

the diocese of Birmingham, which is bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say:—Upon the west partly by the parish of Hall Green, partly by the new parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Acock's-green, and partly by the parish of Yardley, all in the county of Worcester, and in the said diocese of Birmingham, upon the north by the said parish of Yardley, upon the north-east and upon the east by the parish of Sheldon, in the said county of Warwick, and in the said diocese of Birmingham, and upon the south-east by the parish of Solihull, in the said county of Warwick, and in the said diocese of Birmingham, and upon the south partly by the said parish of Solihull, and partly by the new parish of Saint James, Shirley, in the said county of Warwick, and in the said diocese of Birmingham.

“II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Solihull which is bounded upon the west by the said detached portion of the parish of Bickenhill, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-east and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said detached portion of the parish of Bickenhill from the said parish of Solihull crosses the middle of the Warwick and Birmingham Canal, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said canal for a distance of fifty-five chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the road called Dove House-lane, across such canal, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Dove House-lane for a distance of forty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Birmingham to Warwick, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last mentioned road for a distance of three chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Grange-lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Grange-lane, for a distance of nineteen chains and a half or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such road across the stream flowing into the southern end of the Olton Reservoir, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Solihull from the said detached portion of the parish of Bickenhill.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Birmingham.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late

Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Alban, Hindhead, situate within the new parish (sometime district) of Saint John, Churt, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint John, Churt, and of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, Grayshott, partly in the county of Southampton, and partly in the said county of Surrey, but wholly in the said diocese of Winchester, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and consolidated chapelry.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint John, Churt, and of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, Grayshott, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Alban, Hindhead, situate as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, as such Bishop, and also as the Patron (in right of his See) of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, Grayshott, and with the consent of the Venerable Frank Ernest Utterton, Archdeacon of Surrey, and as such Archdeacon the Patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John, Churt (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint John, Churt, and of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, Grayshott, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Alban, Hindhead, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Alban, Hindhead.’

“We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to
