[In substitution for the Order in Council which was published in the London Gazette of the 13th September, 1907.]

At the Court, at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of September, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, dated the eleventh day of February, one thousand nine hundred and seven, His Majesty, in pursuance and exercise of the power vested in him by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and of every other power enabling him in that behalf, did, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, fix the number of wards into which the Borough of Richmond, in the county of Surrey, should be thenceforth divided, and did order and direct that the number of the said wards should be six:

And whereas the Right Honourable Herbert John Gladstone, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, did, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, by warrant given under his hand and seal at Whitehall, on the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and seven, duly appoint me, Edward Thornton Hill Lawes, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, to be a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of, and apportioning the Councillors among, the wards of the said Borough of Richmond:

Now I the said Edward Thornton Hill Lawes, in pursuance of the powers given to me by virtue of the said appointment under the said Act, do hereby determine as hereinafter mentioned the boundaries of the said six wards into which the said borough is divided, which wards are hereinafter named and numbered as follows, that is to say:—

- No. 1. North Ward.
- No. 2. West Ward.
- No. 3. East Ward.
- No. 4. South Ward.
- No. 5. North Sheen Ward.
- No. 6. Kew Ward.

"No. 1.—North Ward.

"I do hereby determine that North Ward shall comprise so much of the Borough of Richmond as is contained within a line commencing at a point on the municipal borough boundary in the River Thames at the bridge where the London and South Western Railway (Windsor Line) crosses the said river and running thence in a north-easterly direction along the centre of the said railway to a point opposite the corner of the Old Deer Park wall near Park-lane, thence to and along the said Deer Park wall as far as the private road leading to Kew Observatory, thence along the centre of such private road and

Clarence-street in a south-easterly direction to the centre of Kew-road, thence in a north-easterly direction along the centre of Kew-road to the junction of Lower Mortlake-road, continuing thence along the centre of Lower Mortlake-road to the point where the same passes over the centre of the London and South Western Railway from Richmond to Kensington, thence along the centre of the said railway in a northerly direction past Kew Gardens Station to the point where the Kew parish boundary intersects the said railway, thence following the said Kew parish boundary in a south-westerly direction intersecting Mortlake-road to a point at the junction of Sandycombe-road, Station-road, Kew Gardens-road, and Broomfield-road, thence in a westerly direction along the centre of Broomfield-road to the centre of Kew-road, thence in a southerly direction along the centre of Kew-road aforesaid to a point near Hatherley-road, thence in a westerly direction across Kew Gardens, still following the said Kew parish boundary across the lake to a point where the same meets the municipal borough boundary in the river, and thence in a south-westerly and southerly direction to the point of commencement aforesaid at the said railway bridge.

"No. 2.—West Ward.

"And I do hereby determine that West Ward shall comprise so much of the said borough as is contained within a line commencing at the aforesaid point on the municipal borough boundary at the said railway bridge over the River Thames, and running thence along part of the southern boundary of North Ward as hereinbefore described along the centre of the said railway, along the Old Deer Park wall and along the centre of the said private road and Clarence-street to the point in the centre of Kew-road aforesaid, thence intersecting Kew-road and running in a south-easterly direction along the centre of Church-road over the railway and continuing to a point where Church-road meets the Vineyard, thence in a south-westerly direction along the centre of the Vineyard to a point in Hill Rise opposite Compass Hill and along the centre of Compass Hill to Petersham-road, thence northerly for a short distance along the line of the present boundary in Lower-road below the West and South Wards and thence in a straight line to the municipal borough boundary in the River Thames, thence in a north-westerly direction following the said municipal borough boundary in the river past Richmond Bridge and Corporation Island to the point of commencement aforesaid at the said railway bridge.

"No. 3.—East Ward.

"And I do hereby determine that East Ward shall comprise so much of the said borough as is contained within a line commencing at the aforesaid point in Kew-road opposite Clarence-street thence following part of the southern boundary of North Ward as hereinbefore described along the centre of Kew-road and Lower Mortlake-road to the aforesaid point where the same passes over the centre of the London and South Western Railway from Richmond to Kensington, thence in a southerly direction along the centre of Manor-road intersecting the London and South Western Railway (Windsor Line) thence continuing along the centre of Manor-road in a southerly direction intersecting Sheen-road to a point on the south side of Sheen-road opposite the centre of Manor-road, thence in a south-westerly direction to the centre of Queen's-road near the Black Horse Inn,
