in law—as if such warrant of revocation or new appointment had not been made.

13. The Court for Siam shall have a seal, bearing the style of the Court and such device as the Secretary of State approves; but the seal in use at the commencement of this Order shall continue to be used until a new seal is provided.

(ii.) District Courts.

14. (1.)—Consular officers shall hold District Courts at such places in Siam as may from time to time be appointed under this Order.

(2.) The Minister may, by order in writing, with the previous or subsequent approval of the Secretary of State, appoint places at which District Courts shall be held, and may assign the district in and for which each such Court shall act, and may designate the Consular officer who shall hold such Court.

(3.) Every District Court shall be styled "His Britannic Majesty's District Court at . . ."

(4.) Every District Court shall, with the approval of the Court for Siam, appoint a competent person, or persons, to perform such duties and to exercise such powers as are by this Order and any Rules of Court imposed and conferred upon the Registrar and Marshal, and any person so appointed shall perform such duties and exercise such powers accordingly.

(5.) Every District Court shall have a seal bearing its style and such device as the Secretary of State from time to time directs; but where such a seal is not provided, the seal of the Consular officer holding the Court may be used.

(iii.) Travelling District Judges.

15. (1.)—The Minister may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, appoint one or more Consular officers to act as Travelling District Judges.

(2.) A Travelling District Judge may, subject to this Order and to Rules of Court, and to the directions of the Minister, hold a Court at any place in Siam where he may think fit, and shall for this purpose have all the powers and authority of a District Court; and for the purposes of this Order the Court of a Travelling District Judge shall be deemed to be comprised within the term "District Court."

(3.) The Court of a Travelling District Judge shall have concurrent jurisdiction with any District Court within the limits of whose district it may be held.

(4.) The jurisdiction of a Travelling District Judge may be restricted by Rules of Court by the exclusion of any class or classes of cases as may seem expedient in the interests of justice.

(iv.) Powers of Courts.

16.—(1.) The Court for Siam shall have in all matters, civil and criminal, an original jurisdiction, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the several District Courts, to be exercised subject and according to the provisions of this Order.

(2.) The Court for Siam shall ordinarily sit at Bangkok, but may also as circumstances may require sit at any other place in Siam.

(3.) The Judge of the Court for Siam, or an Assistant Judge under the directions of the Judge, may visit, in a magisterial or judicial capacity, any place in Siam, and there inquire of, or hear and determine, any case, civil or criminal, and may examine any records or other documents in any District Court, and give directions as to the keeping thereof.

17. All His Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, not under this Order vested exclusively in the Court for Siam, shall to the extent and in the manner provided by this Order be vested in the District Courts.

18.—(1.) Where any case, civil or criminal, commenced in a District Court, appears to that Court to be beyond its jurisdiction, or to be one which for any other reason ought to be tried in the Court for Siam, the District Court shall report the case to the Court for Siam for directions.

(2.) The Court for Siam may of its own motion, or upon the report of a District Court, or on the application of any party concerned, require any case, civil or criminal, pending in any District Court to be transferred to, or tried in, the Court for Siam, or may direct in what Court and in what mode, subject to the provisions of this Order, any such case shall be tried.

19. The Court for Siam and each District Court shall, in the exercise of every part of its jurisdiction, be a Court of Record.

20. Every District Court shall execute any writ or order issuing from the Court for Siam, and shall take security from any person named in a writ or order for his appearance personally or by attorney, and shall in default of security being given, or when the Court for Siam so orders, send the person in custody to Bangkok.

21. The Court for Siam and each District Court shall be auxiliary to one another in all particulars relative to the administration of justice, civil or criminal.

22. Subject to the provisions of this Order criminal and civil cases may be tried as follows:—

(a.) In the case of the Court for Siam, by the Court itself, or by the Court with a jury, or with assessors.

(b.) In the case of a District Court, by the Court itself, or by the Court with assessors.

23.—(1.) Notwithstanding anything in this Order, the Court shall not exercise any jurisdiction in any proceeding whatsoever over the Minister, or over his official or other residences, or his official or other property.

(2.) Notwithstanding anything in this Order, the Court shall not exercise, except with the consent of the Minister signified in writing to the Court, any jurisdiction in any proceeding over any person attached to or being a member of, or in the service of, the Legation.

(3.) If in any case under this Order it appears to the Court that the attendance of the Minister, or of any person attached to or being a member of the Legation, or being in the service of the Legation, to give evidence before the Court is requisite in the interest of justice, the Court may address to the Minister a request in writing for such attendance.

(4.) A person attending to give evidence before the Court shall not be compelled or allowed to give any evidence or produce any document, if, in the opinion of the Minister, signified by him personally or in writing to the Court, the giving or production thereof would be injurious to His Majesty's service.

(v.) Jurors and Assessors.

24.—(1.) Every male resident British subject of the age of 21 years or upwards, having a competent knowledge of the English language, and having or earning a gross income of such amount as may be determined by Rules of Court, and not having been attainted of treason or felony, or convicted of any crime that is infamous (unless he has obtained a free pardon), nor being under outlawry, shall be qualified to serve on a jury.

(2.) All persons so qualified shall be liable so to serve, except the following:—

Persons in actual employment in His Majesty's Diplomatic, Consular, or other Civil Service.

Officers, clerks, keepers of prisons, messengers, and other persons attached to or in the service of the Court;

Officers and others on full pay in His Majesty's navy or army, or in actual employment in the service of any Department connected therewith;

Persons holding appointments in the civil, naval, or military service of Siam;

Clergymen and ministers in the actual discharge of professional duties;

Legal practitioners in actual practice;

Physicians, surgeons, and apothecaries in actual practice;

Persons who are over 60 years of age, or are disabled by mental or bodily infirmity.

(3.) A jury shall consist of five jurors.

(4.) In criminal cases tried with a jury, the verdict of the jury must be unanimous. In civil cases the verdict must be unanimous unless the parties otherwise agree.

(5.) No challenge shall be allowed except for cause shown to the satisfaction of the Court.

(6.) No grand jury shall be summoned.

(7.) Where there is to be a hearing with a jury, the Court shall summon so many of the persons comprised in the jury list, not fewer than nine, as seem requisite.

(8.) Any person failing to attend, according to the summons, shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of Court, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £10.

(9.) Any such fine shall not be levied until after the expiration of fourteen days. The proper officer of the Court shall forthwith give to the person fined notice in writing of the imposition of the fine, and require him within six days after receipt of the notice to file an affidavit excusing non-attendance (if he desire to do so). The Court shall consider the affidavit and may, if it seems proper, remit the fine.

25.—(1.) An Assessor shall be a competent and impartial British subject of good repute, resident in the district of the particular Court, and nominated and summoned by the Court for the purpose of acting as Assessor.

(2.) In the Court for Siam there may be one Assessor or two Assessors, as the Court thinks fit.

(3.) In a District Court there shall ordinarily not be fewer than two, and not more than four, Assessors. Where, however, by reason of local circumstances, the Court is able to obtain the presence of one Assessor only, the Court may, if it thinks fit, sit with one Assessor only; and where, for like reasons, the Court is not able to obtain the presence of an Assessor, the Court may, if it thinks fit, sit without an Assessor, the Court in every case recording in the Minutes its reasons for sitting with one Assessor only or without an Assessor.

(4.) An Assessor shall not have any voice in the decision of the Court in any case, civil or criminal; but an Assessor dissenting, in a civil case, from any decision of the Court, or, in a criminal case, from any decision of the Court or the conviction or the amount of punishment awarded, may record in the Minutes his dissent, and the grounds thereof, and shall be entitled to receive without payment a certified copy of the Minutes.

(5.) If any person summoned to Act as Assessor fails, without lawful excuse, to attend at the trial, or at any adjournment thereof, or to continue to serve throughout the trial, he shall be liable, under a summary order of the Court, to a fine not exceeding £10.

PART III.—CRIMINAL MATTERS.

26.—(1.) Except as regards offences made or declared such by this or any other Order relating to Siam, or by any Rules or Regulations made under any such Order, any act that would not by a Court of Justice having criminal jurisdiction in England be deemed an offence in England shall not, in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order, be deemed an offence, or be the subject of any criminal proceeding under this Order.

(2.) Subject to the provisions of this Order, criminal jurisdiction under this Order shall, as far as circumstances admit, be exercised on the principles of, and in conformity with, English law for the time being, and with the powers vested in the Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England, according to their respective jurisdiction and authority.

Local Jurisdiction in Criminal Matters.

27. Every Court may cause to be summoned or arrested, and brought before it, any person subject to, and being within the limits of, its jurisdiction, and accused of having committed an offence cognizable under this Order, and may deal with the accused according to the jurisdiction of the Court and in conformity with the provisions of this Order.

28. For the purposes of criminal jurisdiction every offence and cause of complaint committed or arising within the limits of this Order shall be deemed to have been committed or to have arisen either in the place where the same actually was committed or arose or in any place where the person charged or complained of happens to be at the time of the institution or commencement of the charge or complaint.

29. Where a person charged with an offence escapes or removes from the Consular district within which the offence was committed, and is found within another Consular district, the Court within whose district he is found may proceed in the case to trial and punishment, or to preliminary examination (as the case may require), in like manner as if the offence had been committed in its own district; or may, on the requisition or with the consent of the Court within whose district the offence was committed, send him in custody to that Court, or require him to give security for his surrender to that Court, there to answer the charge, and to be dealt with according to law.

Where any person is to be so sent in custody, a warrant shall be issued by the Court within whose district he is found, and that warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and to carry him to and deliver him up to the Court within whose district the offence was committed, according to the warrant.

30.—(1.) In cases of murder or manslaughter if either the death, or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death, happened within the jurisdiction of a Court acting under this Order, that Court shall have the like jurisdiction over any person who is charged either as the principal offender, or as accessory before the fact to murder, or as accessory after the fact to murder or manslaughter, as if both the criminal act and the death had happened within that jurisdiction.

(2.) In the case of any offence committed on the high seas, or within the Admiralty jurisdiction, by any British subject on board a British ship, or on board a foreign ship to which he did not belong, the Court shall, subject to the provisions of this Order, have jurisdiction as if the offence had been committed within the jurisdiction of that Court. In cases tried under this Article no different sentence can be passed from the sentence which could be passed in England if the offence were tried there.

(3.) The foregoing provisions of this Article shall be deemed to be adaptations, for the purposes of this Order and of the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, of the following enactments, that is to say:—

The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1849.

The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1860.

The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, section 686.

Apprehension and Custody of Accused Persons.

31.—(1.) Where a person charged with an offence is arrested on a warrant issuing out of any Court, he shall be brought before the Court within forty-eight hours after the execution of the warrant, unless in any case circumstances unavoidably prevent his being brought before the Court within that time, which circumstances shall be recorded in the Minutes.

(2.) In every case he shall be brought before the Court as soon as circumstances reasonably admit, and the time and circumstances shall be recorded in the Minutes.

32. Where an accused person is in custody, he shall not be remanded at any time for more than seven days, unless circumstances appear to the Court to make it necessary or proper that he should be remanded for a longer time, which circumstances, and the time of remand, shall be recorded in the Minutes.

33. In no case shall a remand be for more than fourteen days at one time, unless in case of illness of the accused or other case of necessity.

34. Where the Court issues a summons or warrant against any person on complaint of an offence committed on board of, or in relation to, a British ship, then, if it appears to the Court that the interests of public justice so require, that Court may issue a warrant or order for the detention of the ship, and may cause the ship to be detained accordingly, until the charge is heard and determined, and the order of the Court thereon is fully executed, or for such shorter time as the Court thinks fit; and the Court shall have power to make all such orders as appears to it necessary or proper for carrying this provision into effect.

35.—(1.) The Court may, in its discretion, admit to bail a person charged with any of the following offences, namely:—

Any felony.

Riot.

Assault on any officer in the execution of his duty, or on any person acting in his aid.

Neglect or breach of duty by an officer.

But a person charged with treason or murder shall not be admitted to bail except by the Court for Siam.

(2.) In all other cases the Court shall admit the accused to bail unless the Court, having regard to the circumstances, sees good reason to the contrary, which reason shall be recorded in the Minutes.

(3.) The Court for Siam may admit a person to bail, although a District Court has not thought fit to do so.

(4.) The accused who is to be admitted to bail, either on remand or on or after trial ordered, shall produce such surety or sureties as, in the opinion of the Court, will be sufficient to insure his appearance as and when required, and shall with him or them enter into a recognizance accordingly.

Trial with Jury or Assessors.

36.—(1.) Where the offence charged is treason or murder, the case must be tried with a jury before the Court for Siam.

(2.) In each of the two following cases, namely:—

(i.) Where the offence charged is rape, arson, housebreaking, robbery with violence, forgery, or perjury; or

(ii.) Where the offence charged is any other than aforesaid, but it appears to the Court at any time before the trial, the opinion of the Court being recorded in the Minutes, that the offence charged, if proved, would not be adequately punished by imprisonment for three months with hard labour, or by a fine of £20, or both such imprisonment and fine;

the charge shall be triable with a jury or assessors (according to the provisions of this Order applicable to the Court); but may, with the consent of the accused, be tried without assessors or jury. In the Court for Siam, when the accused does not so consent, the charge shall be tried with a jury, unless the Court is of opinion that a jury cannot be obtained.

(3.) The Court for Siam may, for any special reason, direct that any case shall be tried with assessors or a jury, and a District Court may, for any special reason, direct that any case shall be tried with assessors. In each such case the special reason shall be recorded in the Minutes.

37.—(1.) Where an accused person is ordered to be tried before a Court with a jury or with assessors, he shall be tried as soon after the making of the order as circumstances reasonably admit.

(2.) As long notice of the time of trial as circumstances reasonably admit shall be given to him in writing, under the seal of the Court, which notice, and the time thereof, shall be recorded in the Minutes.

38.—(1.) The Court for Siam shall, when required by the Secretary of State, send to him a report of the sentence of the Court in any case tried before that Court with a jury or assessors, with a copy of the Minutes and notes of evidence, and with any observations which the Court thinks fit to make.

(2.) Every District Court shall, in accordance with Rules of Court, send to the Court for Siam a report of the sentence of the Court in every case tried by that Court with assessors, with such Minutes, notes of evidence, and other documents as such Rules may direct, and with any observations which the District Court thinks fit to make.

Summary Trial.

39. Where the complaint discloses an offence which is not required to be heard on a charge, and the Court does not think fit to direct it to be heard on a charge, the accused may be tried summarily on the complaint: Provided that no greater punishment shall be imposed than imprisonment for three months, or a fine of £20, or both.

Preliminary Examination.

40.—(1.) Where the accused is before the Court, and it appears to the Court that the complaint discloses an offence—

(a.) Which ought to be tried in or reported to another Court; or the Court shall proceed to make a preliminary examination in the prescribed manner.

(b.) Which ought to be tried before the same Court with a jury or assessors;

(2.) Where the case is to be tried in or reported to another Court, the Court shall, on the conclusion of the preliminary examination, bind by recognizance the prosecutor and every witness to appear at the trial to prosecute, or to prosecute and give evidence, or to give evidence (as the case may be), and shall forthwith send the depositions, with a minute of other evidence (if any) and a report, to the Court before which the trial is to take place.

41.—(1.) Where a person is charged with the commission of an offence the cognizance whereof appertains to the Court, and it is expedient that the offence be inquired of, tried, determined, and punished within His Majesty's dominions elsewhere than in England, the accused may (under the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, section 6) be sent for trial to Singapore.

(2.) The Court for Siam may, where it appears so expedient, by warrant under the hand of a Judge and the seal of the Court, cause the accused to be sent for trial to Singapore accordingly.

(3.) The warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and to carry him to and deliver him up at Singapore according to the warrant.

(4.) Where any person is to be so sent to Singapore, the Court before which he is charged shall take the preliminary examination, and shall bind over such of the proper witnesses as are British subjects in their own recognizances to appear and give evidence on the trial.

42.—(1.) If a British subject, having appeared as prosecutor or witness at a preliminary examination, refuses to enter into a recognizance to appear at the trial to prosecute or give evidence, the Court may send him to prison, there to remain until after the trial, unless in the meantime he enters into a recognizance.

(2.) But if afterwards, from want of sufficient evidence or other cause, the accused is discharged, the Court shall order that the person imprisoned for so refusing be also discharged.

(3.) Where the prosecutor or witness is not a person subject to this Order, the Court may require him either to enter into a recognizance or to give other security for his attendance at the trial, and if he fails to do so may in its discretion dismiss the charge.

(4.) Subject to Rules of Court made under this Order, the Court may order payment of allowances in respect of their reasonable expenses to any complainant or witness attending before the Court on the trial of any criminal case by a jury or with assessors, and also to jurors, assessors, interpreters, medical practitioners, or other persons employed in or in connection with criminal cases.

Charges.

43.—(1.) Every accused person, unless tried summarily, shall be tried upon a charge, which shall state the offence charged, with such particulars as to the time and place of the alleged offence, and the person (if any) against whom or the thing (if any) in respect of which it was committed, as are reasonably sufficient to give the accused notice of the matter with which he is charged.

(2.) The fact that a charge is made is equivalent to a statement that every legal condition required by law to constitute the offence charged was fulfilled in the particular case.

(3.) Where the nature of the case is such that the particulars above mentioned do not give such sufficient notice as aforesaid, the charge shall also contain such particulars of the manner in which the alleged offence was committed as will give such sufficient notice.

(4.) For the purposes of the application of any Statute law, a charge framed under the provisions of this Order shall be deemed to be an indictment.

44. For every distinct offence of which any person is accused there shall be a separate charge, and every such charge shall be tried separately, except in the cases following, that is to say:—

(a.) Where a person is accused of more offences than one of the same kind committed within the space of twelve months from the first to the last of such offences, he may be charged with, and tried at one trial for, any number of them not exceeding three.

(b.) If in one series of acts so connected together as to form the same transaction more offences than one are committed by the same person, he may be charged with, and tried at one trial for, every such offence.

(c.) If the acts alleged constitute an offence falling within two or more definitions or descriptions of offences in any law or laws, the accused may be charged with, and tried at one trial for, each of such offences.

(d.) If several acts constitute several offences, and also, when combined, a different offence, the accused may be charged with, and tried at one trial for, the offence constituted by such acts when combined, or one or more of the several offences, but in the latter case shall not be punished with more severe punishment than the Court which tries him could award for any one of those offences.

(e.) If a single act or series of acts is of such a nature that it is doubtful which of several offences the facts which can be proved will constitute, the accused may be charged with having committed all or any of such offences, and any number of such charges may be tried at once; or he may be charged in the alternative with having committed some one of the offences; and if it appears in evidence that he has committed a different offence for which he might have been charged, he may be convicted of that offence, although not charged with it.

45. When more persons than one are accused of the same offence or of different offences committed in the same transaction, or when one is accused of committing an offence and another of abetting or attempting to commit that offence, they may be charged and tried together or separately, as the Court thinks fit.

46.—(1.) The Court, if sitting with a jury or assessors, may alter any charge at any time before the verdict of the jury is returned or the opinions of the assessors are expressed; if sitting without jury or assessors, at any time before judgment is pronounced.

(2.) Every such alteration shall be read and explained to the accused.

(3.) If the altered charge is such that proceeding with the trial immediately is likely, in the opinion of the Court, to prejudice the accused or the prosecutor, the Court may adjourn the trial for such period as may be necessary.

47.—(1.) No error or omission in stating either the offence or the particulars shall be regarded at any stage of the case as material, unless the accused was misled by such error or omission.

(2.) When the facts alleged in certain particulars are proved and constitute an offence, and the remaining particulars are not proved, the accused may be convicted of the offence constituted by the facts proved, although not charged with it.

(3.) When a person is charged with an offence, and the evidence proves either the commission of a minor offence or an attempt to commit the offence charged, he may be convicted of the minor offence or of the attempt.

48.—(1.) If the accused has been previously convicted of any offence, and it is intended to prove such conviction for the purpose of affecting the punishment which the Court is competent to award, the fact, date, and place of the previous conviction shall be stated in the charge.

(2.) If such statement is omitted, the Court may add it at any time before sentence is passed.

(3.) The part of the charge stating the previous convictions shall not be read out in Court, nor shall the accused be asked whether he has been previously convicted, as alleged in the charge, unless and until he has either pleaded guilty to, or been convicted of, the subsequent offence.

(4.) If he pleads guilty to, or is convicted of, the subsequent offence, he shall then be asked whether he has been previously convicted, as alleged in the charge.

(5.) If he answers that he has been so previously convicted, the Court may proceed to pass sentence on him accordingly; but, if he denies that he has been so previously convicted, or refuses to, or does not, answer the question, the Court shall then inquire concerning the previous conviction, and in that case (where the trial is by jury) it shall not be necessary to swear the jurors again.

Punishments.

49. The powers of the Courts with respect to punishments are limited as follows:—

(1.) The Court for Siam may award in respect of an offence any punishment which may in respect of a similar offence be awarded in England: provided that (a) imprisonment with hard labour shall be substituted for penal servitude, and (b) the Court for Siam shall not award a fine exceeding £500; or, in case of a continuing offence, in addition to imprisonment or fine, or both, a fine not exceeding £1 for each day during which the offence continues after conviction.

(2.) A District Court may award imprisonment, not exceeding twelve months, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding £100; or a fine not exceeding £100, without imprisonment.

(3.) But nothing in this Article shall be deemed to empower any Court to award for any offence any punishment not authorized by law in relation to that offence.

50.—(1.) If any person is guilty of an offence against this Order not distinguished as a grave offence against this Order, he is liable, on summary conviction—

- (i.) To a fine not exceeding £5, without any imprisonment; or
- (ii.) To imprisonment not exceeding one month, without fine; or
- (iii.) To imprisonment not exceeding fourteen days, with a fine not exceeding £2.

(2.) Imprisonment under this Article is without hard labour.

51.—(1.) If any person is guilty of an offence against this Order, distinguished as a grave offence against this Order, he is liable on summary conviction—

- (i.) To a fine not exceeding £10, without imprisonment; or
- (ii.) To imprisonment not exceeding two months, without fine; or
- (iii.) To imprisonment not exceeding one month, with a fine not exceeding £5.

(2.) Imprisonment under this Article is, in the discretion of the Court, with or without hard labour.

52.—(1.) The Court may, if it thinks fit, order a person convicted of an assault to pay to the person assaulted by way of damages any sum not exceeding £10.

(2.) Damages so ordered to be paid may be either in addition to or in lieu of a fine, and shall be recoverable in like manner as a fine.

(3.) Payment of such damages shall be a defence to an action for the assault.

53.—(1.) The Court may, if it thinks fit, order a person convicted before it to pay all or part of the expenses of his prosecution, or of his imprisonment or other punishment, or of both, the amount being specified in the order.

(2.) Where it appears to the Court that the charge is malicious, or frivolous and vexatious, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order the complainant to pay all or part of the expenses of the prosecution, the amount being specified in the order.

(3.) In these respective cases the Court may, if it thinks fit, order that the whole or such portion as the Court thinks fit of the expenses so paid be paid over to the complainant or to the accused (as the case may be).

(4.) In all cases the reasons of the Court for making any such order, or for refusing it if applied for, shall be recorded in the Minutes.

54. Where any person is sentenced to suffer the punishment of death, the Judge who presided at the trial shall forthwith send a report of the sentence, with a copy of the Minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence in the case, and with any observations he thinks fit, to the Minister.

The sentence shall not be carried into execution without the direction of the Minister in writing under his hand.

The Minister, if he does not direct that the sentence of death be carried into execution, shall direct what punishment in lieu of the punishment of death is to be inflicted on the person convicted, and the person convicted shall be punished accordingly.

55.—(1.) The Court for Siam may by general order, approved by the Secretary of State, prescribe the manner in which and the prisons in Siam at which punishments passed by any Court or otherwise awarded under this Order are to be carried into execution.

(2.) The warrant of any Court shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named in any prison so prescribed.

56.—(1.) Where an offender is sentenced to imprisonment, and the Court for Siam thinks it expedient that the sentence be carried into effect within His Majesty's dominions, and the offender is accordingly, under section 7 of the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, sent for imprisonment to a place in His Majesty's dominions, the place shall be either Singapore, or a place in some other part of His Majesty's dominions the Government whereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this Article.

(2.) The Court for Siam may, by warrant under the hand of a Judge and the seal of the Court, cause the offender to be sent to Singapore, or other such place as aforesaid, in order that the sentence may be there carried into effect accordingly.

(3.) The warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and to carry him to and deliver him up at the place named, according to the warrant.

57.—(1.) The Court for Siam may, if it thinks fit, report to the Secretary of State recommending a mitigation or remission of any punishment awarded by any Court, and thereupon the punishment may be mitigated or remitted by the Secretary of State.

(2.) Nothing in this Order shall affect His Majesty's prerogative of pardon.

Inquests.

58. The Court shall have and discharge all the powers, rights, and duties appertaining to the office of Coroner in England, in relation, not only to deaths of British subjects happening in the district of the Court, but also to deaths of any persons having happened at sea on board British ships arriving in the district, and to deaths of British subjects having happened at sea on board foreign ships so arriving, provided as follows:—

(a.) Where a British subject is charged with causing the death, the Court may, without holding an inquest, proceed forthwith with the preliminary examination.

(b.) Where a British subject is not charged with causing the death, the Court shall, without any jury, hold an inquest, taking the depositions of those who know the facts. If, during or after the inquest, a British subject is so charged, the depositions shall be read over in the presence of the witnesses and of the accused, who shall be entitled to cross-examine each witness, and the procedure shall be as in other cases of preliminary examination. If after the inquest the Court does not see fit to cause any person to be charged, the Court shall certify its opinion of the cause of the death. When the inquest is held by a District Court, the certificate and the depositions shall be sent forthwith to the Court for Siam, and that Court may give any directions which may seem proper in the circumstances.

Statutory and other Offences.

59. Any act which, if done in the United Kingdom, or in a British possession, would be an offence against any of the following Statutes of the Imperial Parliament or Orders in Council, that is to say—

The Merchandize Marks Act, 1887;

The Patents, Designs, and Trade-marks Acts, 1883 to 1888;

Any Act, Statute, or Order in Council for the time being in force relating to copyright, or to inventions, designs, or trade-marks;

Any Statute amending, or substituted for, any of the above-mentioned Statutes;

Shall, if done by a British subject in Siam, be punishable as a grave offence against this Order, whether such act is done in relation to any property or right of a British subject, or of a foreigner, or native, or otherwise howsoever:

Provided—

(1.) That a copy of any such Statute or Order in Council shall be published in the public office of the Consulate at Bangkok, and shall be there open for inspection by any person at all reasonable times; and a person shall not be punished under this Article for anything done before the expiration of one month after such publication, unless the person offending is proved to have had express notice of the Statute or Order in Council.

(2.) That a prosecution by or on behalf of a prosecutor who is not a British subject shall not be entertained unless the Court is satisfied that effectual provision exists for the punishment in Consular or other Courts in Siam of similar acts committed by the subjects of the State or Power of which such prosecutor is a subject, in relation to, or affecting the interests of, British subjects.

60.—(1.) If a British subject—

(i.) Smuggles, or attempts to smuggle, out of Siam any goods on exportation whereof a duty is payable to the Siamese Government;

(ii.) Imports or exports, or attempts to import or export, into or out of Siam any goods, intending and attempting to evade payment of duty payable thereon to the Siamese Government;

(iii.) Imports or exports, or attempts to import or export, into or out of Siam any goods the importation or exportation whereof, into or out of Siam, is prohibited by law;

(iv.) Without a proper licence, sells, or attempts to sell, or offers for sale, in Siam, any goods whereof the Siamese Government has by law a monopoly; in each of the four cases aforesaid he shall be guilty of a grave offence against this Order.

(2.) Where a person is charged with such an offence as in this Article is mentioned, the Court may seize the goods in relation to which the alleged offence was committed, and may hold the same until after the hearing of the charge.

(3.) If a person so charged is convicted, then those goods, whether they have been so seized or not, shall be forfeited to His Majesty the King, and the Court shall dispose of them as the Court thinks fit.

61.—(1.) If any British subject, without His Majesty's authority, proof whereof shall lie on the party accused, does any of the following things, that is to say:—

(a.) Levies war or takes any part in any operation of war against, or aids or abets any person in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion against the Government of Siam; or

(b.) Takes part in any operation of war in the service of the Government of Siam against any persons engaged in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion against that Government; he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding two years, and with or without a fine not exceeding £500, or to a fine not exceeding £500 without imprisonment.

(2.) In addition to any such punishment every conviction under the provisions of this Article shall of itself, and without further proceedings, make the person convicted liable to deportation, and the Court may order him to be deported from Siam in manner provided by this Order.

(3.) An offence against this Article shall not be tried except in the Court for Siam.

62.—(1.) Any British subject being in Siam may be proceeded against, tried, and punished under this Order for piracy wherever committed.

(2.) If a person accused of piracy is brought before a District Court, that Court shall report the case to the Court for Siam, and the Court for Siam shall thereupon direct in what mode and when the case shall be heard and determined, and the case shall be heard and determined accordingly.

63.—(1.) Where, by agreement among the Diplomatic or Consular Representatives in Siam of foreign States, or some of them, in conjunction with the Siamese authorities, Sanitary, or Police, or Port, or Game, or other Regulations are established, and the same, as far as they affect British subjects, are approved by the Secretary of State, the Court may, subject and according to the provisions of this Order, entertain any complaint made against a British subject for a breach of those Regulations, and may enforce payment of any fine incurred by that subject or person in respect of that breach, in like manner, as nearly as may be, as if that breach were by this Order declared to be an offence against this Order.

(2.) In any such case the fine recovered shall be disposed of and applied in such manner (if any) as may be provided by those Regulations, or otherwise in like manner as other fines recovered under this Order.

64. Every person subject to the criminal jurisdiction of the Court who prints, publishes, or offers for sale any printed or written newspaper or other publication containing matter calculated to excite tumult or disorder, or to excite enmity between His Majesty's subjects and the Government of Siam, or between that Government and its subjects, shall be guilty of a grave offence against this Order, and may, in addition to, or in lieu of, any other punishment, be ordered to give security for good behaviour, and in default thereof, or on a further conviction for the like offence, he may be ordered to be deported.

An offence against this Article shall not be tried in a District Court.

65.—(1.) If a British subject—

(i.) Publicly derides, mocks, or insults any religion established or observed within Siam; or

(ii.) Publicly offers insult to any religious service, feast, or ceremony established or kept in any part of those dominions, or to any place of worship, tomb, or sanctuary belonging to any religion established or observed within those dominions, or belonging to the ministers or professors thereof; or

(iii.) Publicly and wilfully commits any act tending to bring any religion established or observed within those dominions, or its ceremonies, mode of worship, or observances, into hatred, ridicule, or contempt, and thereby to provoke a breach of the public peace; he shall be guilty of an offence, and, on conviction thereof, liable to imprisonment not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding £50, or to a fine alone not exceeding £50.

(2.) Notwithstanding anything in this Order, every charge under this Article shall be heard and determined by the Court alone, without jury or assessors, and any District Court shall have power to impose the punishment aforesaid.

(3.) Consular officers shall take such precautionary measures as seem to them proper and expedient for the prevention of such offences.

66.—(1.) If any person, subject to the criminal jurisdiction of a Court, does any of the following things, namely:—

(a.) Wilfully, by act or threat, obstructs an officer of, or person executing any process of, the Court in the performance of his duty; or

(b.) Within or close to the room or place where the Court is sitting wilfully misbehaves in a violent, threatening, or disrespectful manner, to the disturbance of the Court, or to the intimidation of suitors or others resorting thereto; or

(c.) Wilfully insults any member of the Court, or any assessor or juror, or any person acting as clerk or officer of the Court, during his sitting or attendance in Court, or in his going to or returning from Court; or

(d.) Does any act in relation to the Court, or a matter pending therein, which, if done in relation to the High Court in England, would be punishable as a contempt of that Court;

he shall be guilty of a grave offence against this Order:

Provided that the Court, if it thinks fit, instead of directing proceedings as for an offence against this Order, may order the offender to be apprehended forthwith, with or without warrant, and on inquiry and consideration, and after the hearing of any defence which such person may offer, without further process or trial, may adjudge him to be punished with a fine not exceeding £10, or with imprisonment not exceeding twenty-four hours, at the discretion of the Court.

(2.) A Minute shall be made and kept of every such case of punishment, recording the facts of the offence, and the extent of the punishment. In the case of a District Court, a copy of the Minute shall be forthwith sent to the Court for Siam.

(3.) Nothing herein shall interfere with the power of the Court to remove or exclude persons who interrupt or obstruct the proceedings of the Court.

67.—(1.) If an officer of the Court employed to execute an order loses by neglect or omission the opportunity of executing it, then, on complaint of the person aggrieved, and proof of the fact alleged, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order the officer to pay the damages sustained by the person complaining, or part thereof.

(2.) The order shall be enforced as an order directing payment of money.

68.—(1.) If a clerk or officer of the Court, acting under pretence of the process or authority of the Court, is charged with extortion, or with not paying over money duly levied, or with other misconduct, the Court, if it thinks fit, may inquire into the charge in a summary way, and may for that purpose summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary persons, as in an action, and may make such order for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the payment over of any money levied, and for the payment of such damages and costs, as the Court thinks fit.

(2.) The Court may also, if it thinks fit, on the same inquiry, impose on the clerk or officer such fine, not exceeding £5 for each offence, as the Court thinks fit.

(3.) A clerk or officer against whom an order has been made, or who has been acquitted under this Article, shall not be liable to an action in respect of the same matter; and any such action, if begun, shall be stayed by the Court in such manner and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

Deportation.

69.—(1.) Where it is proved that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that a British subject is about to commit a breach of the public peace, or is otherwise conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order, or is endeavouring to excite enmity between the people of Siam and His Majesty, or is intriguing against His Majesty's power and authority within the limits of this Order, the Court may, if it thinks fit, cause him to be brought before it, and require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court, to keep the peace, or for his future good behaviour, as the case may require.

(2.) Where a British subject is convicted of an offence before the Court, the Court may, if it thinks fit, require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour, and for that purpose may (if need be) cause him to be brought before the Court.

(3.) In either of the foregoing cases, if the person required to give security fails to do so, the Court may order that he be deported from Siam to such place as the Court directs.

(4.) The place shall be a place in some part (if any) of His Majesty's dominions to which the person belongs, or the Government of which consents to the reception of persons deported under this Order.

(5.) A District Court shall report to the Court for Siam any order of deportation made by it and the grounds thereof, before the order is executed. The Court for Siam may reverse the order, or may confirm it with or without variation, and, in case of confirmation, shall direct it to be carried into effect.

(6.) The person to be deported shall be detained in custody until a fit opportunity for his deportation occurs.

(7.) He shall, as soon as is practicable, and, in the case of a person convicted, either after execution of the sentence or while it is in course of execution, be embarked in custody under the warrant of the Court for Siam on board one of His Majesty's vessels of war, or, if there is no such vessel available, then on board any British or other fit vessel bound to the place of deportation.

(8.) The warrant shall be sufficient authority to the commander or master of the vessel to receive and detain the person therein named, and to carry him to and deliver him up at the place named according to the warrant.

(9.) If any master of a British ship, after a reasonable remuneration for the conveyance of a deported person has been tendered or paid to him, refuses or fails to carry such person to the place named, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £50.

(10.) The Court may order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation. Subject thereto, the expenses of deportation shall be defrayed in such manner as the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Treasury, may direct.

(11.) The Court for Siam shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State any order of deportation made or confirmed by it and the grounds thereof, and shall also inform the Minister.

(12.) If any person deported under this or any former Order returns to Siam without permission in writing from the Secretary of State (which permission the Secretary of State may give), he shall be deemed guilty of a grave offence against this Order; and he shall also be liable to be forthwith again deported.

Appeal and Reserved Case.

70. Where a person is convicted before the Court for Siam or before a District Court—

(a.) If he considers the conviction erroneous in law, then, on his application, within the prescribed time (unless it appears merely frivolous, when it may be refused); or the Court shall state a case, setting out the facts and the grounds of the conviction, and the question of law, and send it to the Registrar of the Court for Siam.

(b.) If the District Court or the Court for Siam thinks fit to reserve for consideration of the Full Court any question of law arising on the trial;

71. Where a case is stated under the last preceding Article, the Court before whom the trial was had shall, as it thinks fit, either postpone judgment on the conviction, or respite execution of the judgment, and either commit the person convicted to prison, or take security for him to appear and receive judgment, or to deliver himself for execution of the judgment (as the case may require), at an appointed time and place.

72.—(1.) The Full Court, sitting without a jury or assessors, shall hear and finally determine the matter, and thereupon shall reverse, affirm, or amend the judgment given, or set it aside, and order an entry to be made in the Minutes that, in the judgment of that Court, the person ought not to have been convicted, or order judgment to be given at a subsequent sitting of the Court before whom the trial was had, or make such other order as the Full Court thinks just, and shall also give all necessary and proper consequential directions.

(2.) The judgment of the Full Court shall be delivered in open Court, after the public hearing of any argument offered on behalf of the prosecutor or of the person convicted.

(3.) Before delivering judgment, the Full Court may, if necessary, cause the case to be amended by the Court before whom the trial was had.

(4.) The Full Court shall not annul a conviction or sentence, or vary a sentence, on the ground—

(a.) Of any objection which, if stated during the trial, might, in the opinion of the Court, have been properly met by amendment at the trial; or

(b.) Of any error in the summoning of assessors; or

(c.) Of any person having served as assessor who was not qualified; or

(d.) Of any objection to any person as assessor which might have been raised before or at the trial; or

(e.) Of any informality in the swearing of any witness; or

(f.) Of any error or informality which, in the opinion of the Court, did not affect the substance of the case or subject the convicted person to any undue prejudice.

73. There shall be no appeal in a criminal case to His Majesty the King in Council from a decision of the Full Court, except by special leave of His Majesty in Council.

Fugitive Offenders.

74. The Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, and the Colonial Prisoners Removal Act, 1884, shall apply to Siam, as if Siam were a British possession and part of His Majesty's dominions.

Subject as follows:—

(a.) The Minister is hereby substituted for the Governor or Government of a British possession; and

(b.) The Court for Siam is hereby substituted for a Superior Court of a British possession.

(c.) The Court for Siam and each District Court is substituted for a Magistrate of any part of His Majesty's dominions.

(d.) For the purposes of Part II of the said Act of 1881, and of this Article in relation thereto, Siam and its dependencies and the Straits Settlements shall be deemed to be one group of British possessions.

PART IV.—CIVIL MATTERS.

75.—Subject to the provisions of this Order the civil jurisdiction of every Court acting under this Order shall, as far as circumstances admit, be exercised on the principles of, and in conformity with, English law for the time being.

Procedure.

76.—(1.) Every civil proceeding in the Court shall be taken by action, and not otherwise, and shall be designated an action.

(2.) For the purposes of any statutory enactment or other provision applicable under this Order to any civil proceeding in the Court, an action under this Order shall comprise and be equivalent to a suit, cause, or petition, or to any civil proceeding, howsoever required by any such enactment or provision to be instituted or carried on.

77.—(1.) Every action shall commence by a summons issued from the Court, on the application of the plaintiff, and served on the defendant (in this Order referred to as an original summons).

(2.) Every application in the course of an action may be made to the Court orally, and without previous formality, unless in any case the Court otherwise directs, or the Rules of Court otherwise provide.

(3.) No action or proceeding shall be treated by the Court as invalid on account of any technical error or mistake in form or in words.

(4.) All errors and mistakes may be corrected, and times may be extended, by the Court in its discretion, and on such terms as the Court thinks just.

78.—(1.) The sittings of the Court for the hearing of actions shall, where the amount of business so requires, be held on stated days.

(2.) The sittings shall ordinarily be public, but the Court may, for reasons recorded in the Minutes, hear any particular case in the presence only of the parties and their legal advisers and the officers of the Court.

79. There shall ordinarily be no written pleadings; but the Court may at any time, if it thinks fit, order the plaintiff to put in a written statement of his claim, or a defendant to put in a written statement of his defence.

80. The evidence on either side may, subject to the direction of the Court, be wholly or partly oral, or on affidavit, or by deposition.

81.—(1.) Notwithstanding anything in this Order, the Court (for reasons recorded in the Minutes) may at any time do any of the following things as the Court thinks just:—

- (i.) Defer or adjourn the hearing or determination of any action, proceeding, or application;
- (ii.) Order or allow any amendment of any pleading or other document;
- (iii.) Appoint or allow a time for, or enlarge or abridge the time appointed or allowed for, or allow further time for, the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding.

(2.) Any order within the discretion of the Court may be made on such terms respecting time, costs, and other matters as the Court thinks fit.

82.—(1.) Subject to the provisions of this Order, every action in the Court for Siam which involves the amount or value of £200 or upwards shall, on the demand of either party in writing, filed in the Court seven days before the day appointed for the hearing, be heard with a jury.

(2.) Any other suit may, on the suggestion of any party, at any stage, be heard with a jury, if the Court thinks fit.

(3.) Any suit may be heard with a jury if the Court, of its own motion, at any stage, thinks fit.

(4.) Where a jury is not employed the Court for Siam may hear any action with or without assessors.

83.—(1.) A District Court shall (subject to the provisions of this Order) hear with assessors every action which involves the amount or value of £150 or upwards.

(2.) In all other cases a District Court may, as it thinks fit, hear the action either with or without assessors.

84.—(1.) After the issue of a summons by any Court, the decision of that Court may be given upon a special case submitted to the Court by the parties.

(2.) Any decision of a District Court may be given subject to a case to be stated by, or under the direction of, that Court for the opinion or direction of the Court for Siam.

85. Subject to the provisions of this Order and the Rules of Court, the costs of, and incident to, all proceedings in the Court shall be in the discretion of the Court, provided that if the action is tried with a jury the costs shall follow the event, unless the Court shall for good cause (to be entered in the Minutes) otherwise order.

Arbitration.

86.—(1.) Any agreement in writing between any British subjects to submit present or future differences to arbitration, whether an Arbitrator is named therein or not, may be filed in the Court by any party thereto, and, unless a contrary intention is expressed therein, shall be irrevocable, and shall have the same effect as an order of the Court.

(2.) Every such agreement is in this Order referred to as a submission.

(3.) If any action is commenced in respect of any matter covered by a submission, the Court, on the application of any party to the action, may by order stay the action.

87.—(1.) In any action—

(a.) If all parties consent, or

(b.) If the matters in dispute consist wholly or partly of matters of account, or require for their determination prolonged examination of documents or any scientific or local examination;

the Court may at any time refer the whole action, or any question or issue arising therein, for inquiry and report, to any Referee.

(2.) The report of the Referee may be adopted wholly or partially by the Court, and if so adopted may be enforced as a judgment of the Court.

(3.) The Court may also in any case, with the consent of both parties to an action, or of any parties between whom any questions in the action arise (such consent being signified by a submission), refer the action or the portions referred to in the submission to arbitration, in such manner and upon such terms as it shall think reasonable or just.

(4.) In all cases of reference to a Referee or Arbitrator, under any order of the Court, the special Referee or Arbitrator shall be deemed to be an officer of the Court, and shall have such powers and authority, and shall conduct such reference or arbitration in such manner as may be prescribed by any Rules of Court, and subject thereto as the Court may direct.

88. Subject to the Rules of Court, the Court shall have authority to enforce any submission, or any award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceedings before and after the award, in such manner and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

Bankruptcy.

89.—(1.) Each Court shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within its own district, with respect to the following classes of persons being either resident in Siam or carrying on business there, namely, resident British subjects and their debtors and creditors, being British subjects, or foreigners submitting to the jurisdiction of the Court, all such jurisdiction in bankruptcy as for the time being belongs to the High Court and the County Courts in England.

(2.) Proceedings in bankruptcy shall be originated by a summons to the party to be made bankrupt to show cause why he should not be adjudicated bankrupt, or by a summons issued by a debtor himself to his creditor, or any of his creditors, to show cause why he (the debtor) should not be adjudicated bankrupt.

(3.) On or at any time after the issue of such a summons, the Court for Siam may stay any proceedings pending in any Court in any action, execution, or other legal process against the debtor in respect of any debt provable in bankruptcy, or it may allow such proceedings, whether pending at the commencement of the bankruptcy or begun during the continuance of the bankruptcy, to proceed on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(4.) The Court may, on or at any time after the issue of such a summons, appoint a receiver or manager of the property or business of the debtor, or of any part thereof, and may direct immediate possession to be taken by an officer of the Court, or under the control of the Court, of that property or business, or of any part thereof.

Admiralty.

90.—(1.) The Court for Siam shall have Admiralty jurisdiction for and within the limits of this Order, and over vessels and persons coming within the same.

(2.) The following enactments of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890—that is to say, section 2, sub-sections (2) to (4); sections 5 and 6; section 16, sub-section (3)—shall apply to the Court for Siam as if that Court were a Colonial Court of Admiralty, and as if Siam were a British possession; and for the purpose of this application the expressions “judgment” and “appeal” shall in the enactments so applied have the same respective meanings as are assigned thereto in section 15 of the said Act.

Matrimonial.

91.—(1.) The Court for Siam shall, as far as circumstances admit, have for and within Siam, with respect to British subjects, all such jurisdiction in matrimonial causes, except the jurisdiction relative to dissolution or nullity or jactitation of marriage, as for the time being belongs to the High Court in England.

(2.) The Court for Siam and every District Court shall have jurisdiction from time to time to make an order requiring a person to contribute, in such manner as the Court directs, to the support of his wife, or to the support of his or her child, whether legitimate or not, being, in the opinion of the Court, under the age of 16 years. Any such order may be made in a summary way, as if the neglect to provide for the support of such wife or child were an offence, and any failure to comply with any such order shall be deemed to be an offence, and shall be punishable with a fine not exceeding £2 for any one default, and the Court may direct any penalty imposed for such offence to be applied for the support of such wife or child in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

Lunacy.

92.—(1.) The Court for Siam shall, as far as circumstances admit, have for and within Siam, in relation to British subjects, all such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of lunatics, as for the time being belongs to the Lord Chancellor or other Judge or Judges in England intrusted by virtue of His Majesty's sign manual with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of lunatics, and also such jurisdiction as may be exercised in England by a judicial authority under the provisions of the Lunacy Act, 1890, or any Act amending the same.

(2.) A District Court shall, as far as circumstances permit, have, in relation to British subjects, such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of lunatics as for the time being may be prescribed by Rules of Court, and until such Rules are made, and so far as such Rules do not apply, as may be exercised in England by a judicial authority and by the Masters in Lunacy under the provisions of the Lunacy Act, 1890, or any Act amending the same.

(3.) In any such case the District Court may, of its own motion, or on the application of any person interested, take or authorize such steps as to the Court may seem necessary or expedient for the immediate protection of the person and property of any person appearing to the Court to be a lunatic, and may, from time to time, revoke, or vary, or supplement any order or proceeding taken in the matter.

(4.) A District Court shall report any proceedings under this Article to the Court for Siam, and shall thereafter proceed according to any directions of the Court for Siam.

(5.) Sections 5 to 7 of the Lunatics Removal (India) Act, 1851 (14 and 15 Vict., cap. 81), shall apply to Siam, with the substitution of “the Court for Siam” for “the Supreme Court of Judicature at any of the Presidencies of India.”

Probate and Administration.

93. All real or immovable property situate in Siam, and belonging at the time of his death to any British subject, shall be deemed to be personal estate; and the devolution thereof, in case of intestacy, shall be regulated according to the law of England for the time being relating to personal estate.

94.—(1.) The Court for Siam shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within Siam, with respect to the wills and the property in Siam of deceased British subjects, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to the High Court in England.

(2.) A District Court shall have power to grant probate or letters of administration where there is no contention respecting the right to the grant.

(3.) Probate or administration granted by a Court under this Order shall have effect over all the property of the deceased within Siam, and shall effectually discharge persons dealing with an executor or administrator thereunder, notwithstanding that any defect afterwards appears in the grant.

95. Section 51 of the Conveyancing (Scotland) Act, 1874, and any enactment for the time being in force amending or substituted for the same, are hereby extended to Siam, with the adaptation following, namely:—

The Court for Siam is hereby substituted for a Court of Probate in a Colony.

96.—(1.) Where probate, administration, or confirmation is granted in England, Ireland, or Scotland, and therein, or by a Memorandum thereon signed by an officer of the Court granting the same, the testator or intestate is stated to have died domiciled in England, Ireland, or Scotland (as the case may be), and the probate, administration, or confirmation is produced to, and a copy thereof is deposited with, the Court for Siam, the Court shall write thereon a certificate of that production and deposit under the seal of the Court; and thereupon, notwithstanding anything in this Order, the probate, administration, or confirmation shall, with respect to the personal property in Siam of the testator or intestate, have the like effect as if he had been resident in those dominions at his death, and probate or administration to his personal property there had been granted by the Court for Siam.

(2.) Any person who, in reliance on an instrument purporting to be a probate, administration, or confirmation granted in England, Ireland, or Scotland, and to bear such a certificate of the Court for Siam as in this Article prescribed, makes or permits any payment or transfer in good faith, shall be, by virtue of this Order, indemnified and protected in respect thereof, in Siam, notwithstanding anything affecting the validity of the probate, administration, or confirmation.

(3.) The following shall be the terms of the certificate of the Court for Siam in this Article prescribed, namely:—

This probate has [or these letters of administration have, or this confirmation has] been produced in this Court, and a copy thereof has been deposited with this Court.

97.—(1.) Where a British subject dies in Siam or elsewhere, intestate, then, until administration is granted, his personal property in Siam shall be vested in the Judge of the Court for Siam.

(2.) The Court within whose jurisdiction any property of the deceased is situate shall, where the circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require, forthwith on his death, or as soon after as may be, take possession of his personal property within the particular jurisdiction, or put it under the seal of the Court (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep it until it can be dealt with according to law.

98. If any person named executor in the will of the deceased takes possession of and administers or otherwise deals with any part of the personal property of the deceased, and does not obtain probate within one month after the death, or after the termination of any suit or dispute respecting probate or administration, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £50.

99. If any person, other than the person named executor or an administrator or an officer of the Court, takes possession of and administers or otherwise deals with any part of the personal property of a deceased British subject, whether resident or not, he shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of Court, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £50.

100. Where a person appointed executor in a will survives the testator, but either dies without having taken probate, or, having been called on by the Court to take probate, does not appear, his right in respect of the executorship wholly ceases; and without further renunciation the representation to the testator and the administration of his property shall go and may be committed as if that person had not been appointed executor.

101.—(1.) Where a British subject dies in Siam, any other such subject having in his possession, or under his control, any paper or writing of the deceased, being, or purporting to be, testamentary, shall forthwith bring the original to the Court within whose particular jurisdiction the death happens, and deposit it there.

If any person fails to do so for fourteen days after having knowledge of the death of the deceased, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding £50.

(2.) Where it is proved that any paper of the deceased, being, or purporting to be, testamentary, is in the possession or under the control of a British subject, the Court may, whether a suit or proceeding respecting probate or administration is pending or not, order him to produce the paper and bring it into Court.

(3.) Where it appears to the Court that there are reasonable grounds for believing that any person has knowledge of any paper, being, or purporting to be, testamentary (although it is not shown that the paper is in his possession or under his control), the Court may, whether a suit or proceeding for probate or administration is pending or not, order that he be examined respecting it before the Court or elsewhere, and that he do attend for that purpose, and after examination order that he do produce the paper and deposit it in Court.

102. Where it appears to the Court that the value of the property or estate of a deceased person does not exceed £100, the Court may, without any probate or letters of administration, or other formal proceeding, pay thereout any debts or charges, and pay, remit, or deliver any surplus to such persons, and subject to such conditions, as the Court thinks proper, and shall not be liable to any action, suit, or proceedings in respect of anything done under this Article.

Every proceeding of the Court under this Article shall be recorded in the Minutes.

Appeals.

103.—(1.) Where an action in the Court involves the amount or value of £50 or upwards, any party aggrieved by any decision of that Court, with or without assessors, in the action shall have the right to appeal against the same, on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by Rules of Court. The appeal lies from decisions of the District Court or of the Court for Siam to the Full Court.

(2.) In any other case, the District Court or the Court for Siam may, if it seems just and expedient, give leave to appeal on like terms.

(3.) In any case the Full Court may give leave to appeal on such terms as seem just.

Appeals to His Majesty in Council.

104.—(1.) Where a final judgment or order of the Full Court given or made in a civil action involves the amount or value of £500 or upwards, any party aggrieved thereby may, within the prescribed time, or, if no time is prescribed, within fifteen days after the same is given or made, apply by motion to the Full Court for leave to appeal to His Majesty the King in Council.

(2.) The applicant shall give security to the satisfaction of the Court to an amount not exceeding £500 for the prosecution of the appeal, and for such costs in the event of the dismissal of the appeal for want of prosecution as the Full Court may award, and for payment of all such costs as may be awarded to any respondent by His Majesty in Council, or by the Lords of the Judicial Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council.

(3.) He shall also pay to the Registrar of the Court for Siam a sum estimated by the Full Court to be the amount of the expense of the making up and transmission to England of the transcript of the record.

(4.) If security and payment are so given and made within two months from the filing of the motion-paper for leave to appeal, then, and not otherwise, the Full Court shall give leave to appeal, and the appellant shall be at liberty to prefer and prosecute his appeal to His Majesty in Council according to the rules for the time being in force respecting appeals to His Majesty in Council from his Colonies, or such other rules as His Majesty in Council from time to time thinks fit to make concerning appeals from the Full Court.

(5.) In any case the Full Court, if it considers it just or expedient to do so, may give leave to appeal on the terms and in the manner aforesaid.

105.—(1.) Where leave to appeal to His Majesty in Council is applied for by a person ordered to pay money or do any other act, the Full Court shall direct either that the order appealed from be carried into execution, or that the execution thereof be suspended pending the appeal, as the Court thinks just.

(2.) If the Court directs the order to be carried into execution, the person in whose favour it is made shall, before the execution of it, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for performance of such order as His Majesty in Council may think fit to make.

(3.) If the Court directs the execution of the order to be suspended, the party against whom it is given shall, before an order for suspension is made, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for performance of such order as His Majesty in Council may think fit to make.

106. This Order shall not affect the right of His Majesty at any time on the humble petition of a person aggrieved by a decision of the Full Court, to admit his appeal thereon on such terms and in such manner as His Majesty in Council may think fit, and to deal with the decision appealed from in such manner as may be just.

PART V.—PROCEDURE, CRIMINAL AND CIVIL.

107.—(1.) In every case, civil or criminal, Minutes of the proceedings shall be drawn up, and shall be signed by the Judge or Consular officer before whom the proceedings are taken, and shall, where the trial is held with assessors, be open for their inspection and for their signature if concurred in by them.

(2.) These Minutes, with the depositions of witnesses, and the notes of evidence taken at the hearing or trial by the Judge or Consular officer, shall be preserved in the public office of the Court.

108.—(1.) The Judge of the Court for Siam may make Rules of Court for the regulation of all matters of civil and criminal procedure.

Provision may, amongst other things, be made by such Rules—

- (a.) For prescribing forms of procedure;
- (b.) For regulating the mode in which legal practitioners are to be admitted to practise as such;
- (c.) For prescribing and enforcing the fees to be taken in respect of any proceedings under this Order, not exceeding, as regards any matters provided for by the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891, fees fixed and allowed from time to time by any Order in Council made under that Act;
- (d.) For prescribing a scale of payments to be made to a complainant or witness or a jury or assessors (in criminal cases only), and the conditions upon which an order may be made by the Court for such payments;
- (e.) For prescribing scales of costs to be paid to practitioners;
- (f.) For taking and transmitting depositions of witnesses for use at trials in a British possession or in the United Kingdom.

(2.) Rules framed under this Article shall not have effect until approved by the Secretary of State, and, so far as they relate to fees and costs, sanctioned by the Treasury; but in case of urgency declared in any such Rules with the approval of the Minister, the same shall have effect unless and until they are disapproved by the Secretary of State, and notification of such disapproval is received and published by the Judge.

(3.) Until such Rules have been made, or in relation to matters to which they do not extend, a Court may adopt and use any procedure or forms heretofore in use in the Courts in Siam, with any modifications or adaptations which may be necessary.

109.—(1.) The Court may, in any case, if it thinks fit, on account of the poverty of a party, or for any other reason, provisionally dispense with the payment of any fee in whole or in part.

(2.) Payment of fees payable under any Rules to be made in pursuance of this Order, and of costs and of charges and expenses of witnesses, prosecutions, punishments, and deportations and of other charges and expenses, and of fines respectively payable under this Order, may be enforced under order of the Court by seizure and sale of goods, and, in default of sufficient goods, by imprisonment as a civil prisoner for a term not exceeding one month, but such imprisonment shall not operate as a satisfaction or extinguishment of the liability.

(3.) Any bill of sale or mortgage, or transfer of property made with a view of avoiding seizure or sale of goods or ship under any provision of this Order, shall not be effectual to defeat the provisions of this Order.

110.—(1.) Every person doing an act or taking a proceeding in the Court as plaintiff in a civil case, or as making a criminal charge against another person, or otherwise, shall do so in his own name and not otherwise, and either—

- (a.) By himself; or
- (b.) By a legal practitioner; or
- (c.) By his attorney or agent thereunto lawfully authorized in writing and approved by the Court.

(2.) Where the act is done or proceeding taken by an attorney (other than a legal practitioner) or by an agent, the power of attorney, or instrument authorizing the agent, or an authenticated copy thereof, shall be first filed in the Court.

(3.) Where the authority has reference only to the particular proceeding, the original document shall be filed.

(4.) Where the authority is general, or has reference to other matters in which the attorney or agent is empowered to act, an authenticated copy of the document may be filed.

(5.) Any person doing any act or taking any proceeding in the Court in the name or on behalf of another person, not being lawfully authorized thereunto, and knowing himself not to be so authorized, is guilty of a contempt of Court.

111.—(1.) In any case, criminal or civil, and at any stage thereof, the Court, either of its own motion or on the application of any party, may summon a British subject to attend to give evidence, or to produce documents, or to be examined.

(2.) If the person summoned, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, and his reasonable expenses having been paid or tendered, fails to attend and be sworn, and give evidence, or produce documents or submit to examination accordingly, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order.

(3.) If in any case, civil or criminal, a British subject wilfully gives false evidence on oath in the Court, or on a reference, he shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury.

112.—(1.) Whenever under this Order any person is to be taken for trial or imprisonment to the Court for Siam, or elsewhere in Siam, or to Singapore, England, or elsewhere, the Court or other authority by this Order authorized to cause him to be so taken may for that purpose (if necessary) cause him to be embarked on board one of His Majesty's vessels of war, or if there is no such vessel available, then on board any British or other fit vessel, at any port or place whether within or beyond the particular jurisdiction or district of that Court or authority, and in order to such embarkment may (if necessary) cause him to be taken, in custody or otherwise, by land or by water, from any place to the port or place of embarkment.

(2.) The writ, order, or warrant of the Court, by virtue whereof any person is to be so taken, shall be sufficient authority to every constable, officer, or other person acting thereunder, and to the commander or master of any vessel of war or other vessel (whether the constable, officer, or other person, or the vessel or the commander or master thereof, is named therein or not), to receive, detain, take, and deliver up such person; according to the writ, order, or warrant.

(3.) Where the writ, order, or warrant is executed under the immediate direction of the Court or authority issuing it, the writ, order, or warrant shall be delivered to the constable, officer, or other person acting thereunder, and a duplicate thereof shall be delivered to the commander or master of any vessel in which the person to whom the writ, order, or warrant relates is embarked.

(4.) Where the writ, order, or warrant issues from the Court for Siam, and is executed by a District Court, a copy thereof, certified under the seal of the Court executing the same, shall be delivered to the constable, officer, or other person acting thereunder, and to the commander or master of any vessel in which the person taken is embarked; and any such copy shall be for all purposes conclusive evidence of the order of which it purports to be a copy.

113.—(1.) Subject to the other provisions of this Order, all expenses of removal of prisoners and others from or to any place in Siam, or from or to Singapore, and the expenses of the sending of any person to England or elsewhere, shall be defrayed in such manner as the Secretary of State from time to time directs.

(2.) Any master of a British ship when required shall be bound to take such persons for a reasonable remuneration, to be determined by a Judge of the Court for Siam, and in case of non-compliance shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £50.

114.—(1.) Every District Court shall execute any warrant, summons, writ, order, or other process issuing from the Court for Siam, and may take security from any person named in such warrant, summons, writ, order, or other process for his appearance personally or by attorney, and may, in default of security being given, or when the Court for Siam so orders, send the person in custody to Bangkok, or to such other place as may be named in the order.

(2.) For the purposes of this Article the District Court may, where such course is convenient, send the person on board one of His Majesty's vessels of war to such port as may be named in the order, or, if no vessel of war is available, then on board some British or other fit vessel.

(3.) The order of the Court shall be sufficient authority to the commander or master of the vessel to receive and detain the person, and deliver him up at the port named according to the order.

115.—(1.) The following Acts, namely:—

The Foreign Tribunals Evidence Act, 1856;

The Evidence by Commission Act, 1859;

The Evidence by Commission Act, 1885;

or so much thereof as is for the time being in force, and any enactment for the time being in force amending or substituted for the same, are hereby extended to Siam, with the adaptation following, namely:—

In the said Acts the Court for Siam is hereby substituted for a Supreme Court in a Colony.

(2.) The following Acts, namely:—

The British Law Ascertainment Act, 1859;

The Foreign Law Ascertainment Act, 1861;

or so much thereof as is for the time being in force, and any enactment for the time being in force amending or substituted for the same, are hereby extended to Siam, with the adaptation following, namely:—

In the said Acts the Court for Siam is hereby substituted for a Superior Court in a Colony.

116. The Public Authorities Protection Act, 1893, shall extend and apply to Siam, as if Siam were therein mentioned in place of the United Kingdom, and as if this Order and any other Order relating to Siam and any Regulations or rules made under any such Order were therein referred to, in addition to any Act of Parliament.

117. The Court for Siam may, if it thinks fit, order that a Commission do issue for examination of witnesses at any place out of Siam on oath, by interrogatories or otherwise, and may, by order, give such directions touching the time, place, and manner of the examination, or anything connected therewith, as to the Court appear reasonable and just.

PART VI.—BILLS OF SALE.

118. The provisions of this Order relating to bills of sale—

(1.) Apply only to such bills of sale executed by British subjects as are intended to affect chattels in Siam;

(2.) Do not apply to bills of sale given by sheriffs or others under or in execution of process authorizing seizure of chattels.

119.—(1.) Every bill of sale must conform with the following rules (namely):—

(a.) It must state truly the name, description, and address of the grantor.

(b.) It must state truly the consideration for which it is granted.

(c.) It must have annexed thereto or written thereunder an inventory of the chattels intended to be comprised therein.

(d.) Any defeasance, condition, or declaration of trust affecting the bill not contained in the body of the bill must be written on the same paper as the bill.

(e.) The execution of the bill must be attested by a credible witness, with his address and description.

(2.) Otherwise, the bill is void in Siam to the extent following, but not further (that is to say):—

(a.) In the case of failure to conform with the rule respecting an inventory, as far as regards chattels omitted from the inventory; and

(b.) In any other case, wholly.

(3.) The inventory, and any defeasance, condition, or declaration as aforesaid, respectively, is for all purposes deemed part of the bill.

120. A bill of sale conforming, or appearing to conform, with the foregoing rules may be registered, if it is intended to affect chattels in Siam, at the Consulate of the Consular district wherein the chattels are, within the respective time following, and not afterwards (namely):—

(1.) Within twenty-eight days after its execution, where it is executed in the Consular district wherein the chattels are;

(2.) Within two months after its execution, where it is executed in Siam elsewhere than in that Consular district;

(3.) Within six months after its execution, where it is executed elsewhere than in Siam.

121. Registration is made as follows: The original and a copy of the bill of sale, and an affidavit verifying the execution, and the time and place of execution, and the attestation thereof, and verifying the copy, are brought into the proper office of the Consulate; and the copy and affidavit are left there.

122. If a bill of sale is not registered at a place and within the time by this Order appointed and allowed for registration thereof, it is, from and after the expiration of that time, void in Siam to the extent following, but not further (that is to say):—

(1.) As against trustees or assignees of the estate of the grantor, in or under bankruptcy, liquidation, or assignment for benefit of creditors; and

(2.) As against all sheriffs and others seizing chattels under process of any Court, and any person on whose behalf the seizure is made; but only

(3.) As regards the property in, or right to, the possession of such chattels comprised in the bill as, at or after the filing of the petition for bankruptcy or liquidation, or the execution of the assignment, or the seizure, are in the grantor's possession, or apparent possession.

123. Registered bills of sale affecting the same chattels have as among themselves priority in order of registration.

124. Chattels comprised in a registered bill of sale are not in the possession, order, or disposition of the grantor within the law of bankruptcy.

125. If in any case there is an unregistered bill of sale, and within or on the expiration of the time by this Order allowed for registration thereof, a subsequent bill of sale is granted affecting the same or some of the same chattels, for the same or part of the same debt, then the subsequent bill is to the extent to which it comprises the same chattels and is for the same debt, absolutely void, unless the Court is satisfied that the subsequent bill is granted in good faith for the purpose of correcting some material error in the prior bill, and not for the purpose of unlawfully evading the operation of this Order.

126. The registration of a bill of sale must be renewed once at least every five years.

127. Renewal of registration is made as follows:—An affidavit stating the date of and parties to the bill of sale, and the date of the original registration, and of the last renewal, and that the bill is still a subsisting security, is brought in to the proper office of the Consulate of original registration, and is left there.

128. If the registration of a bill of sale is not so renewed in any period of five years, then on and from the expiration of that period the bill is deemed to be unregistered.

129. The provisions of this Order relating to renewal apply to bills of sale registered under the Order in Council repealed by this Order or any previous Order.

130. A transfer or assignment of a registered bill of sale need not be registered; and renewal of registration is not necessary by reason only of such a transfer or assignment.

131. Where the time for registration or renewal of registration of a bill of sale expires on a Sunday or other day on which the office for registration is closed, the registration or renewal is valid if made on the first subsequent day on which the office is open.

132. If in any case the Court for Siam is satisfied that failure to register or to renew the registration of a bill of sale in due time, or any omission or misstatement connected with registration or renewal, was accidental or inadvertent, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order the failure, omission, or misstatement to be rectified in such manner and on such terms, if any, respecting security, notice by advertisement or otherwise, or any other matter, as the Court thinks fit.

133. The provisions of this Order apply to a bill of sale executed before the commencement of this Order.

134. The power conferred on the Judge of the Court for Siam by this Order of framing Rules from time to time extends to the framing of Rules for prescribing and regulating the making and keeping of indexes, and of a general index, to the registers of bills of sale, and searches in those indexes, and other particulars connected with the making, keeping, and using of those registers and indexes, and for authorizing and regulating the unregistering of any bill of sale, or the registering of any release or satisfaction in respect thereof.

PART VII.—KING'S REGULATIONS.

135. The Minister shall have power to make Regulations (to be called King's Regulations) for the following purposes, that is to say:—

(a.) For the peace, order, and good government of British subjects within Siam in relation to matters not provided for by this Order.

(b.) For securing the observance of any Treaty for the time being in force relating to any place within Siam, or of any native or local law or custom, whether relating to trade, commerce, revenue, or any other matter.

(c.) For preventing the importation or exportation in British ships or by British subjects of any munitions of war, or any parts or ingredients thereof, where it appears to the Minister that such munitions of war are intended or are likely to be used against any power with which His Majesty is at peace, or against His Majesty.

(d.) For requiring Returns to be made of the nature, quantity, and value of articles exported from or imported into his district, or any part thereof, by or on account of any British subject who is subject to this Order, or in any British ship, and for prescribing the times and manner at or in which, and the persons by whom, such Returns are to be made.

(2.) Any Regulations made under this Article may provide for forfeiture of any goods, receptacles, or things in relation to which, or to the contents of which, any breach is committed of such Regulations, or of any Treaty or any native or local law or custom, the observance of which is provided for by such Regulations.

(3.) Any person committing a breach of any such Regulations shall, in addition to any forfeiture prescribed thereby, be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or to a fine, or to both.

(4.) Any fine imposed for a breach of Regulations shall not exceed £50: provided that where the breach is of any regulation relating to customs law, or to the importation or exportation of any goods, the fine may extend to a sum equivalent to treble the value of the goods in relation to which the breach is committed.

136.—(1.) Regulations made under this Order shall not have effect unless and until they are approved by a Secretary of State—save that, in case of urgency declared in any such Regulations, the same shall take effect before that approval, and shall continue to have effect unless and until they are disapproved by a Secretary of State, and until notification of that disapproval has been received and published by the Minister.

(2.) That approval, where given, shall be conclusive, and the validity or regularity of any Regulations so approved shall not be called in question in any legal proceeding whatever.

137.—(1.) All Regulations made under this Order, whether imposing penalties or not, shall be printed, and a printed copy thereof shall be affixed and be at all times kept exhibited conspicuously in the public office of each Consulate in Siam.

(2.) Printed copies of the Regulations shall be kept on sale at such reasonable price as the Minister from time to time directs.

(3.) A printed copy of any Regulations purporting to be made under this Order, and to be certified under the hand of the Minister, or under the hand and seal of one of His Majesty's Consular officers in Siam, shall be conclusive evidence of the due making of such Regulations.

138. The respective powers aforesaid extend to the making of Regulations for the governance, visitation, care, and superintendence of prisons in Siam, and for the infliction of corporal or other punishment on prisoners committing offences against the rules or discipline of a prison; but the provisions of this Order respecting penalties, and respecting the printing, affixing, exhibiting, and sale of Regulations, and the mode of trial of charges of offences against Regulations, do not apply to Regulations respecting prisons and offences of prisoners.

PART VIII.—REGISTRATION.

139. A register of British subjects shall be kept in the office of every Consulate in Siam.

140.—(1.) Every British subject, resident in Siam, being of the age of 21 years or upwards, or being married, or a widower or widow, though under that age, shall in the month of January of every year register himself or herself at the Consulate of the Consular district within which he or she resides.

(2.) A British subject arriving in Siam may be registered either in the register of the Consular district in which he first arrives, or in that of the district in which he goes to reside, and he must apply for registration within one month after arrival in Siam.

Provided that a person who fails to apply for or to obtain registration within the time limited by this Article may be registered at any time if he excuses his failure to the satisfaction of the Consular officer.

141. The registration of a man shall comprise the registration of his wife, or wives, if living with him; and the registration of the head of a family shall comprise the registration of all females and minors, being his relatives, in whatever degree, living under the same roof with him at the time of his registration.

142. A person registered in any register of British subjects established under any repealed Order in Council shall be registered under the provisions of this Order, unless the Consular officer is satisfied, after inquiry, that the previous registration was erroneous, or that such person is not entitled to registration under the provisions of this Order.

143. The Consular officer shall on the first registration of any person issue to him a certificate of registration, signed and sealed with his Consular seal, and on the renewal of any registration shall enter an indorsement on the old certificate unless he thinks fit to issue a new certificate.

144. The names and descriptions of females and minors whose registration is under the provisions of this Order comprised in that of the head of the family, may be indorsed on the certificate of the family.

145. Every person who has not previously been registered applying to be registered under this Order shall, unless excused by the Consular officer, attend personally for that purpose at the Consulate, but no person applying for the renewal of his registration need attend personally unless directed by the Consular officer to do so.

146.—(1.) Every person shall, on every registration of himself, and on every renewal of the registration, pay a fee of 2s. 6d., or such other fee as the Secretary of State from time to time appoints. The amount of the fee may be uniform for all persons, or may vary according to the position and circumstances of different classes if the Secretary of State from time to time so directs, but may not in any case exceed 5s.

(2.) Where any person applies to be registered, he shall be entitled to the assistance of the Consular officer in the preparation of any affidavit that may be required without a fee.

147. If any British subject fails to obtain registration under the provisions of this Order, he shall not be entitled to be recognised or protected as a British subject in Siam, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £2 for each instance of such failure, but he shall, although not registered, be subject to the jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts in Siam.

Provisions affecting particular Classes of British Subjects.

148.—(1.) A person not of Asiatic descent, arriving in Siam and applying to be registered as a British subject, shall be so registered if the Consular officer is satisfied, after such inquiry as he may deem fit, that he is entitled to the status of a British subject.

(2.) A person of Asiatic descent, arriving in Siam and applying to be registered as a British subject, shall be so registered if he (a) produces a passport as a British subject from British India or a British possession; or (b) files an affidavit or sworn declaration showing that he was born within His Majesty's dominions or within the territory of any Prince or State in India under the suzerainty of or in alliance with His Majesty, or that he has been naturalized in the United Kingdom; and (c) in either case gives satisfactory evidence of his identity.

149.—(1.) A person born in Siam, being the child of a person of Asiatic descent who arrived in Siam, may be registered as a British subject if it is proved that the father (a) was registered as a British subject, or (b) being entitled was prevented from being so registered by causes for which he was not responsible.

(2.) Any child of a person registered under the provisions of this Article shall not be entitled to be registered as a British subject by reason only that his father and grandfather were so registered.

150. A person of Asiatic descent, being a native of Upper Burmah or of the British Shan States, shall not be registered as a British subject if it appears that he arrived in Siam before the 1st January, 1886, and has become domiciled there.

151. A woman, being the widow of a person of Asiatic descent, who was in his lifetime registered as a British subject, shall be registered as a British subject if her name appears on the last certificate given to her husband before his death.

152. The Consular officer may, without fee, register any British subjects, being minors, living in the houses of foreigners or Siamese subjects.

153. All registers kept under any Order repealed by this Order shall continue in force until superseded by registers kept under this Order.

PART IX.—INTERNATIONAL COURT.

Whereas by a Treaty made the 3rd day of September, 1883, between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and His Majesty the King of Siam, it was amongst other things agreed as follows:—

“Article VIII. His Majesty the King of Siam will appoint a proper person or proper persons to be a Commissioner and Judge, or Commissioners and Judges, in Chiengmai for the purposes hereinafter mentioned. Such Judge or Judges shall, subject to the limitations and provisions contained in the present Treaty, exercise civil and criminal jurisdiction in all cases arising in Chiengmai, Lakon, and Lamponchi, between British subjects, or in which British subjects may be parties as complainants, accused, plaintiffs, or defendants, according to Siamese Law; provided always that in all such cases the Consul or Vice-

Consul shall be entitled to be present at the trial, and to be furnished with copies of the proceedings, which, when the defendant or accused is a British subject, shall be supplied free of charge, and to make any suggestions to the Judge or Judges which he may think proper in the interests of justice: provided also that the Consul or Vice-Consul shall have power at any time before judgment, if he shall think proper in the interests of justice, by a written requisition under his hand, directed to the Judge or Judges, to signify his desire that any case in which both parties are British subjects, or in which the accused or defendant is a British subject, be transferred for adjudication to the British Consular Court at Chiengmai, and the case shall thereupon be transferred to such last-mentioned Court accordingly, and be disposed of by the Consul or Vice-Consul, as provided by Article II of the Supplementary Agreement of the 13th May, 1856;”

And whereas the IXth Article of the said Treaty provides for the decision of appeals from the said Commissioners or Judges;

And whereas in pursuance of the said Treaty His Majesty the King of Siam has from time to time appointed Commissioners or Judges for the purposes mentioned in the said Article, and civil and criminal jurisdiction has been, and is, exercised in Chiengmai subject to the limitations and provisions contained in the said Treaty;

And whereas in pursuance of powers reserved in the said Treaty, it was agreed between Her said Majesty and His Majesty the King of Siam that the limits within which the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners and Judges under, and for the purposes of, the said Treaty shall be extended to the Provinces of Muang Nan, Phre, Muang Thon, Raheng, Sawankaloke, Sukotai, Utaradit, and Pichai;

And whereas such limits of jurisdiction may hereafter be further extended:

It is hereby ordered as follows:—

154. In this Part the expression “the International Court” means the Court of any Commissioners or Judges exercising jurisdiction in pursuance and under the provisions of the said recited Treaty as modified by any subsequent Agreement, whether made before or after the passing of this Order.

The expression “limits of the International Court” means the provinces and parts of provinces to which the jurisdiction of that Court for the time being extends.

155. With respect to any civil or criminal case arising within the limits of the International Court between British subjects, or in which British subjects may be parties as complainants, accused, plaintiffs, or defendants, the principal Order shall not operate or have any effect so long as the said Treaty continues in force, unless and until such case shall have been transferred to the District Court in manner provided by the said Treaty.

156. Where a case is so transferred, the District Court shall give such directions as seem proper for its determination, having regard to the proceedings (if any) in the International Court.

In a criminal case, if the accused is handed over by the International Court in custody, he may be detained in custody as if on the day on which he is handed over he had been arrested under a warrant of the District Court.

157. Where, in pursuance of the IXth Article of the said Treaty, an appeal is brought to Bangkok from any Siamese Judge or Judges, Commissioner or Commissioners, the Minister shall take such steps as may be directed by the Secretary of State, in order that the final decision on appeal may be recorded at Bangkok and duly transmitted to the Court from which the appeal is brought, and in order that effect may be given thereto by such Court.

PART X.—FOREIGN SUBJECTS AND TRIBUNALS.

158.—(1.) Where a Siamese or foreigner desires to institute or take in the Court an action against a British subject, or a British subject desires to institute or take in the Court an action against a foreigner, the Court shall entertain the same, and shall hear and determine it, either by the Court sitting alone, or, if all parties desire, or the Court, having regard to its jurisdiction, thinks fit to direct a trial with a jury or assessors, then with a jury or assessors, but in all other respects according to the ordinary course of the Court.

(2.) Provided that the Siamese or foreigner, if so required by the Court, first obtains and files in the Court the consent in writing of the competent authority on behalf of his own nation to his submitting, and does submit, to the jurisdiction of the Court, and, if required by the Court, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such reasonable amount as the Court thinks fit, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, damages, costs, and expenses, and abide by and perform such decision as shall be given by the Court or on appeal.

(3.) A cross-action shall not be brought in the Court against a plaintiff, being a Siamese or foreigner.

(4.) Where a Siamese or foreigner obtains in the Court an order against a defendant being a British subject, and in another suit that defendant is plaintiff and the Siamese or foreigner is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit.

(5.) Where a plaintiff, being a Siamese or foreigner, obtains an order of the Court against two or more defendants being British subjects jointly, and in another action one of them is plaintiff and the Siamese or foreigner is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the order pending that other action, and may set off any amount ordered to be paid by one party in one action against any amount ordered to be paid by the other party in the other action, without prejudice to the right of the British subject to require contribution from his co-defendants under the joint liability.

(6.) Where a Siamese or foreigner is co-plaintiff in a suit with a British subject who is within the particular jurisdiction, it shall not be necessary for the foreigner to give security for costs, unless the Court so directs, but the co-plaintiff British subject shall be responsible for all fees and costs.

159.—(1.) Where it is proved that the attendance within the particular jurisdiction of a British subject to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of justice, is required in a Court of Siam, or before a Siamese judicial officer, or in a Court or before a judicial officer of a State in amity with His Majesty, the Court may, if it thinks fit, in a case and in circumstances in which the Court would require his attendance before the Court, order that he do attend in such Court, or before such judicial officer, and for such purpose as aforesaid.

(2.) A District Court, however, cannot so order attendance at any place beyond its particular jurisdiction

(3.) If the person ordered to attend, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, fails to attend accordingly, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, he shall (independently of any other liability) be guilty of an offence against this Order.

160. When a British subject invokes or submits to the jurisdiction of a Siamese or foreign Tribunal, and engages in writing to abide by the decision of such Tribunal, or to pay any fees or expenses ordered by such Tribunal to be paid by him, the Court for Siam or any District Court may, on such evidence as it thinks fit to require, enforce payment of such fees and expenses in the same manner as if they were fees payable in a proceeding by such person in that Court, and shall pay over and account for the same when levied to the proper Siamese or foreign authority, as the Court may direct.

PART XI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

161. Where, by virtue of any Imperial Act or of this Order or otherwise, any provision of any Imperial Acts, or of any Law or of any Orders in Council other than this Order, are applicable in Siam, or any Form, Regulation, or procedure prescribed or established by or under any such Act or Law or Order, are made applicable for any purpose of this Order, such Act, Law, Order, Form, Regulation, or procedure shall be deemed applicable so far only as the constitution and jurisdiction of the Courts and the local circumstances permit; and, for the purpose of facilitating application, may be construed or used with such alterations and adaptations as may be necessary, and anything required to be done by, to, or before any Court, Judge, officer, or authority may be done by, to, or before a Court, Judge, officer, or authority having the like or analogous functions, or by, to, or before any officer designated by the Secretary of State or by the Court (as the case may require) for that purpose; and the seal of the Court may be substituted for any other seal; and in case any difficulty occurs in the application, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State to direct by, to, or before whom and in what manner anything is to be done, and such Act, Law, Order, Form, Regulation, or procedure shall be construed accordingly.

162. Nothing in this Order shall deprive the Court of the right to observe, and to enforce the observance of, or shall deprive any person of the benefit of, any reasonable custom existing in Siam, unless this Order contains some express and specific provision incompatible with the observance thereof.

163. Nothing in this Order shall prevent any Consular officer in Siam from doing anything which His Majesty's Consuls in the dominions of any other State in amity with His Majesty are, for the time being, by law, usage, or sufferance, entitled or enabled to do.

164. Section 48 of the Conveyancing and Law of Property Act, 1881 (which relates to the deposit of instruments creating powers of attorney in the Central Office of the Supreme Court in England or Ireland) shall apply to Siam with these modifications, that is to say: the Office of the Court for Siam is substituted for the Central Office, and Rules of Court under this Order are substituted for General Rules.

165. The Foreign Jurisdiction Neutrality Order in Council, 1904, shall apply to all persons subject to this Order.

166.—(1.) All fees, fines, penalties, or other sums of money which, under the provisions of this Order or any Regulations or Rules of Court, are stated or imposed in terms of British currency shall, if not paid in British gold, be paid in Siam in ticals or in rupees at such rates as may from time to time be authorized by the Treasury.

(2.) The said rates of exchange shall apply to the ascertainment of the value of any income for any purpose of qualification or of any limitation or security, in any case where this Order or any Rules or Regulations contains a reference to British currency.

(3.) Except as in this Order otherwise provided, all fees, dues, fines, and other receipts under this Order shall be carried to the public account, and shall be accounted for and paid as the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Treasury, directs.

167. Not later than the 31st March in each year, the Judge shall send to the Secretary of State a report on the operation of this Order up to the 31st January in that year, showing for the then last twelve months the number and nature of the proceedings, criminal and civil, taken in the Courts under this Order, and the result thereof, and the number and amount of fees received, and containing an abstract of the registration list, and such other information, and being in such form, as the Secretary of State from time to time directs.

168. Each District Court shall at such time as may be fixed by Rules of Court furnish to the Court for Siam an Annual Report of every case, civil and criminal, brought before it, in such form as the Court for Siam directs.

169.—(1.) A printed copy of this Order shall be always kept exhibited in a conspicuous place in each Consular office and in each Court-house.

(2.) Printed copies shall be sold at such reasonable price as the Minister directs.

(3.) Judicial notice shall be taken of this Order, and of the commencement thereof, and of the appointment of Consuls, and of the constitution and limits of the Courts and districts, and of Consular seals and signatures, and of any Rules made or in force under this Order, and no proof shall be required of any of such matters.

170. The provisions of the Evidence Act, 1851 (14 & 15 Vict., cap. 99), sections 7 and 11, relating to the proof of judicial and other documents, shall extend and be applied for all purposes as if the Courts, districts, and places to which this Order applies were in a British Colony.

171.—(1.) The Siam Order in Council, 1903, is hereby repealed, but this repeal shall not—

(i.) Affect the past operation of that Order, or any appointment made, or any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued, or the validity or invalidity of anything done or suffered under that Order, before the making of this Order;

(ii.) Interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding or action, criminal or civil, in respect of any offence committed against or forfeiture incurred or liability accrued under or in consequence of any provision of that Order, or any Rule or Regulation made thereunder;

(iii.) Take away or abridge any protection or benefit given or to be enjoyed in relation thereto.

(2.) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Order aforesaid, or any other thing in this Order, every Rule, Regulation, appointment, and other thing in this Article mentioned shall continue and be as if this Order had not been made (references to provisions of the said Order being construed as references to the corresponding provisions of this Order); but so that the same may be revoked, altered, or otherwise dealt with under this Order, as if it had been made or done under this Order.

(3.) Criminal or civil proceedings begun under the Order in Council repealed by this Order, and pending at the time when this Order comes into operation, shall, from and after that time, be regulated by the provisions of this Order, as far as the nature and circumstances of each case admits.

(4.) Lists of jurors and assessors in force at the passing of this Order shall continue in force until revised and settled under the provisions of this Order.

172. This Order shall commence and have effect as follows:—

(1.) As to the making of any warrant or appointment under this Order, immediately from and after the date of this Order.

(2.) As to the framing of Rules of Court or Regulations, and the approval thereof by the Secretary of State, immediately from and after the date of this Order.

(3.) As to all other matters and provisions comprised and contained in this Order, immediately from and after the expiration of one month after this Order is first exhibited in the public office of the Court, for which purpose the Judge is hereby required forthwith, on receipt by him from the Minister of a copy of this Order, to affix and exhibit the same conspicuously in the public office of the Court, and he is also hereby required to keep the same so affixed and exhibited during one month from the first exhibition thereof; and notice of the time of such first exhibition shall, as soon thereafter as practicable, be published in Siam in such manner as the Minister directs; and notwithstanding anything in this Order, the time of the expiration of the said month shall be deemed to be the time of the commencement of this Order.

(4.) Proof shall not in any proceeding or matter be required that the provisions of this Article have been complied with, nor shall any act or proceeding be invalidated by any failure to comply with any of such provisions.
