At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the two archdeaconries of Chester and Macclesfield, in the diocese of Chester, and to some of the rural deaneries within such archdeaconries.

“Whereas by an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the seventeenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-first day of the same month, the rural deaneries, or some of them, in the said archdeaconries of Chester and Macclesfield were rearranged.

“And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Francis John, Bishop of

Chester, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said two archdeaconries of Chester and Macclesfield and with respect to some of the rural deaneries within such archdeaconries are desirable and should be carried into effect and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Francis John, Bishop of Chester (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that, as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, firstly a new rural deanery shall be formed out of the rural deanery of Birkenhead within the said archdeaconry of Chester and shall be named “The Rural Deanery of Wallasey,” and secondly the parish of Lower Peover shall be transferred from the rural deanery of Frodsham in the said archdeaconry of Chester to the rural deanery of Bowdon in the said archdeaconry of Macclesfield, and the said rural deaneries of Birkenhead, Frodsham, and Wallasey in the said archdeaconry of Chester and the said rural deanery of Bowdon in the said archdeaconry of Macclesfield shall respectively comprise and consist of the parishes, cures, and churches the names of which are set down in numbered order under the names of such rural deaneries respectively in the schedule to this scheme annexed, and each of the said parishes or cures or churches shall belong to and be and form part of the rural deanery and archdeaconry under the names of which it is set down as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean of the rural deanery and of the Archdeacon of the archdeaconry under which it is so set down as
