

*Board of Trade, 7, Whitehall Gardens,
London, April 15, 1907.*

The Board of Trade hereby give notice that they have revoked the Egremont Electric Lighting Order, 1900, as confirmed by the Electric Lighting Orders Confirmation (No. 3) Act, 1900, as to the whole of the area of supply, as from the 8th day of April, 1907, and that the said revocation is to take effect from that date.

Dated this 15th day of April, 1907.

*H. Llewellyn Smith,
Secretary, Board of Trade.*

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, S. W., April 15, 1907.*

H. 4284.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated March 28th, from His Majesty's Representative at Sofia, intimating that the Bulgarian Government have ordered the application of the following Quarantine measures:—

Ships from infected places to a destination in Bulgaria which carry merchandise from those places, and which during their voyage have discharged a part of their cargo in a port free from infection will be admitted to free pratique after a thorough medical inspection before the expiration of 25 days following the date of their departure from the infected places, provided that they are furnished with a clean bill of health.

The crews of these ships will be under surveillance during the whole of their stay in the Bulgarian ports of the Black Sea.

The despatch also states that the following places have been declared free from plague:—

- (a) The Islands to the east of Australia—New Caledonia;
- (b) The Australian towns of Adelaide and Sydney;
- (c) Port Allégré, in Brazil.
