

Council and Session in Scotland (First Division—Mr. Couper, Clerk), praying the Court to stop all actions or suits pending or to be hereafter instituted in said Court, or any other Court, in relation to their liability as owners of the said s.s. "Welshman," in respect of the collision between her and the s.s. "Portland," of Glasgow, which occurred in the neighbourhood of the Cloch, in the Firth of Clyde, on 6th February, 1907; and to limit the liability of the petitioners in respect of said collision (1) to the sum of £2,596 16s. in respect of loss and damage to vessels, goods, merchandise, or other things other than damage in respect of loss of life or personal injury, or (2) to the sum of £4,869 in respect of loss of life or personal injury, together with loss or damage to vessels, goods, merchandise, or other things, and thereafter to rank such claimants as shall have claimed according to their respective rights in the premises and to exclude any other claimants who do not come in within such time as their Lordships might fix, and meantime to grant interim order stopping all actions and suits pending or to be thereafter instituted in said Court, or in any other Court, in relation to the petitioners' liability as owners of said s.s. "Welshman," in respect of said collision; and to make such further order for the petitioners finding security or making consignment as their Lordships might determine. In said petition, Lord Low, Lord Ordinary on the Bills, on 12th April, 1907, granted an interlocutor in the following terms:—"12th April, 1907. The Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills appoints the petition to be intimated on the walls and in the Minute Book in common form, to be served upon the Clyde Shipping Company Limited, 21, Carlton-place, Glasgow, and to be advertised once in each of the London Gazette, the Edinburgh Gazette, 'Glasgow Herald,' 'Scotsman,' and 'Shipping and Mercantile Gazette' newspapers, all as craved, and allows all concerned to lodge answers within eight days after such intimation service and advertisement; further under reservation of all pleas of parties, on the motion of the petitioners, allows them to consign the sum of £2,596 16s. sterling with interest at 4 per cent. per annum, from the 6th day of February, 1907.

"A. LOW."

Of all which intimation is hereby made.

To JOSEPH GRAIN, of the Prince of Wales Public-house, Phillip-street, Kingsland-road, London.

TAKE notice, that on the 22nd day of March, 1907, a Writ of Summons was issued in the action of Whitbread and Company Limited v. Joseph Grain, 1907, W., No. 879, which claimed possession of all that messuage tenement or public-house called or known as the Prince of Wales, situate and being in Phillip-street, Kingsland-road, in the county of London, together with the fixtures and fittings in, upon, and belonging to the said messuage and premises, and for the appointment of a Receiver of the rents and profits of the said hereditaments and of the licences belonging thereto, and for costs. And take notice, that by an Order, dated the 12th day of April, 1907, it was ordered that the service of the said Writ of Summons and notice of motion, and of the said Order, by publication of this notice once each in the London Gazette, The Times, and the Daily Chronicle newspapers, should be deemed good service of the said Writ of Summons and notice of motion upon you. And take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you at the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice, London, within eight days after the last of such advertisements, the plaintiffs may proceed in the said action and Judgment may be given in your absence.
