

within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Great Horton, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Great Horton and of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Andrew, Bradford, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Great Horton and of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Bradford, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Wilfrid, Lidget Green, Bradford, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of Ripon, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Reverend John Robertson, Doctor in Divinity, Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Bradford, in the said county and diocese, and an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Ripon, as the patron (in right of his vicarage) of the vicarage of the said new parish of Great Horton, and with the consents of the Reverend Robert Baker Girdlestone, an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Oxford, of Warleigh Lodge, Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Wells, of Saint Jude's Vicarage, South Kensington, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend Joseph Edmund Rogers, of Walcot Rectory, Bath, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend John Charles Wright, a Canon of the Cathedral Church of Manchester, and of the Reverend Arthur Evelyn Barnes-Lawrence, an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Southwark, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Bradford (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Great Horton and of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Bradford, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Wilfrid, Lidget Green, Bradford, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Wilfrid, Lidget Green, Bradford.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Wilfrid, Lidget Green, Bradford, comprising:—

"(I.) All that portion of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Great Horton, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is bounded upon the west by the new parish of Saint John, Clayton, upon the north partly by the new parish of Saint Peter, Allerton, and partly by the new parish of Saint Philip, Girdlington, upon the east partly by the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Andrew, Bradford, and partly by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Columba, Horton, Bradford, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Columba, Horton, Bradford, from the said new parish of Great Horton at the centre of the bridge which carries the Bradford and Thornton line of the Great Northern Railway across Toby-lane, and extending thence first south-westward, then north-westward, and then westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of one mile and four chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Great Horton from the said new parish of Saint John, Clayton.

"(II.) And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Bradford, which is bounded upon the north by the said new parish of Saint Philip, Girdlington, upon the west by the above described portion of the said new parish of Great Horton, upon the south-east partly by the said portion of the last-named new parish and partly by the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Columba, Horton, Bradford, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Columba, Horton, Bradford, from the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Bradford, at the junction of Legram's-lane with Ingleby-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Ingleby-road for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Bradford, from the said new parish of Saint Philip, Girdlington."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.
