

or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, a clear annual sum or yearly charge of two hundred and fifty pounds the same annual sum or yearly charge of two hundred and fifty pounds to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Christ Church, Spitalfields, and the same annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing Incumbent of the benefice of Christ Church, Spitalfields, or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same incumbency on the other hand and to be receivable by the Incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year.

"And we further recommend and propose that the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Christ Church, Spitalfields, shall have the following powers for recovering the said rent charge of two hundred and fifty pounds per annum hereby proposed to be created in favour of the benefice of which he is Incumbent as aforesaid (that is to say) power, if and whenever any part of the said rent charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof (although there shall not have been any legal demand made thereof) to enter into the receipt of the endowments charged therewith or any part thereof and to receive and take the same until he shall thereby or otherwise be paid and satisfied the same rent charge and the arrears thereof due at the time of such entry or afterwards to become due during his being in possession of the same premises together with all costs and expenses occasioned by the non-payment thereof and for the purpose of collecting receiving and recovering such endowments or any of them to use exercise and enjoy all such powers and remedies for collecting, recovering and enforcing payment thereof and of the annual sums payable for or towards the raising or making up the same as may be statutorily exercised or exercisable by him under the law then in force.

"Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Botolph, Bishopsgate, shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any Statute in that behalf enabling him, grant, convey and annex to the said benefice of Christ Church, Spitalfields, any part or parts of the rectorial endowments belonging to the said benefice of Saint Botolph, Bishopsgate, which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of London for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for the said yearly charge of two hundred and fifty pounds hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid, then the same annual sum or yearly charge of two hundred and fifty pounds shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine and be no longer payable as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 25th day of January, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Baydon, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Baydon, is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in William Lehman Ashmead Bartlett Burdett-Coutts, of Number one, Stratton-street, in the city of Westminster, Esquire, a Member of the Commons' House of Parliament.

"And whereas the said William Lehman Ashmead Bartlett Burdett-Coutts is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Baydon now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Salisbury.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Salisbury, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said John, Bishop of Salisbury, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.
