

the new parish of Saint Philip, Heigham, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the west and upon the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Philip, Heigham, from the said parish of Heigham, at the junction of Dereham-road with Old Palace-road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Old Palace-road for a distance of thirty chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Heigham-street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Heigham-street for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-western end of the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the house and premises known as Number 220, Heigham-street, and extending thence north-eastward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of twenty yards or thereabouts to its north-eastern end, and extending thence north-eastward in a straight line for a distance of ten chains and a half or thereabouts to the south-eastern corner of the island situate in the middle of the River Wensum between the Dolphin Ferry and the bridge which carries the line of the Midland and Great Northern Railway across such river, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said river for a distance of ten chains and a quarter or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Heigham from the said parish of Saint Martin at Oak, Norwich."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Martin situate at West Acton in the parish of Acton in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Acton, of the parish of Ealing and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church, Ealing, both in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes and new parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Acton, of the said parish of Ealing, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Ealing, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Martin situate at West Acton as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, as such Bishop and also as the patron (in right of his see) of the rectory of the said parish of Acton, of the vicarage of the said parish of Ealing and of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church, Ealing (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Acton, of the said parish of Ealing and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Ealing, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Martin situate at West Acton, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Martin, West Acton.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Martin, West Acton, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Acton, the parish of Ealing, and the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church, Ealing, all in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint Matthew, Ealing Common, in the said county and diocese, from the said new parish of Christ Church, Ealing, at the centre of the bridge which carries the Ealing Extension Line of the Metropolitan District Railway across the main line of the Great Western Railway, and extending thence first southward and then south-eastward along the middle of the said Ealing Extension line of railway (thereby following in part the last mentioned boundary and the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Ealing Common from the said parish of Ealing) for a distance of
