

His Majesty a byelaw as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed, in substitution for number five of the said byelaws:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the proposed new byelaw is proper and reasonable:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and doth by this Order, confirm the said new byelaw, as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed, in substitution for number five of the byelaws confirmed by the said Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, which said byelaw number five is hereby revoked.

A. W. FitzRoy.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Order refers:—

BOSTON.

No. 5. Every candidate for the office of pilot shall have been employed ten years at sea, five of which he must have served in the capacity of able seaman, and be accustomed to the navigation of steam as well as sailing vessels. He shall have attained the age of twenty-five years, and must not exceed forty years. He will be required to pass such examination as the Commissioners may prescribe, and if approved will be granted a licence which will have to be renewed annually on the first Monday in February. On receiving his licence he will for the first twelve months be allowed by the Superintendent to pilot vessels not exceeding fifteen feet draught of water into and out of the port, and if during that period his conduct shall have been in all respects satisfactory he will be permitted to pilot vessels of every description.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Trinity College, Oxford, on the 27th day of May, 1907, amending Statute I of the Statutes of the College, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

At a Meeting of the Governing Body of Trinity College, Oxford, specially called for the purpose, with due notice of the business to be transacted thereat, held on Monday, May 27th, 1907, it was resolved by a majority of two-thirds of those present and voting, to make certain amendments to the Statute of the College concerning the office of President, and to affix the College Seal thereto, in accordance with the provisions of Statute XIII.

ALTERATION OF STATUTE (1907).

Between clause 10 and clause 11 of Statute I, insert the following new clause:—

rate, not being less than £200 or more than £250 per annum, as the College may determine.

Such pension shall be charged either wholly upon the Corporate Revenues of the College, or to the extent of not less than one-third upon the Corporate Revenues, and as to the residue upon the income of the Pension Fund, as the College may determine; provided that so much of such pension as shall be charged upon the income of the Pension Fund shall be payable in the same manner and in the same priority as if such part had been a pension payable under clause 3 of Statute VI, to an Official Fellow voluntarily retiring from his Fellowship.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Peterhouse or St. Peter's College, Cambridge, on the fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven (and sealed on the twentieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

A STATUTE to amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to Peterhouse or St. Peter's College in the University of Cambridge duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and seven and passed at such Meeting by the votes of nine persons present and voting being the whole number of persons so present and voting and submitted for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas the University of Cambridge Commissioners appointed by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (hereinafter called the said Act) did on the eighteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one make certain Statutes (hereinafter called our said Statutes) under the provisions of the same Act for Peterhouse or St. Peter's College (hereinafter called the said College) in the University of Cambridge.

And whereas Her Majesty the late Queen Victoria having taken the said Statutes into consideration was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to declare and did on the twenty-ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, graciously declare Her approval of the same.

And whereas the Governing Body of the said College in exercise of the powers conferred on it by the fifty-fourth section of the said Act may make Statutes to amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the said Act.

And whereas under Statute XXI paragraph 1 of the said Statutes it is provided as follows, to wit:—

"If any Fellow shall be instituted on the presentation of the College, to any benefice of the clear annual value (not deducting the
