

Military Academy at Woolwich, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of His Majesty; the said Francis Hervey, commonly called The Lord Francis Hervey, being first Commissioner; and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of their duties.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council dated the eighteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, Her late Majesty did by and with the advice of the said Council appoint Commissioners for testing the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations in Her late Majesty's Civil Service Establishments and of candidates for Commissions in the Army and for admission to the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich.

And whereas it is deemed expedient that any Commissioner now holding that office or hereafter to be appointed for the like purpose may, with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, authorize the Secretary for the time being of the Civil Service Commission to act temporarily as a Commissioner in the circumstances and under the conditions hereinafter set forth.

Now therefore His Majesty by and with the advice of His Privy Council doth order and it is hereby ordered that any Commissioner now holding office or hereafter to be appointed for the purposes aforesaid may subject to the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury previously obtained, by writing under his hand authorize the Secretary for the time being to the Civil Service Commission to act as a Commissioner at any time during the absence of any of the Commissioners or during any vacancy in one of the offices of Commissioner or for such period during such absence or vacancy as may be fixed by such authorization.

The Secretary shall when acting in pursuance of such authority have all powers duties and authorities vested in or assigned to or which may by any future Order in Council be hereafter vested in or assigned to the Commissioners for the time being appointed for the purposes aforesaid.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, it is provided (inter alia) that if the council of a borough agree to petition the King for the division of the borough into wards or for the alteration of the number and boundaries of its wards it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to fix the number of wards into which the borough shall be divided; and that where an Order has been so made the Secretary of State shall appoint a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of the wards and for apportioning the Councillors among them; and that in case of alteration of wards the Commissioner shall so apportion among the altered wards the Councillors for those wards as to provide for their continuing to represent as large a number as possible of their former constituents.

And whereas on the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, the Right Honourable Herbert John Gladstone, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, did in pursuance of the said Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, duly warrant and appoint Archibald Bence Bence-Jones, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, to be a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of and for apportioning the Councillors among the wards of the borough of Eastbourne, the number of such wards having been fixed by the Order of His Majesty in Council made in that behalf on the seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

Now, I, the said Archibald Bence Bence-Jones, do hereby, in pursuance of the said warrant and appointment, declare this to be my scheme for the purposes of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882; and I hereby fix and determine that the boundaries of the wards of the said borough of Eastbourne shall be as follows, namely:—

shall contain so much of the said borough of Eastbourne as is comprised within an imaginary line commencing at the point in the centre of Upperton-road opposite Moatcroft-road, and proceeding thence in a south-westerly direction along the centre of Moatcroft-road to the junction of Moatcroft-road and the Goffs, thence in a south-easterly direction along the centre of the Goffs to Southfields-road, thence in a south-westerly direction following the line of the wall on the south-eastern side of Gildredge Park (so far as the said wall extends in a south-westerly direction), and continuing in a straight line to the boundary between the hitherto existing West Ward and Saint Mary's Ward at Compton-place-road, thence in a south-westerly direction following the hitherto existing boundary of the said wards to the western boundary of the borough at Warren Hill-road, following thence along the western and northern boundary of the borough ultimately in an easterly direction to the centre of Willingdon-road, thence in a southerly direction along the centre of Willingdon-road and Upperton-road to the point of commencement aforesaid.

No. 2.—Upperton Ward

shall contain so much of the said borough of Eastbourne as is comprised within an imaginary line commencing at the point aforesaid in the centre of Upperton-road opposite Moatcroft-road and following the eastern and south-eastern boundary of No. 1, Saint Mary's Ward, as hereinbefore defined as far as Compton-place-road, thence following in a south-easterly direction the centre of Compton-place-road to its junction with Meads-road, thence in a north-easterly direction along the centre of Meads-road and Grove-road to the junction of Grove-road and Terminus-road, thence in north-easterly and northerly directions successively along the south-eastern and eastern sides of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway Company's line to the northern boundary of the borough, thence along the northern boundary of the borough in westerly, northerly, westerly and
