

by his report dated the sixth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, as follows:—

“We, the undersigned William Dalrymple by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of York, being the Archbishop of the province within which the parish hereinafter referred to is situated, doth, in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and six, hereby report to Your Majesty in Council.

“That there is in the county and diocese of York the vicarage of Hornsea the parish whereof comprises amongst other places the township of Long Riston and part of the township of Arnold the limits and boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

“That there is within the limits of the township of Long Riston a chapel dedicated to Saint Margaret long since erected and built which chapel is situated at a distance of seven miles or thereabouts from the parish church of Hornsea aforesaid.

“That according to the last census the population of the said parish of Hornsea exclusive of the said township of Long Riston and part of the said township of Arnold amounts to two thousand nine hundred and ninety-two, and that of the said township of Long Riston and part of the township of Arnold to three hundred and sixty-eight or thereabouts.

“That the church or chapel situate in the said township of Long Riston affords sufficient accommodation for the inhabitants of the said township of Long Riston and part of the township of Arnold.

“That baptisms, churchings, marriages and burials have been from time immemorial solemnized and performed in the chapel of the said township of Long Riston and the burial ground thereto belonging.

“That the annual value of the benefice of Hornsea is four hundred and forty-one pounds or thereabouts, exclusive of the residence house at Hornsea, which is now occupied by the Incumbent, the Reverend Charles Edward Little.

“That in the event of the scheme hereinafter proposed being carried into effect and the said township of Long Riston and part of the township of Arnold being constituted a separate benefice of which the said chapel shall be the parish church, it is proposed to annex to such separate benefice by way of endowment the annual rent of the Glebe Farm, situate in the township of Long Riston, such farm consisting of one hundred and eighty-one acres or thereabouts and the annual rent thereof amounting to two hundred and fifteen pounds.

“That the patronage of the benefice of Hornsea belongs to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and the present Incumbent of the said benefice is the Reverend Charles Edward Little.

“That the Patron and Incumbent are consenting parties to the proposed separation.

“That it appears to the said Archbishop that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament passed in the session held in the first and second years of Her late Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and six, and of the second and third years of Her late Majesty's reign, chapter forty-nine, the said township of Long Riston and part of the said township of Arnold may be advantageously separated from the vicarage and parish church of Hornsea and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes as well as a perpetual curacy and benefice.

“That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the first-mentioned Act, the said Archbishop has prepared a scheme in writing appended to this report describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration above proposed may be best effected and the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with such scheme, he doth by this report to Your Majesty in Council certify the same to Your Majesty together with the consent in writing to the said scheme of the Patron and Incumbent of the said benefice of Hornsea, to the intent that Your Majesty in Council in case it shall be thought expedient and proper so to do may make an Order for carrying such scheme into effect.

*Willelm. Ebor.

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Archbishop and the consents referred to in the said report are in the words and figures following:—

“SCHEME.

“That the said township of Long Riston and part of the township of Arnold shall be separated from the parish and parish church of Hornsea and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes as well as a perpetual curacy and benefice by the name and style of ‘The Perpetual Curacy of Long Riston,’ of which the said chapel of Saint Margaret, situate within the said township of Long Riston, shall be the parish church.

“That such separate parish and benefice shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage of Hornsea, and the Incumbent of such separate parish and benefice shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

“That churchwardens shall be annually chosen in the customary manner, and at the time when churchwardens are usually appointed in and for the said separate parish and benefice, and such churchwardens shall be duly admitted, and shall do all things pertaining to the office of churchwarden as to ecclesiastical matters in and for the said separate parish of Long Riston.

“That baptisms, churchings, marriages and burials shall be performed in the church of the said proposed separate parish and the burial ground thereto belonging.

“That the Vicar of Hornsea shall receive the whole of the income of the benefice of Hornsea as heretofore with the exception of the rent of the Glebe Farm, situate in the township of Long Riston, containing one hundred and eighty-one acres or thereabouts, the annual rent of which amounts to two hundred and fifteen pounds, payable half-yearly at Lady Day and Michaelmas, and which said farm is more particularly delineated and described in the schedule hereunder written, and the boundaries whereof are delineated on the plan hereto annexed.

“That the rent of the said farm shall form the income of the proposed separate parish of Long Riston, together with all surplice fees received in respect of offices performed in the said church of Saint Margaret, Long Riston, and shall be paid to and be received by the Minister or Incumbent of the said church of the proposed new parish.

“That the patronage or right of nomination of or to the said proposed separate parish and benefice of Long Riston shall be vested in and belong to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being and his successors.

* “That the parishioners of the parish of Hornsea shall not henceforth be entitled to the right of accommodation in the church at Long Riston,
