

fare for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

18. No person shall wilfully alter or deface his ticket so as to render the number or any material portion illegible.

Artisans' Tickets.

19. A passenger not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer, within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the tramways, shall not use or attempt to use any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

Dogs.

20. No dog or other animal will be suffered to accompany passengers inside the cars. Any dog or other animal taken into or found on any car shall be removed by the person in charge thereof from the car immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request, such dog or other animal may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor. Provided that where by a notice affixed in a conspicuous position on any car, the Corporation shall prescribe conditions upon and subject to which, dogs and other animals may be taken upon any car, this Bye-law shall not prohibit the taking of dogs or other animals on the outside of any such car under and subject to such conditions.

Damaging Cars.

21. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the seats, cushions, curtains, or linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice, in or on any car, or break or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage any car. Any person acting in contravention of this regulation shall be liable, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, to pay the amount of any damage so done.

Luggage.

22. Personal or other luggage (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) not carried by hand, shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, be placed on the front or driver's platform.

Firearms, &c.

23. No person shall travel in or on any car with firearms or dangerous articles or things, and no person shall carry or deposit upon any car any luggage, article, instrument, or implement which shall cause hindrance or annoyance to passengers, or which may in the opinion of the conductor be dangerous or offensive to any passengers. Provided that nothing contained in this Bye-law shall apply to persons in the Naval, Military, Reserve or Auxiliary forces carrying unloaded firearms.

Disabled Cars.

24. If at any time a car becomes disabled or in any way injured, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall, upon the request of the conductor, leave the same, and if such passengers have paid their fares, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fare so paid, but on production of their tickets shall be allowed to travel by the next available car the remainder of the distance in respect of which they have paid their fares. No person shall, except with the leave of the conductor, enter a disabled or injured car.

Travelling on Step, &c.

25. No passenger or other person not being an authorized officer of the Corporation shall travel or ride on the steps, driver's platform, outside rails, buffers, or guards of any car, or stand upon the upper deck of any car, while the same is in motion, or, except in accordance with the regulations of the Corporation exhibited upon such car, stand in the interior of any car.

26. No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, shall enter or board a car, and no persons shall hold or hang on by or to any part of a car.

General Road Traffic.

27. All persons in charge of carts, carriages, or other vehicles, or of animals travelling or being driven on or over, or standing on any part of any road or street in which the tramways are laid, shall, on any car approaching, take or drive them out of the way of the car with all despatch so as to keep the tramway clear for the use of the car. The person in charge of any vehicle or animal who shall not, as soon as possible after the driver of any car has given proper warning, drive or take such vehicle or animal off the tramway rails, so as to allow the car to proceed, shall be liable to the penalty hereinafter provided.

Interference with Duties of Conductor or Driver.

28. No person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Corporation in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any car or tramway, and no person other than the conductor or driver shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controllers, brakes, lights, ventilators, trolley cord, or any part of a car or its equipment.

29. No person shall ring or cause to be rung, any of the signal bells upon any car, so as to effect the unnecessary stoppage of any car, nor in any event signal a car to start.

Power to Remove Passengers Committing Offences.

30. Any person who shall commit, whilst on any car, any offence or any breach of these Bye-laws shall, if he persists in the offence after being requested by a conductor to desist, be liable, in addition to incurring the penalty hereinafter provided, to be immediately removed by the conductor or other officer from the car, and if such person shall have paid his fare, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of his fare so paid.

Conductors and Drivers to Enforce Bye-laws.

31. Every conductor and driver shall, to the best of his ability, enforce these Bye-laws and Regulations, and prevent the breach thereof.

Penalty.

32. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws and Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings.

33. There shall be placed, and kept placed, in a conspicuous position inside of each car in use, a printed copy of these Bye-laws.

34. These Bye-laws and Regulations shall come into force on the 20th day of May, 1908.

The foregoing Bye-laws were made at a meeting of the Council, held on the 17th day of March, 1908.

In testimony whereof the common seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Luton was hereto affixed this 19th day of March, in the presence of

HARRY ARNOLD, Mayor.
BRUCE PENNY, Town Clerk.
