

burial-ground should be opened in the civil parish of Yearsley, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of May last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and six, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said civil parish of Yearsley without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued as follows, viz. :—

YEARSLEY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of Holy Trinity, Yearsley, in the North Riding of Yorkshire, and in the Churchyard.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of July, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Saint Mary and Saint Helen, Neston, in the county of Chester; of the parish of Saint Leonard, Dinnington, in the West Riding of Yorkshire; of the parish of Saint Peter, Bromyard, in the county of Hereford; and of the parish of Barford Saint Martin, in the county of Wilts, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial grounds should be opened in the civil parishes of Neston-cum-Parkgate, Dinnington, Bromyard, and Barford Saint Martin without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz. :—

NESTON - CUM - PARKGATE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Mary and Saint Helen, Neston, in the county of Chester; and in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave.

DINNINGTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Leonard, Dinnington, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, and in the churchyard.

BROMYARD.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Peter's, Bromyard, in the county of Hereford; and after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six, in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave:

(c.) In the said churchyard in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.

BARFORD SAINT MARTIN.—Forthwith and entirely in the old Parish Churchyard in the parish of Barford Saint Martin, in the county of Wilts, provided that in the brick grave now existing in the said churchyard in which the remains of the late Reverend J. Mitchell are interred, the burial of Mrs. Mitchell may be allowed subject to the condition that the coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the tenth day of September next:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representations one month before the said tenth day of September.

A. W. FitzRoy.
