

right of patronage of the said proposed separate district shall be assigned.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Salisbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Great Canford and of the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, which are more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Baptist, Broadstone.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish, and the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said John, Bishop of Salisbury, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The district of Saint John the Baptist, Broadstone, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parish of Great Canford, in the county of Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury, which is bounded upon the south by the district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, upon the west by the parish of Corfe Mullen, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Corfe Mullen from the said parish of Great Canford at the point at Rushcombe Bottom where the ancient Roman road leading towards Upton House is crossed by the road leading from Blandford to Poole, and extending thence in a straight line due east (thereby crossing the Corfe Hills and passing to the north of the Gravel Hill Brick Works) for a distance of one mile and thirty chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the road leading from Wimborne to Poole, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of one mile and sixty chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Canford from the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet.

"II. And also all that portion of the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, which is bounded upon the south-west by the parish of Hamworthy, in the said county and diocese, upon the west partly by the last-named parish and partly by the said parish of Corfe Mullen, upon the north by the above described portion of the parish of Great Canford, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Canford from the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, crosses the middle of the road leading from Wimborne to Poole, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the boundary of the municipal borough of Poole, and extending thence first westward and then generally southward along the said borough boundary (thereby following in part the middle of the channel called Creekmoor Lake) for a distance of two miles or thereabouts to the junction of the channel called Creekmoor Lake with the channel called Upton Lake where the said borough boundary meets the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, from the said parish of Hamworthy."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbents of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Canford and the vicarage of the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas the incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Canford has signified his assent to such scheme.

And whereas the patron of the said two vicarages, and the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Mary, Longfleet, have offered certain objections to the same scheme.

And whereas, notwithstanding these objections, the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Salisbury.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of May, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His
