

In the County Court of Cumberland, holden at Carlisle.

No. 1 of 1907.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862-1900, and in the Matter of the NEW COVE QUARRIES Limited.

DY an Order made by His Honour the Judge of the above named Court, in the above matters, dated the 7th day of January, 1908, on the petition of George Wishart and David Fraser Wishart (trading as D. F. Wishart and Company), of 18, Picardy-place, Edinburgh, Iron Merchants, creditors of the above named Company, praying that an Order might be made for the winding up of the said Company (then in voluntary liquidation) by the said Court, it was ordered, by consent, that the voluntary winding up of the said Company be continued, but subject to the supervision of the Court. And that James Lovett, of 32, Lowther-street, Carlisle, the Chief Clerk to the Registrar of the Court, be appointed joint Liquidator of the said Company with James Watson, the Liquidator of the said Company under the said voluntary winding up, and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up might be adopted as the Court should think fit. And it was ordered that the said James Lovett and James Watson, the Liquidators of the said Company, should, on the 7th day of February, 1908, and on the same day in each succeeding month, file with the Registrar a report, in writing, as to the position and progress made with the winding up of the said Company, and with the realization of the assets thereof, and as to any other matters connected with the winding up as the Court might from time to time direct. And it was ordered that no bills of costs, charges, or expenses, or special remuneration of any Solicitor employed by the Liquidators of the said Company, or any remuneration, charges, or expenses of such Liquidators, or of any manager, accountant, auctioneer, broker, or other person, be paid out of the assets of the said Company, unless such costs, charges, expenses, or remuneration should have been taxed by the Registrar. And it was ordered that all such costs, charges, expenses, and remuneration be taxed and ascertained accordingly. And the creditors, contributories, and Liquidators of the said Company, and all other persons interested, were to be at liberty to apply as there might be occasion. And it was ordered that the costs of the petitioners and of the said Company, and of the said James Watson, the voluntary Liquidator thereof, be taxed and paid out of the assets of the said Company.—Dated the fourteenth day of January, 1908.
