

8. This Act shall be construed as one with the Life Assurance Companies Act, 1870, as adapted by this Order.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

* Rule for Valuing the Present Value of a Weekly Payment.

The present value of a weekly payment shall, if the incapacity of the workman in respect of which it is payable is total incapacity, be such an amount as would, if invested in the purchase of an immediate life annuity from the National Debt Commissioners through the Post Office Savings Bank, purchase an annuity for the workman equal to seventy-five per cent. of the annual value of the weekly payment, and in any other case shall be such proportion of such amount as may, under the circumstances of the case, be proper.

Rule for Valuing a Policy.

The value of a current policy shall be such portion of the last premium paid as is proportionate to the unexpired portion of the period in respect of which the premium was paid, together with, in the case of a policy under which any weekly payment is payable, the present value of that weekly payment.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

Where an employers' liability insurance company is being wound up by the Court or subject to the supervision of the Court, the official liquidator in the case of all persons appearing by the books of the company to be entitled to or interested in policies granted by such company for employers' liability insurance is to ascertain the value of the liability of the company to each such person, and give notice of such value to such persons, and any person to whom notice is so given shall be bound by the value so ascertained unless he gives notice of his intention to dispute such value in manner and within a time to be prescribed by a rule or order of the Court.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of November, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is enacted by the County Courts Act, 1888, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty by Order in Council from time to time to alter the number and boundaries of the districts and the place of holding any Court, and to order by what name and in what towns and places a Court shall be held in such District:

Now therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eight, the County Court of Essex, held at Colchester, shall be held at Clacton as well as at Colchester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

* See Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, First Schedule, par. (17).

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of November, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Herbert John Gladstone, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the thirtieth section of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, as amended by the second section of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1893, did by warrant, given under his hand and seal at Whitehall, on the sixteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seven, appoint Raymond Asquith, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, to be a Commissioner to prepare a Scheme for carrying into effect the prayer of the petition of the Council of the Borough of Keighley, referred to in an Order of His Majesty in Council of the twenty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six, with reference to the alteration of the boundaries of the wards of the borough:

Now, therefore, the said Raymond Asquith, being such Commissioner as aforesaid, and in pursuance of the said warrant and appointment, doth declare this to be his Scheme for altering the boundaries of the wards of the said borough:

Borough of Keighley.

Scheme for the alteration of ward boundaries made in pursuance of section thirty of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and section two of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1893.

Article I. This Scheme shall except so far as is otherwise herein expressly provided or as there may be anything in the subject matter or context inconsistent therewith come into operation on the second day of November, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

Article II. Subject as regards any future alteration of the wards hereby constituted to the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and any Act amending the same as to the alteration of wards the following provisions shall have effect:—

(i.) For the purposes of the election of Councillors the borough shall continue to be divided into six wards which shall continue to be termed respectively the Central Ward, the East Ward, the North-East Ward, the North-West Ward, the South Ward and the West Ward.

(ii.) Each of the said wards shall comprise the portion of the borough indicated by a separate colour and distinguished by the name of the ward on the maps, each marked "Map of the Wards of the Borough of Keighley, as altered 1907," one of which shall be sent herewith to the Secretary of State to be submitted by him to His Majesty in Council for approval and the other shall be deposited by the Town Clerk of the Borough at his office within fourteen days after the date of this Scheme.

(iii.) Nothing herein contained shall affect the existing distribution of Councillors among the said wards.

Dated this third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

Raymond Asquith,

Commissioner appointed by Royal Warrant bearing date the sixteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of the said Scheme of the said Commissioner, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.
