PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Acts, 1860 and 1898, namely, the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and forty-two, and the Act of the sixty-first and sixty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter twenty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Acts, 1860 and 1898, namely, the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and forty-two, and the Act of the sixty-first and sixty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter twenty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an union of two contiguous benefices within the Metropolis and within the City and Diocese of London, namely, the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Michael, Cornhill, and the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Peter le Poor with the vicarage of Saint Benet Fink annexed and for effecting certain other measures incidental to or arising out of such union.

"Whereas the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Michael, Cornhill, is vested in the Master and Wardens and Brethren and Sisters of the Guild or Fraternity of the Blessed Mary the Virgin of the Mystery of Drapers of the said City of London.

"And whereas the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Peter le Poor with Saint Benet Fink is vested in the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said Diocese of London, has caused proposals for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two benefices to be laid before us, which proposals were prepared under the seventh and eighth sections of the firstly hereinbefore-mentioned Act and were approved by the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and were assented to by the patrons of the said benefice of Saint Michael, Cornhill, and by the patrons of the said benefice of Saint Peter le Poor with Saint Benet Fink, and the same proposals were also assented to by the vestry of the parish of Saint Michael, Cornhill, and by the united vestry of the parishes of Saint Peter le Poor and Saint Benet Fink.

"And whereas the said proposals comprised amongst other things the severance of a portion of the said parish of Saint Peter le Poor from the said benefice of Saint Peter le Poor with Saint Benet Fink and its union with the contiguous benefice of All Hallows, London Wall, situate in the said City of London and in the said Diocese of London.

"And whereas it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to be expedient that the said proposed union of the said two benefices should be effected and that such arrangements relating thereto and to the other matters hereinafter referred to should be made as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the said benefice of Saint Michael, Cornhill, is now vacant, and each of the benefices of Saint Peter le Poor with Saint Benet Fink and of All Hallows, London Wall, is now full, the Reverend John Henry Coward, Clerk in Holy Orders, being the present Incumbent of the said benefice of St. Peter le Poor with Saint Benet Fink, and the Reverend Montague Fowler, Clerk in Holy Orders, being the present Incumbent of the said benefice of All Hallows, London Wall.

"And whereas the said Arthur Foley, now Bishop of London, as such Bishop, and the patrons of the said three benefices and the vestries of the said parishes respectively are willing that the scheme for effecting the said union should embody certain modifications of the said proposals and this present scheme does embody the same modifications accordingly but otherwise is based upon the said proposals.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has to this scheme set his hand and his Episcopal Seal), and with the consent of the said Master and Wardens and Brethren and Sisters of the Guild or Fraternity of the Blessed Mary the Virgin of the Mystery of Drapers of the City of London (in testimony whereof they have set their Common Seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London (in testimony whereof they have to this scheme set their Common or Capitular Seal), and with the consent of the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley, Earl of Halsbury, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the patron of the said benefice of All Hallows, London Wall (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consents of the vestry of the said parish of Saint Michael, Cornhill, of the united vestry of the said parishes of Saint Peter le Poor with Saint Benet Fink and of the vestry of the
