A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called "the said benefice") of Saint Margaret, Underriver, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Margaret, Underriver, is vested in the Right Honourable Lionel Sackville, Baron Sackville, for an estate for his own life, and he the said Lionel Sackville, Baron Sackville, is the person who, if the said benefice were now vacant, would be entitled to present thereto.

"And whereas the said Lionel Sackville, Baron Sackville, is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Margaret, Underriver, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Rochester.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John Reginald, now Bishop of Rochester, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Margaret, Underriver, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control and this circumstance will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Saint Margaret, Underriver.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Lionel Sackville, Baron Sackville (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Margaret, Underriver, which said advowson or perpetual right of patronage is now vested for an estate for life as aforesaid in him, the said Lionel Sackville, Baron Sackville, shall be transferred to the said John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of Waltham, in the county of Lincoln, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that they are of opinion that so much of the Order of Her late Majesty in Council of the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, as varied by the Order in Council of the seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, as relates to burials in the church and churchyard of Waltham, in the county of Lincoln, should be further varied in the manner hereinafter described:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the first day of March last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said first recited Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the Order in Council of the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, as varied by the Order in Council of the seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, as relates to burials in the church and churchyard of Waltham, in the county of Lincoln, be further varied so as to provide as follows, viz:—

WALTHAM, LINCOLN.—That burials shall also be discontinued forthwith and entirely in that portion of Waltham churchyard which was added in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard, burial may be allowed, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave:

(c.) In the said portion of the churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Saint Paul, Ramsbottom, in the county of Lancaster, and of the parish of Holy Cross, Bury, in the county of Huntingdon, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial grounds should be opened in the civil parishes of Ramsbottom and Bury, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parishes as hereinafter directed:

"We therefore beg leave humbly to submit that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the following proposals:

"(1.) That the following be the number of Greenwich Hospital Pensions established for

Officers of the ranks named in lieu of those fixed by the above-mentioned Order in Council, viz. :—

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals in so far as they affect Naval Pensions.”
