At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of May, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the ninth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain properties in the parish of Heston, in the county of Middlesex, now vested in us.

“Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture bearing date the thirteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and made or expressed to be made between Sarah Salmon, Elizabeth Salmon, and Rosina Salmon, all of the Grange, Heston, in the county of Middlesex, spinsters, of the first part, Frederick Wilkin, of Lower Cousley Wood, Wadhurst, in the county of Sussex, of the second part, William Wilkin, of Number 15, Hyde Park-street, Hyde Park, in the county of Middlesex, of the third part, the said Sarah Salmon of the fourth part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fifth part, the lands and hereditaments situate in the said parish of Heston, described in the first part of the Schedule hereunto annexed became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

“And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture bearing date the seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend Benjamin Oswald Sharp, Vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Heston, in the county of Middlesex, of the first part, us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the second and fifth parts, the Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Lord Bishop of London, the Patron of the said vicarage of Heston, of the third part, and the Governors of the Bounty of

Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy of the fourth part, the lands and hereditaments situate and arising in the said parish of Heston, described in the second part of the Schedule hereunto annexed, became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

“And whereas the said lands and hereditaments are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act all or any part of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his her or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some
