[In substitution for the Ottawa Mint Proclamation which appeared in the London Gazette of 5th November, 1907.]

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

EDWARD R. & I.

Whereas under the Coinage Act, 1870, it is lawful for His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, by Proclamation, to direct the establishment of any branch of His Majesty's Royal Mint in England in any British possession, and to impose a charge for the coinage of gold thereat, and determine the application of such charge, and determine the extent to which such branch is to be deemed part of the said Mint, and to which coins issued therefrom are to be current and be a legal tender, and to be deemed to be issued from the said Mint:

And whereas the Government of the Dominion of Canada has applied for the establishment of a branch of the Mint at Ottawa, the capital of the Dominion, and provision has been made by the Parliament of the Dominion for an annual expenditure of seventy-five thousand dollars for the expenses of the branch Mint:

We, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act and of all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, proclaim, direct, and ordain as follows:—

1. A branch of Our Mint (in this Proclamation referred to as the Ottawa branch Mint) shall be established at or near Ottawa in Our Dominion of Canada on such site as the Governor-General of the Dominion in Council may approve.

2. Gold coins of the same denominations, designs, weights, and fineness as gold coins coined at Our Mint in England, may be coined at the Ottawa branch Mint, and any gold coins so coined (in this Proclamation referred to as sterling gold coins) shall be subject to the allowance of the same remedy as gold coins coined at Our Mint in England.

3. The Master of Our Mint shall prepare and transmit such dies as may be required for the sterling gold coins to be coined at the Ottawa branch Mint.

4. The sterling gold coins coined in pursuance of this Proclamation at the Ottawa branch Mint shall be deemed to have been issued from Our Mint, and shall be current and a legal tender in like manner and to the like extent as if they had been coined and issued in England.

5.—(i.) If any person brings to the Ottawa branch Mint any gold bullion and requires the Deputy Master of that branch to assay, coin into sterling gold coins and deliver out the same to him, the Deputy Master shall comply with the requisition upon payment for every ounce troy of gold of standard fineness of a charge of three cents where the amount brought at one time does not exceed five hundred ounces, and of two cents in any other case: Provided that—

(a) where the gold bullion so brought is such that it cannot be brought to the standard fineness of the coin to be coined thereout without refining the whole or some portion of it, the Deputy Master shall demand for assaying and refining the same such additional charge as the Governor-General in Council may from time to time fix, and until such charge is paid to him may refuse to receive, assay, or coin such bullion; and

(b) where the bullion brought to the branch Mint for coinage is finer than the standard fineness of the coin to be coined thereout, there shall be delivered to the person bringing the same such additional amount of coin as is proportionate to such superior fineness;

(c) no undue preference shall be shown to any person as respects the bullion brought to the branch Mint, and every person shall have priority according to the time at which he brought it;

(d) the Governor-General in Council may make regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of this Article with respect to gold bullion, and the bringing, coining, and delivery out thereof, and in particular for regulating the time and conditions at and under which it is to be so brought, assayed, coined, and delivered out, and the minimum amount which may be so brought.

(ii.) The charges under this Article for coining, assaying, and refining shall be collected by the Deputy Master in accordance with the said regulations, either as a payment in advance, or as a deduction from the coin delivered out, or otherwise, and shall be accounted for and paid over in such manner as the Governor-General in Council directs to the Minister of Finance and Receiver-General of Canada, to be by him paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Proclamation, the Ottawa branch Mint shall be deemed to be part of Our Mint, and accordingly

(a) the Deputy Master shall comply with all directions he may receive from the Master of Our Mint, whether as regards the returns to be made, or the transmission of specimen sterling gold coins to England or otherwise; and

(b) the said specimen sterling gold coins shall be subject to the trial of the pyx under section twelve of the Coinage Act, 1870, so, however, that they shall be examined separately from the coins coined in England or at any branch Mint other than the one regulated by this Proclamation; and

(c) the Deputy Master and other officers and persons for the purpose of carrying on the business of the branch Mint may be appointed, promoted, suspended, and removed, and their duties assigned and salaries awarded under section fifteen of the Coinage Act, 1870.

7. Subject to any regulations and conditions which may be made by the Master of Our Mint, the Deputy Master of the Ottawa branch Mint shall coin at that branch Mint any gold, silver, bronze, or other coin which the Governor-General of the Dominion requires to be so coined, and which is for the time being a coin of the Dominion and current and legal tender in the Dominion, but coins coined under this Article shall not for the purposes of the Coinage Act, 1870, be deemed to be coins made at, or issued from, Our Mint.

8. The Governor-General in Council shall cause the store of bullion and coin at the Ottawa branch Mint to be inspected half-yearly, and cause the persons inspecting the same to report thereon to the Deputy Master of the branch Mint, stating the exact amount of bullion and coin inspected by them; and copies of such report shall be transmitted by the Deputy Master to the Governor-General and to the Master of Our Mint in London.

9. The Master of Our Mint shall, in the execution of this Proclamation, act in accordance with any regulations made or directions given by the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury.

10. In this Proclamation—

The expression "Mint" means Our Royal Mint in England;

The expression "Governor-General" includes the officer for the time being administering the Government of the Dominion;

The expression "Deputy Master of the branch Mint" includes any person who lawfully exercises at such branch Mint the authority of Deputy Master.

11. This Proclamation may be cited as the Ottawa Mint Proclamation, 1907.

12. This Proclamation shall come into force on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and eight.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this second day of November, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and seven, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of November, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at South Beddington, within the parish of Beddington, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Beddington and of the new parish of Wallington, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Beddington and of the said new parish of Wallington, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at South Beddington as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, as such Bishop, with the consent of John Henry Bridges, of Ewell Court, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, as the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Beddington, and with the consents of the Reverend Hanmer William Webb-Peploe, Clerk in Holy Orders, a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, of Sir Christopher Robert Lighton, of Blackbrook, Bickley, in the county of Kent, Baronet, of the Reverend Horace Newton, Clerk in Holy Orders, a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of York, and of William Donaldson Cruddas, of Haughton Castle, in the county of Northumberland, Esquire, one of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Wallington (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Beddington, and of the said new parish of Wallington, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at South Beddington as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Beddington.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Beddington, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Beddington and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Wallington, both in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark, which taken together are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the Epsom and Croydon Branch Line of the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway crosses the boundary which divides the said parish of Beddington from the said new parish of Wallington, and extending thence southward along the said boundary for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the middle of Stafford-road, and extending thence westward along the middle of Stafford-road for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Woodcote-road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Woodcote-road, and of its continuation known as Carshalton-lane (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Wallington from the said parish of Beddington) for a distance of fifty-four chains or thereabouts to the point where Carshalton-lane is intersected by the road leading from Little Woodcote to Sandy-lane, and extending thence in a straight line due east (thereby crossing Sandy-lane and Plough-lane) for a distance of one mile and twenty-five chains or thereabouts to a point on the eastern side of the roadway known as Merebank upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Beddington from the parish of Croydon, in the said county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and extending thence northward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the course of Merebank and of Merebank-lane) for a distance of one mile and twenty-one chains or thereabouts to the point where the last-mentioned boundary is crossed by the middle of the said Epsom and Croydon Branch Line of the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of one mile and five chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Beddington from the said new parish of Wallington, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

Provided that such keeper shall not be required in pursuance of this bye-law to cause any window in any room to be opened or to be kept open at any time when the state of the weather is such as to render it necessary that the window shall be closed, or when any bed in such room may be occupied by any lodger in consequence of sickness or of other sufficient cause.

21. A keeper shall, in the first week in the month of April, and, if required in writing by the Medical Officer of Health or the Inspector of Nuisances of the Borough, in the first week in the month of October, in every year, cause every part of a house to be cleansed, and shall, at the same time, except in such cases as are hereinafter specified, cause every area, the interior surface of every ceiling and wall of every water-closet belonging to the premises, and the interior surface of every ceiling and wall of every room, staircase, and passage in the house, to be thoroughly stopped, cleansed, and lime-washed or distempered. Provided that if any such interior surface is painted or covered with material which is such as to render the lime-washing thereof unsuitable or inexpedient, this bye-law shall be deemed to be satisfied, so long as such surface is thoroughly cleansed, and the paint or other covering thereon is renewed, if such cleansing or renewal be necessary for the purpose of keeping the house in a cleanly and wholesome condition.

22. A keeper shall as often as may be necessary to keep the same in a clean and wholesome state, cause all the rooms, passages, stairs, floors, windows, doors, and walls of a house to be thoroughly cleansed and freed from vermin, and shall also cause the floors of every room to be thoroughly swept daily, before the hour of ten in the forenoon, and to be well and sufficiently washed on Friday in each week before the hour of twelve noon.

25. A keeper shall cause every room in his house, which may be appointed for use and occupation as a sleeping apartment, to be furnished with such number of beds and bedsteads, and with such a supply of bed clothes and necessary utensils as may be sufficient for the requirements of the number of lodgers received in such room.

26. A keeper shall, for the use of the lodgers received into a house, cause to be provided a sufficient number of chamber utensils, and a sufficient number of washing basins or other proper receptacles for water, of adequate capacity and suitably placed, and a sufficient supply of water, and a sufficient number of towels for use in connection with such washing basins and other receptacles, and shall cause such basins or receptacles to be kept clean and in good order, and the supply of towels to be renewed as often as may be requisite.

27. A keeper shall cause all solid or liquid filth or refuse to be removed once at least in every day before the hour of ten in the forenoon from every room in a house, and shall once at least in every day cause every vessel, utensil, or other receptacle for such filth or refuse to be thoroughly cleansed.

28. In the event of any inmate of a house, whether a lodger or otherwise, being attacked by any infectious disorder, the keeper shall forthwith give intimation of the same to the Medical Officer of Health of the Borough.

29. A keeper, immediately after being informed or having ascertained that any inmate of a house, whether a lodger or otherwise, is ill of any infectious disease, shall adopt all such precautions as may be necessary to prevent the spread of such infectious disease. Such keeper shall not, at any time while such inmate is suffering from such infectious disease, cause or allow any other person, except a person voluntarily in attendance and authorized to attend on such inmate, to use or occupy the same room as such inmate.

(a) Where in pursuance of the statutory provision in that behalf, the sanitary authority may order the removal of such inmate to a hospital or other place for the reception of the sick, such keeper, on being informed of such order, shall forthwith take all such steps as may be requisite on his part to secure the safe and prompt removal of such inmate in compliance with the order of the sanitary authority, and shall, in and about such removal, adopt all such precautions as, in accordance with any instructions which he may receive from the Medical Officer of Health of the Borough, may be most suitable for the circumstances of the case.

- (b) Where, in consequence of the illness of such inmate, there may be reasonable grounds for apprehending the spread of infection through the admission of a lodger to any room or rooms in a house or through the admission to such room or rooms of the maximum number of lodgers authorized to be received therein, such keeper, after being furnished with the necessary instructions from the Medical Officer of Health of the Borough, and until the grounds for apprehending the spread of infection shall have been removed, shall cease to receive any lodger into such room or rooms or shall receive therein such number of lodgers, being less than the maximum number, as the exigencies of the case may require.
- (c) Such keeper shall, immediately after the death, removal, or recovery of an inmate who may have been ill of any infectious disease, give written notice thereof to the Medical Officer of Health of the Borough.
- (d) When a registered medical practitioner has certified that any inmate of a house is suffering from any dangerous infectious disorder, and can be safely removed to hospital, such inmate shall not obstruct the sanitary authority in effecting his removal to any hospital or infirmary with the consent of the authorities thereof.
- (e) When the Medical Officer of Health of the Borough certifies that the cleansing and disinfecting of any house or part thereof, or of any articles therein likely to retain infection, or the destruction of such articles would tend to prevent or check any dangerous infectious disease, such keeper shall give the sanitary authority such facilities as may be necessary to enable such authority to carry out such works of cleansing, disinfection, or destruction as such Medical Officer of Health may deem to be necessary.
- (f) Unless and until by such cleansing and disinfection the necessary precautions for preventing the spread of disease shall have been duly taken, such keeper shall not cause or suffer any other lodger to be received into the room or rooms which, in the case hereinbefore specified, may have been exposed to infection.
30. A keeper shall provide, in a suitable and convenient situation for the use of lodgers, properly constructed water-closets in the proportion of one such water-closet for every twelve lodgers; and shall cause such water-closets and every part of the apparatus of such water-closets to be kept clean, and shall cause the same and every drain or means of drainage with which they or either of them may communicate, to be maintained in good order and efficient condition.
31. A keeper shall cause every part of the structure of a house to be maintained at all times in good order.
32. A keeper shall cause the yard, area, forecourt, or other open space within the curtilage of a house to be maintained at all times in good order and thoroughly clean, and free from any accumulation of filth or other refuse.
33. A keeper and every person employed in a house shall not receive any female lodger into such house.
34. A licensed keeper and every person employed in a licensed house shall not knowingly lodge, or knowingly harbour, any thief or reputed thief, any prostitute or reputed prostitute, or any other person of improper character.

35. A keeper shall keep a register and shall enter therein the name, age, and nationality of every seaman lodger received into a house, the name of the last vessel from which such seaman lodger was discharged, and the port of discharge, with the name and port of registry of any vessel he may join while resident in such house, and his declared destination on leaving.

36. A keeper shall put up or affix and keep up or affixed a copy of these bye-laws in a suitable and conspicuous position in the common sitting-room of a house in such a manner that the contents of such copy may be clearly and distinctly visible and legible, and shall enter upon the space left for the purpose at the foot of that copy, a scale of the charge per day for board, lodging, and necessaries made in such house, and shall not make a higher charge than is provided by the scale on any pretence whatever.

37. Upon the Council being satisfied that any licensed keeper has been guilty of a breach of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, or the Acts amending the same, or that such keeper has kept, or is keeping, or is allowing to be kept, a house in which drunkenness, gambling, or immoral or fraudulent practices prevail, or is or has been a party to such proceedings, or neglects to remove from such house any person of improper or immoral character who may have entered therein, or has failed, or is failing to comply with these bye-laws or any of them, the Council may suspend or revoke all licences granted to such keeper.

38. No person shall obstruct any officer or person engaged in securing the execution of these bye-laws.

39. Every person offending against any of the foregoing bye-laws, except where otherwise expressly provided, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every such offence, and in the case of a continuing offence to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which the offence may be continued after conviction for the first offence.

40. These bye-laws shall come into force on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the thirteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval and Royal Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas in the Regulations for the Royal Naval Reserve approved by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the twentieth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and two, it is, inter alia, provided :—(1) That Midshipmen who have undergone twelve months' training in Your Majesty's Navy, with a qualifying certificate for training and a very good certificate for conduct, will be eligible for promotion to the rank of Sub-Lieutenant if they have five years' service in the Royal Naval Reserve including service in the Navy, provided a First Mate's certificate of competency is obtained ; (2) that Midshipmen who have not undergone twelve months' training in Your Majesty's Navy will, after six years in the Royal Naval Reserve, be eligible for appointment as Acting Sub-Lieutenant, provided a First Mate's provisional certificate of competency is obtained and that they possess a test certificate in gunnery, and will be eligible for confirmation of rank as Sub-Lieutenant on obtaining an ordinary Master's certificate or provisional certificate of competency as Master ; and (3) that such appointment as Acting Sub-Lieutenant shall not be held for a period exceeding five years, the names of Officers failing to become qualified for confirmation within this period being removed from the list :

“And whereas it has been brought to our notice that the rank of Midshipman is in many cases not commensurate with the position held by these Officers in the mercantile marine :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the amendment of the Regulations referred to above so as to read as follows :—

“Midshipmen will be eligible for appointment as Acting Sub-Lieutenants in the Royal Naval Reserve provided :—

“(a.) They have three years' seniority as Midshipman in the Royal Naval Reserve, and are not less than twenty-one years of age ;

“(b.) They possess a First Mate's or a Provisional First Mate's certificate of competency ;

“(c.) They have performed the requisite amount of training, and have obtained a test certificate in gunnery.

“Midshipmen and Acting Sub-Lieutenants who have undergone twelve months' Naval training with a qualifying certificate for training and a very good certificate for conduct will be eligible for promotion to the rank of Sub-Lieutenant provided they have five years' service in the Royal Naval Reserve, including service in the Royal Navy, and have obtained a First Mate's certificate of competency :

“Midshipmen and Acting Sub-Lieutenants who have not undergone twelve months' training in the Royal Navy will be eligible for promotion to the rank of Sub-Lieutenant, provided they have six years' service in the Royal Naval Reserve and have obtained an ordinary Master's certificate or provisional certificate of competency as Master, and a test certificate in gunnery :

“The names of acting Sub-Lieutenants who fail to qualify for confirmation in rank by the time they reach the age of thirty years will be removed from the list :

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals :”

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the sixteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Royal Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council.

“And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council of the eighth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and six, the non-substantive rating of trained man was abolished for continuous service stokers, and the sum of one penny a day formerly payable for that rating was added to the substantive pay of all continuous service stokers, first class, as from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and six :

“And whereas we consider it desirable that the same arrangement shall be applied in the case of stokers entered for combined service in the Royal Navy and Royal Fleet Reserve who are paid the non-continuous rates of pay of their ratings :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the abolition of the non-substantive rating of trained man for such special service stokers as from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and six, and the increase of the non-continuous service rate of pay of special service stokers, first class, from one shilling and ninepence to one shilling and tenpence a day as from that date :

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the fifteenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Royal Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas by Order in Council bearing date the twenty-eighth day of March one thousand nine hundred and three, Your Majesty was graciously pleased to sanction the introduction of the non-substantive rating of Yeoman of Stores, to be held in such ships as the Admiralty may direct by a Stoker rating, with an allowance at the rate of fourpence a day in addition to the pay and allowances of his rating.

“And whereas we consider that it would be to the benefit of Your Majesty's Naval Service to extend the grant of the rating and an allowance to vessels smaller than those in which it is justifiable to pay the full allowance of fourpence a day.

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to authorize us to vary the rate of allowance within the existing maximum of fourpence a day, and the conditions of payment, in such manner as may from time to time seem to us desirable; the provisions herein to take effect from first October, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

“And whereas by Your Majesty's Royal Warrant for Pay, Promotion, &c., in the Army

it is ordained that any unforfeited service not less than a year given by an European soldier on the West Coast of Africa shall reckon double as qualifying service towards pension :

“ And whereas we are of opinion that seamen or marines lent for Colonial employment should enjoy the same advantage as other men with whom they are serving :

“ We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize us, at our discretion, to grant to seamen or marines who have been lent, or who may be lent, for Colonial employment in West Africa the privilege of counting such service as double time for all purposes as regards pension, under the conditions laid down in Article 1149 of Your Majesty's Royal Warrant, 1906.

“ And whereas we are of opinion that in certain instances it is desirable that payment of an allowance in lieu of victuals and messing allowance of fourpence per diem, should be extended to other persons than those enumerated in that Order in Council ;

“ We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the issue, at our discretion, as from the first October, one thousand nine hundred and seven, to any person belonging to Your Majesty's Navy or Royal Marines borne on ships' books, of either of the

Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the Order in Council of the twenty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as varied by the Orders in Council of the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and the first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six, as relates to burials in the Parish Church and churchyard of Amersham, in the county of Buckingham, be further varied so as to provide as follows, viz. :—

- (b.) That, except as hereinafter provided, burials shall be discontinued forthwith and entirely in every part of the said church, provided that in the vault belonging to the Drake family situate at the east end of the church burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin interred therein shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.
