

the Bill to all or some of the existing works of the Council.

24. To define the limits for the supply of water by the Council as including the whole of the urban district of Penrith in the county of Cumberland.

25. To make further provisions in regard to the supply of water by the Council and (amongst other things) to prevent the pollution, waste and mis-user thereof by improper fittings or water-closets, to empower the Council to make and enforce bye-laws for the prevention of waste and pollution of water, and for the inspection of fittings, definition of domestic supply as to rates being payable by owners of small houses, power to supply materials, to supply water by meter in certain cases and in particular where houses are partly used for trade, and to sell and let meters and fittings, to require notice before connecting or disconnecting meters and to prevent injury thereto and alteration thereof, and to impose penalties; power to refuse to supply part of premises unless rate for whole paid, and to affix meters, &c., for detection of waste, and in other respects to make provision with regard to the domestic and trade supply of water, and the making and recovery of rates, rents and charges therefor.

26. To authorize the Council to levy or impose rates, rents and charges for the supply of water, and for the hire or use of meters, fittings, apparatus and things, to alter rates, rents and charges, and to confer, vary or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates, rents and charges.

27. To confer upon the Council, with reference to the water undertaking, all or some of the rights, powers and privileges of an urban authority under the Public Health Acts.

28. To extend the limits of the Council for the supply of gas as defined by the Penrith Gas Order, 1877 (confirmed by the Local Government Board's (Gas) Provisional Orders (Penrith, &c.) Confirmation Act, 1877), so as to include therein the parishes of Edenhall, Langwathby, Dacre, Newton, Catterlen and Plumpton Wall, in the rural district of Penrith, in the county of Cumberland, and the parishes of Brougham, Clifton and Yanwath and Eamont Bridge, in the rural district of West Ward, in the county of Westmorland, and to authorize the Council within such extended limits to have and exercise all or any of the powers, rights, privileges and authorities which they have or may exercise within their existing limits of supply or which the Bill may confer, and to demand, take and levy rates, rents and charges for or in respect of the supply of gas within such parishes and places, to allow discounts, and to confer, vary and extinguish exemptions from the payment of such rates, rents and charges respectively, and to vary, alter and amend such named rates, rents and charges.

29. To empower the Council to provide, sell and let on hire and fix gas engines, stoves, ranges, dynamos, motors, pipes, fittings, apparatus and appliances for lighting, heating, cooking, ventilation, motive power and all other purposes whatsoever, and to supply the same with gas, and to exclude the same from liability to distress, or to be taken in execution or in proceedings in bankruptcy.

30. To make provision in regard to the supply and consumption of gas, and in regard to matters incidental to the objects of the intended Act, including the following: the pressure, quality and testing of gas, the size and material of the pipes and fittings to be laid by the consumer, the use of anti-fluctuators, the laying of pipes for ancillary purposes and in streets not dedicated to the public use, the exemption of the Council from penalties in certain cases, and from liability to supply with gas any person in debt to them, the giving of notices by consumers of their intention to discontinue the supply of gas or to leave premises supplied with gas, the period for which allowances or surcharges shall be made in the event of meters being found to be defective.

31. To authorize the Council to supply gas in bulk, or otherwise, to any local authority, company or person requiring a supply of gas for any purposes, either within or beyond the limits of the intended Act.

32. To vest in the Council the ownership in perpetuity and freed from the respective rights or trusts affecting them under an Award dated the 30th day of October, 1819, of the Commissioners appointed in and by the Act of 43 George III, chapter 103, for dividing and enclosing the Commons and Waste Lands within the Honor of Penrith and Forest of Inglewood, in the county of Cumberland (subject only to the reservation of mineral rights), the following lands allotted and awarded under the said Award (that is to say):—

(1) A plot or parcel of land in the said parish and urban district of Penrith adjoining Salkeld-road and Scotland-road and containing 17 acres 1 rood and 31 perches and known as Fair Hill, and being properties Nos. 539, 540 and 703 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map, Cumberland, sheet LVIII-4, 2nd edition, 1900.

(2) A plot or parcel of land situate in the parish and urban district of Penrith, containing 2 roods and 32 perches, or thereabouts, including a plot of land containing 10 perches, or thereabouts, and set out as a public watering place in the said Award, adjoining the road known as Fell-lane on the south-east and which said piece of land is numbered 721 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map, Cumberland, LVIII-4, 2nd edition, 1900.

(3) (a) A plot or parcel of land situate in the parish and urban district of Penrith, containing 2 roods, or thereabouts, adjoining the main-road from Penrith to Carlisle on the north-east, and which said piece of land is numbered 690 on the said Ordnance Map, Cumberland, LVIII-4, 2nd edition, 1900.

33. To enable the Council to continue and appropriate such portion as the Council think fit of the land firstly described in the preceding paragraph of this Notice and known as Fair Hill as a recreation ground and to make applicable to such lands the provisions of the intended Act and of the Public Health Acts relating to Parks and Pleasure Grounds and to enable the Council by resolution to dedicate any part or parts of the said lands for the purpose of making or widening any street under the Public Health Acts or to use any portion of such lands as allotment gardens, and to empower the Council to sell, lease or to exchange any part of the said lands for other lands within or in the neighbourhood of the district and also to enable the Council to continue and maintain the hospital already erected by them on a portion of the said lands.

34. To enable the Council to sell, lease or exchange all or any of the lands secondly and thirdly above described.

35. To define the limits within which the
