

Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Sedgfield, in the county of Durham, and of the parish of Saint Margaret, Marton, in the Parts of Lindsey, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial grounds should be opened in the civil parishes of Sedgfield and Marton, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parishes as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the second day of November last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the sixteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said civil parishes without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued as follows, viz. :—

SEDGFIELD.—Forthwith and entirely in the burial ground known as the Sedgfield Church Cemetery, in the county of Durham, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said burial ground burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said burial ground the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave;

(c.) In the said burial ground, in grave spaces in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the bodies of John Burdon, Simon Lockey, James Hughes, Aaron Brass, Richard Smith, and Thomas Maughan at their decease.

MARTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Margaret, Marton, in the Parts of Lindsey, and in the adjoining churchyard.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of All Saints, Stoke Ferry, in the county of Norfolk, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial grounds should be opened in the civil parish of Stoke Ferry, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz. :—

STOKE FERRY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of All Saints, Stoke Ferry, and in the churchyard; and in the burial ground known as the church cemetery, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard or church cemetery, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said church cemetery the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the tenth day of February next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said tenth day of February.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1907.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-first day of November, one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Royal Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such
