ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 21ST MAY 1906.)

YORKSHIRE (SWINE-FEVER) ORDER
OF 1906.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Restriction on Movement.

1.—(1.) Swine shall not be moved from the administrative county of the East Riding of York or the county borough of Kingston-upon-Hull into the administrative county of the West Riding of York or the county boroughs of Bradford, Halifax, Huddersfield, Leeds, Rotherham, Sheffield, or York, except in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(2.) For the purposes of this Order any detached part of an administrative county or county borough surrounded by another administrative county or county borough shall be deemed to be part of the county or borough which so surrounds it.

General Provision for Movement with Licence.

2.—(1.) The restriction on movement imposed by this Order shall not apply to swine if accompanied by a licence authorising such movement, granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the place of destination specified in the licence is situate.

(2.) Before a licence is granted by an Inspector under this Article, the owner of the swine, or his agent authorised in writing for this purpose, shall sign, and deliver or send by post to the Inspector, a declaration, countersigned as hereinafter provided, to the effect:

(i.) That he is the owner of [or the agent authorised in writing for this purpose by the owner of] the swine;

(ii.) That the swine have been on the premises from which they are to be moved for a period of at least twenty-eight days immediately before the date of the declaration;

(iii.) That to the best of his knowledge and belief the swine are not affected with swine-fever, and have not during the period of twenty-eight days as aforesaid been in any way exposed to the infection of swine-fever; and

(iv.) That the swine are not in a Swine-Fever Infected Place, and that the movement of the swine is not prohibited by notice of an Inspector of a Local Authority or of the Board given under any Order of the Board.

(3.) The declaration as to swine to be moved shall not be effective until it is countersigned by a police officer of the District where the swine are, who, before countersigning the declaration, shall, so far as is practicable, satisfy himself as to the correctness of the statements contained therein.

(4.) The declaration shall be retained by the Inspector granting the licence thereon.

(5.) The licence shall be in force for six days, inclusive of the day of issue, and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the licence is granted, the number of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place from which, and the place and premises to which, the swine are to be moved.

Detention and Isolation after Arrival at Destination.

3.—(1.) Swine moved with a licence under the preceding Article shall not, for a period of twenty-eight days after arrival at the place of destination specified in the licence, be moved from such place of destination, except as hereinafter provided. The swine, while detained under this Article, shall be kept separate from all other swine. This provision does not restrict the removal of any carcase of a pig.

(2.) Where swine are moved with a licence under the preceding Article to a market, fair, saleyard, or exhibition specified in the licence, the swine shall only be moved from such premises if accompanied by a licence authorising such movement granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the market, fair, saleyard, or exhibition is situate and only to a bacon factory or slaughterhouse specified in the licence, where the swine after their arrival shall be detained until they are slaughtered.

(3.) A copy of a licence for movement from a market, fair, saleyard, or exhibition, shall be sent by the Inspector granting the same to the Local Authority of the District in which is situate the bacon factory or slaughterhouse specified in the licence.

Movement for Immediate Slaughter.

4. The restriction on movement imposed by this Order shall not apply to swine moved to a bacon factory or slaughterhouse, or to any lairs, market, or saleyard specially authorised by the Local Authority of the District under the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1903 or any other Swine-Fever Order in force in the District, if the swine are accompanied by a licence authorising such movement granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the bacon factory, slaughterhouse, lairs, market, or saleyard shall be situate, and subject to the following conditions, namely:

(i.) The swine shall be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad
