At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the eleventh section of the Volunteer Act, 1863, it is, amongst other things, enacted that "Her Majesty in Council may, from time to time, declare what is requisite to entitle a volunteer to be deemed an efficient volunteer by an Order in Council defining for that purpose the extent of attendance at drill to be given by the volunteer, and the course of instruction to be gone through by him, and the degree of proficiency in drill and instruction to be attained by him and his corps, such proficiency to be judged of by the inspecting officer at the annual inspection of the corps, or otherwise, as by Order in Council is from time to time directed"; and that the draft of any scheme to be from time to time submitted to Her Majesty in Council for approval under the present section shall have been laid before both Houses of Parliament for one lunar month at least, either before or after, or partly before and partly after, the passing of this Act during the present or for the like period during any subsequent session of Parliament, before such scheme receives the approval of Her Majesty in Council":

And whereas it is deemed expedient that Tables II., III., and IV. of the schedule to the Order in Council, bearing date the eleventh August, one thousand nine hundred and two, declaring what is requisite to entitle a volunteer of Volunteer Engineer Corps, Volunteer Divisions of Submarine Miners and Volunteer Electrical Engineers to be deemed an efficient volunteer be cancelled, and that Tables II. and III. in the schedule to this Order annexed be substituted therefor:

And whereas a draft of the scheme to be attached to the proposed fresh Order was on the second day of March laid before both Houses of Parliament in the words mentioned and set forth in the schedule to this Order annexed, and, one lunar month having elapsed since that time, the proposed scheme hath this day been submitted to His Majesty in Council for His approval thereof:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having this day taken the said scheme into consideration, doth, in pursuance and exercise of the power in His Majesty by the said Act of Parliament in that behalf vested and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby direct the substitution of the said draft scheme, forming the schedule to this Order, to take effect from first November, one thousand nine hundred and six, for Tables II., III., and IV. of the schedule to the aforesaid Order in Council of the eleventh August, one thousand nine hundred and two, and doth also direct the cancellation of those portions of the schedule to the Order in Council.
