

Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the fifth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester.

“Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-ninth day of the same month, a part of the parish of Chislehurst, in the said county of Kent, and at that time in the diocese of Canterbury, but now in the said diocese of Rochester, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Annunciation, situate in the said parish, and the said district chapelry was named ‘The District Chapelry of the Annunciation, Chislehurst.’

“And whereas the said district chapelry of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

“And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend John Reginald, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, shall be altered so that all those portions of the said parish of Chislehurst, and of the parish of Bromley, in the said county of Kent, and in the said diocese of Rochester, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such parishes and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst.

“And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned

Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

“The territory to be annexed to the new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester, comprising:—

“I. All that portion of the parish of Chislehurst, in the said county and diocese, which is bounded upon the north-west and upon the north-east by the said new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east and upon the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, from the said parish of Chislehurst, at the junction of Kennal-road with Ashfield-lane, and extending thence south-westward in a straight line across Chislehurst Common for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts to the point a little to the west of the Prince Imperial's Monument where the road leading from Chislehurst Station to Chislehurst West is joined by the southern end of the road leading through the ‘Wilderness,’ and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of twenty-one chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where such road bends south-eastward, and extending thence north-westward in a straight line across the north-western portion of the ‘Wilderness’ and across a portion of the Camden Park Golf Course for a distance of twelve chains and a half or thereabouts to the south-eastern end of the hedge forming the south-western boundary of the house and premises known as ‘Golf View,’ and extending thence north-westward along the said boundary hedge for a distance of three chains and a quarter or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the footpath leading along the north-western side of the Camden Park Golf Course into Camden Park-road, and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction with Camden Park-road, and extending thence first westward and then south-westward along the middle of Camden Park-road for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Yester-road upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Chislehurst from the said new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst.

“II. And also all that portion of the parish of Bromley, in the said county and diocese, which is bounded upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Andrew, Mottingham, in the said county of Kent, and in the diocese of Southwark, upon the east and upon the south-east by the said new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, from the said parish of Bromley, crosses the middle of the line of the South Eastern and Chatham Railway, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such line of railway across Elmstead-lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Elmstead-lane for a distance of forty chains and a half or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the
