And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and the Patron and Incumbent of the said new parish of Eastleigh have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the Patron and Incumbent of the said parish of North Stoneham have offered certain objections to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas a period of more than one calendar month has elapsed since the transmission of the said notices.

And whereas, notwithstanding the said objections, the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of June, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district or new parish for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of Farnborough, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Farnborough is a parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Farnborough which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district or new parish in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is within the limits of the said proposed separate district or new parish a consecrated church in use for the purpose of Divine worship and such church is named 'The Church of Saint Mark, South Farnborough.'

"And whereas there has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of four thousand three hundred pounds sterling towards providing an endowment for the said proposed district or new parish, and we have in respect of the said sum of four thousand three hundred pounds sterling agreed and have undertaken to pay by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August and the first day of November in each and every year to the Minister or Incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish and to his successors a sum of one hundred and twenty-nine pounds per annum as long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said capital sum of four thousand three hundred pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that we should grant out of the common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act a capital sum of seven hundred pounds sterling in respect of which there should be paid by us to the Minister or Incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish and to his successors a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage to the said proposed district or new parish should be assigned in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said grant of seven hundred pounds sterling will after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas the contributors of part of the said sum of four thousand three hundred pounds have nominated the Bishop of Winchester for
