

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of May, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Thomas, Brampton, the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Chesterfield, and the new parish of Saint John, Newbold with Dunston, all in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Southwell.

“Whereas by the authority of an Order of His late Majesty King William the Fourth in Council, bearing date the first day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-third day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, a consolidated chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas situate in the parish of Brampton, in the said county of Derby and at that time in the diocese of Lichfield and Coventry but now in the said diocese of Southwell, and the said consolidated chapelry was named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Brampton.’

“And whereas by the authority of an instrument, bearing date the fourth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one and being under the hand and seal of the late Right Reverend James, Bishop of Lichfield, a particular district was assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity situate in the parish of Chesterfield, in the said county of Derby and at that time in the diocese of Lichfield, but now in the said diocese of Southwell, and the said particular district was named ‘The Particular District of the Holy Trinity, Chesterfield.’

“And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the fourth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and published in the London Gazette on the eighth day of the same month, a consolidated chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John situate at Newbold in the said particular district of the Holy Trinity, Chesterfield, and the said consolidated chapelry was named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Newbold with Dunston.’

“And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Thomas, Brampton, the said particular district of the Holy Trinity, Chesterfield, and the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Newbold with Dunston, have become new parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

“And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Brampton, the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Chesterfield, and the said new parish of Saint John, Newbold with Dunston, should be altered in the manner which is herein-after mentioned.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Brampton, the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Chesterfield, and the said new parish of Saint John, Newbold with Dunston, shall be altered so that (firstly) all those portions of the said parish of Chesterfield and of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Brampton, which are described in the first schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such parish and new parish respectively and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Chesterfield, and (secondly) all those portions of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Chesterfield, and of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Brampton, which are described in the second schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured green, shall be dissevered from such new parishes and shall be restored to and shall in future form part of the said parish of Chesterfield, and (thirdly) all that portion of the said parish of Chesterfield, which is described in the third schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured yellow, shall be dissevered from such parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint John, Newbold with Dunston.

“And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending
