

Privy Council Office, May 11, 1906.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Saint John's College, Cambridge, on the ninth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and six, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

STATUTE to alter and amend the Statutes of the College of Saint John the Evangelist in the University of Cambridge which amending Statute was duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose and held on the ninth day of February 1906 and having been passed at such meeting by the votes of more than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting is now submitted for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council.

We the Master and Fellows of the College of Saint John the Evangelist in the University of Cambridge (being the Governing Body thereof) in exercise of the powers given to us by the 54th section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 do hereby alter and amend the existing Statutes of our said College in the manner following:

By repealing Statute XXXIV intituled "Naden Divinity Studentships" (made on the 21st day of March 1881 and approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council on the 3rd day of May 1882) and by substituting therefor the following Statute to form an amended Statute XXXIV.

Statute XXXIV. Naden Divinity Studentships.

In lieu of the provisions contained in the Will of the Reverend Thomas Naden the following regulations shall be observed:—

There shall be in the College one or more Divinity Studentships to be called the Naden Divinity Studentships. The object of the Studentships shall be to promote the study of Divinity.

The number of Studentships and the emoluments of each Student shall be determined from time to time by the Council.

A Student at the time of his election shall have entered on his ninth term at least having previously kept by residence eight terms or shall have been admitted to the title of the degree of Bachelor of Arts or of Law not being of sufficient standing to be admitted to the degree of Master of Arts or Master of Law.

A Student shall in the first instance be elected for one year. The tenure of a Studentship may be extended for a second year and in special cases for a third year.

A Studentship shall be tenable with a Scholarship or Exhibition in the College.

Admission to a Fellowship at any College shall vacate a Studentship.

The unexpended income (if any) accruing from the endowment of the said Thomas Naden shall be invested to form part of a fund for the augmentation of the endowment of the Naden Divinity Studentships.

Subject to these provisions the Council shall have power to make regulations as to the time and mode of election to the Studentships the qualifications of the candidates, the residence of the Students and the course of study to be pursued by them and to vary such regulations from time to time.

Given under our Common Seal this ninth day of February one thousand nine hundred and six.
