

so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the Master and Fellows of the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE to amend Statute III framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, c. 48), in relation to the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, duly enacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Master and Fellows, being the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose, and holden on the first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six, and passed by the unanimous vote of those present and voting, and submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council.

Whereas Statute III, clause 11, of the Statutes of the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, provides a means whereby the Master and Fellows may elect as Fellow any person eminently qualified for the office of Prælector or Tutor, whose services the College needs, and who is willing to serve the College in either capacity without examination, and without regard to divers restrictions enumerated in the first paragraph of the said clause.

And whereas the said clause provides that there shall not be in the said College at any one time more than five Fellows elected under the said clause, in respect of the office of Prælector, Tutor, or Bursar.

And whereas the office of Bursar is not an Educational office, and the number of four or of five Prælectors and Tutors is and has been found to be inadequate to the growing Educational needs of the College.

And whereas the only other means provided by the existing Statutes for obtaining the services of Fellows for the Educational needs of the College is by the exaction of such services for two years from Fellows to be elected after open competitive Examination (see Statute III, clause 4), and this method has been found inadequate and unsatisfactory, and is indeed open to obvious and grave objections.

Now, therefore, we, the Master and Fellows of the said College, desiring to enlarge the powers of the College so as to enable it to obtain, in sufficient number, the services of men eminently qualified for the office of Prælector or Tutor, do hereby, in virtue of the powers conferred on us by Section 54 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, c. 48), and by Statute XI of the Statutes of the College, in relation to the alteration of Statutes, alter and amend Statute III, clause 11, of the said Statutes, by substituting for the word "five" in the last paragraph of the said clause (page 14, line 6, ed. 1902), the word "eight."

Given under the Common Seal of the Master and Fellows of the said College, this seventh day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and six.
