PRIME MINISTER. LORD PRESIDENT.

Lord Privy Seal.

Earl Carrington.

Mr. Sinclair.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and six, to nominate and appoint the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Prime Minister, and the Lord President of the Council, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto they should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto they should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the rural deaneries or some of them which are within the archdeaconry of Liverpool, within the diocese of Liverpool.

"Whereas by an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of the month following there were effected certain rearrangements of the areas of the said archdeaconry of Liverpool and of the said archdeaconry of Warrington in the said diocese of Liverpool and of some of the rural deaneries therein.

"And whereas by another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the eleventh day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and published in the London Gazette on the seventeenth day of the same month there were effected certain further rearrangements of the areas of the said archdeaconries of Liverpool and Warrington and some of the rural deaneries therein.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Francis James, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the rural deaneries within the said archdeaconry of Liverpool or some of them are desirable and should be carried into effect and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

"And whereas the said arrangements involve the transfer of six cures, namely, the cures of All Saints, Liverpool, Christ Church, Liverpool, Holy Trinity, Liverpool, Saint Anne, Liverpool, Saint Mary Magdalene, Liverpool, and Saint Matthew, Liverpool, from the rural deanery of Walton within the said archdeaconry of Liverpool to the rural deanery of North Liverpool within the same archdeaconry.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Francis James, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that, as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the said rural deanery of North Liverpool and the said rural deanery of Walton shall respectively comprise and consist of the parishes, cures, and churches, the names of which are set down in numbered order under the names of such rural deaneries respectively in the schedule to this scheme annexed, and each of the said parishes or cures or churches shall belong to and be and form part of the rural deanery under the name of which it is set down as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the rural dean of the rural deanery under which it is so set down as aforesaid and shall not belong to or be a part of any other rural deanery nor be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of any other rural dean.
