

and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James, Aston, juxta Birmingham, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Birmingham, which is bounded upon the south by the new parish of Saint Mary, Aston Brook, upon the south-west by the new parish of Saint Paul, Lozells, both in the said county and diocese, upon the north-west by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Birchfield, in the county of Stafford and in the said diocese of Birmingham, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Birchfield, from the said parish of Aston juxta Birmingham crosses the middle of Trinity-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Trinity-road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the houses and premises on the eastern side of Bevington-road, and extending thence south-eastward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of twenty-four chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where it meets the wall or fence forming the boundary between the house and premises known as number 245, Bevington-road, and the houses and premises on the northern side of Frederick-road, and extending thence westward along the last-mentioned boundary wall or fence for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to its western end on the eastern side of Bevington-road, and extending thence first westward and then south-eastward along the middle of Bevington-road (thereby crossing Frederick-road) for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Albert-road and Upper Sutton-street, and extending thence southward along the middle of Upper Sutton-street for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Park-lane, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Aston juxta Birmingham from the said new parish of Saint Mary, Aston Brook."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Birmingham.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Sandringham House, the 1st day of December, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the parish churchyard of Saint Peter's, Bromyard, in the county of Hereford, from the time specified in such Order:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Peter's, Bromyard, in the county of Hereford, be postponed to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Sandringham House, the 1st day of December, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should
