RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT.

The following Rules have been issued by the Authority for Making Rules of the Supreme Court:—

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Order 37, Rule 59.

1. Order 37, Rule 59, is hereby annulled, and the following Rule shall stand in lieu thereof:—

Rules 54 to 58 of this Order shall apply as far as may be to applications under the Evidence by Commission Act, 1859 (22 Vict., c. 20), for the purpose of giving effect to any Commission or letter of request from any British tribunal out of the jurisdiction; except that in such cases the depositions certified as above provided, and letter of request, if any, shall be forwarded by the Senior Master to His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, or, in the case of a letter of request from a Judge of an Indian Court, to His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Order 37, Rule 60.

2. Where a Commission Rogatoire, or letter of request, as mentioned in Rule 54 of this Order, is transmitted to the Supreme Court by His Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs with an intimation that it is desirable that effect should be given to the same without requiring an application to be made to the Court by the Agents in England of any of the parties to the action or matter in the foreign country, the Senior Master shall transmit the same to the Solicitor to the Treasury, who may thereupon with the consent of His Majesty's Treasury, make such applications and take such steps as may be necessary to give effect to such Commission Rogatoire, or letter of request, in accordance with Rules 54 to 58 of this Order.

3. These Rules may be cited as the Rules of the Supreme Court (December) 1906, or each Rule may be cited by the heading thereof with reference to the Rules of the Supreme Court,
