

same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Spring Assizes Act, 1879.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Spring Assizes, 1908.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of February, 1908.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by sub-section (1) of section 238 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is provided that where it appears to His Majesty that due facilities are or will be given by the Government of any foreign country for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British ships in that country, His Majesty may by Order in Council stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that that section shall apply in the case of such foreign country subject to any limitations, conditions and qualifications contained in the Order :

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the Government of His Majesty the King of Roumania will give due facilities for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British ships in that country :

And whereas by Order in Council dated the second day of November, one thousand nine hundred and seven, His Majesty did order that the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 233 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, subject to the limitations contained in the said Order, should apply to seamen deserting within His Majesty's Dominions from merchant ships belonging to subjects of His Majesty the King of Roumania :

And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Order in Council of second November, one thousand nine hundred and seven :

Now therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Him by section 738 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and of all other powers in Him vested, is pleased to order that the said Order in Council of the second day of November, one thousand nine hundred and seven, shall be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of February, 1908.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by subsection (1) of section 238 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is provided that where it appears to His Majesty that due facilities are or will be given by the Government of any foreign country for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British ships in that country, His Majesty may, by Order in Council stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that that section shall apply in the case of such foreign country, subject to any limitations, conditions, and qualifications contained in the Order :

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the Government of His Majesty the King of Roumania will give due facilities for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British ships in that country :

Now therefore His Majesty by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the hereinbefore recited subsection (1) of section 238 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare that from and after the publication of this Order in the London Gazette, seamen not being slaves, and not being British subjects, who desert from merchant ships belonging to subjects of His Majesty the King of Roumania, at any of the following ports or places within His Majesty's Dominions, that is to say, the British Islands, British Honduras, Ceylon, Gold Coast, Hong Kong, Leeward Islands, Malta, St. Helena, Seychelles, Sierra Leone, Southern Nigeria, or Straits Settlements, shall be liable to be apprehended and conveyed on board their respective ships, in accordance with the provisions of the section above mentioned.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of February, 1908.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit :

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the twenty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and seven, directing the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the burial ground known as the Sedgfield Church Cemetery, in the county of Durham :

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order, so far as it relates to the said burial ground, be varied :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the twenty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and seven, so far as it relates to the Sedgfield Church Cemetery, be varied by substituting for the excepting clause (c) contained
