

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of June, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, Chislehurst, situate within the parish of Chislehurst, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Chislehurst, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint George, Bickley, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Chislehurst, and of the said new parish of Saint George, Bickley, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, Chislehurst, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester, as such Bishop, and as the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Chislehurst, and with the consent of Ernest James Wythes, of Copped Hall, Epping, in the county of Essex, Esquire, as the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint George, Bickley (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Chislehurst, and of the said new parish of Saint George, Bickley, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church called Christ Church, Chislehurst, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Chislehurst.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Chislehurst, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parish of Chislehurst, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester, which is bounded upon the east and upon the north by the new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, upon the south-west by the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint George, Bickley, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say upon the south and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint George, Bickley, from the said parish of Chislehurst crosses the middle of the road called Chislehurst-hill, and extending thence first north-eastward and then eastward along the middle of Chislehurst-hill for a distance of thirty-three chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction on Chislehurst Common with the road leading to Chislehurst West, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to the junction of such road with the southern end of the road leading through the 'Wilderness' upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Chislehurst from the said new parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint George, Bickley, which is bounded upon the east and upon the north-east by the said parish of Chislehurst, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Chislehurst from the said new parish of Saint George, Bickley, at the point in the middle of the line of the South-Eastern Railway (distant three chains from the centre of the bridge which carries such line of railway across Yester-road) where the said line of railway crosses the middle of the stream called Kid Brook, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway (thereby crossing the high road leading from Bromley to Chislehurst) for a distance of forty-two chains or thereabouts to the point where such line of railway again crosses the middle of the stream called Kid Brook, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint George, Bickley, from the said parish of Chislehurst."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.
