

be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Amersham, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, have made a representation stating that they are of opinion that so much of the Order in Council of the twenty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as varied by the Order in Council of the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as relates to burials in the Parish Church and churchyard of Amersham, in the county of Buckingham, should be further varied, as hereinafter set forth:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the twenty-second day of October last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand nine hundred and six, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said first recited Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the Order in Council of the twenty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as varied by the Order in Council of the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as relates to burials in the Parish Church and churchyard of Amersham, in the county of Buckingham, be further varied, so as to provide as follows, viz. :—

AMERSHAM.—(a) That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the catacombs in the North Transept of the said Parish Church of Amersham; and (b) that notwithstanding anything in the said Orders in Council, it shall be lawful to re-inter in the portion of the said churchyard of Amersham which has never previously been used for burials, and which is situate on the north side of the said church, at or below the depth of five feet below the surface of the ground, certain human remains which have been or are about to be removed from the catacombs in the North Transept of the said church.
