PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of All Saints, Child’s Hill, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Child’s Hill, is vested in

Sir Samuel Hoare, of Sidestrand Hall, Cromer, in the county of Norfolk, Baronet, the Reverend George Frederick Head, of Clifton, in the county of Gloucester, Clerk in Holy Orders, Frederick Poynton Weaver, of Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, Doctor of Medicine, Henry Edward Millar, of Heathdown, Hampstead aforesaid, Esquire, and Edward Webster Cox, of Number 8, Ellerdale-road, Hampstead aforesaid, Esquire (hereinafter called ‘the present Patrons’) as trustees for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances.

“And whereas the present Patrons are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Child’s Hill, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London.

“And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, now Bishop of London, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of All Saints, Child’s Hill, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the particular district or new parish of All Saints, Child’s Hill.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the present Patrons (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Child's Hill, now vested in the present patrons as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Michael in Bedwardine, Worcester, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael in Bedwardine, Worcester, is vested in the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Worcester.

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter of Worcester are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael in Bedwardine, Worcester, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Worcester for the time being.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Huyshe Wolcott, now Bishop of Worcester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas it is in contemplation that the said benefice of Saint Michael in Bedwardine, Worcester, and the benefice of Saint Helen in Worcester with Saint Alban in Worcester shall be united into one benefice, and it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Michael in Bedwardine, Worcester, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will facilitate the proposed union of benefices, and will in consequence tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Saint Michael in Bedwardine, Worcester.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Worcester (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or capitular seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael in Bedwardine, Worcester, now vested in them, the said Dean and Chapter of Worcester as aforesaid, shall be transferred from them, the said Dean and Chapter of Worcester, and from their successors to the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of June, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the parish of Bromsgrove, partly out of the parish of Upton Warren, partly out of the parish of Dodderhill, partly out of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Christ Church, Catshill, and partly out of the extra parochial place called Grafton Manor, all in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester.

“Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Bromsgrove, the said parish of Upton Warren, the said parish of Dodderhill, and the said new parish of Christ Church, Catshill, are cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Bromsgrove, of the said parish of Upton Warren, of the said parish of Dodderhill, of the said new parish of Christ Church, Catshill, and of the said extra parochial place called Grafton Manor, which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

“And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed separate district, the Reverend Walter Grenville Whinfield, of The Tower, Dodford, in the said county of Worcester, Clerk in Holy Orders, has contributed a sum of five thousand six hundred and seventy-six pounds five shillings and eightpence Metropolitan Water (B) Stock, and has transferred the same into our name to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment for the Minister for the time being of the said proposed separate district, and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act then for the Incumbent of the said new parish, the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock to be receivable by the said Minister or Incumbent for the time being when he shall have been duly licensed according to the said hereinbefore mentioned Act.

“And whereas the said annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock, and to be receivable by the said Minister or Incumbent for the time being, will amount to not less than the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds.

“And whereas the said sum of five thousand six hundred and seventy-six pounds five shillings and eightpence of Metropolitan Water (B) Stock has been so contributed and transferred to us as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty, in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas the said Walter Grenville Whinfield has nominated himself, the said Walter Grenville Whinfield, for his life and after his death the Bishop of Worcester for the time being as the persons in whom he desires that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish (as the case may be) shall be vested.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Bromsgrove, of the said parish of Upton Warren, of the said parish of Dodderhill, of the said new parish of Christ Church, Catshill, and of the extra parochial place called Grafton Manor which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Dodford.’

“And we further recommend and propose that without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same the right of patronage of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereto shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be assigned to and become and be vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Walter Grenville Whinfield for his life and that after his death the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish shall be vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Dodford, comprising:—

“All those contiguous portions of the parish of Bromsgrove, the parish of Upton Warren, the parish of Dodderhill, the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Christ Church, Catshill, and the extra parochial place called Grafton Manor, all in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Bromsgrove from the said extra parochial place called Grafton Manor at

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of June, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Augustine, situate at Swindon, within the parish of Rodbourne Cheney, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Bristol.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Rodbourne Cheney and of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Swindon New Town, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Rodbourne Cheney and of the said new parish of Swindon New Town should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Augustine, situate at Swindon as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol, as such Bishop, and also as the Patron (in right of his See) of the vicarage of the said new parish of Swindon New Town, and with the consent of Walter Justice, of number 12, Bernard-street, Russell-square, in the county of London, Esquire, as the Patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Rodbourne Cheney (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Rodbourne Cheney and of the said new parish of Swindon New Town, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Augustine, situate at Swindon as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Augustine, Swindon.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Augustine, Swindon, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parish of Rodbourne Cheney, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Bristol, which is bounded upon the west by the parish of Lydiard Millicent, upon the south-west by the parish of Lydiard Tregoze, upon the south-east by the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Swindon New Town, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Swindon New Town from the said parish of Rodbourne Cheney crosses the middle of the North Wilts Branch of the Wilts and Berks Canal, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such canal for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to the centre of Ifley Road Bridge, and extending thence in a straight line due north for a distance of twenty chains and a half or thereabouts to a point near the western side of the house and premises known as Rodbourne Farm upon the municipal borough boundary of Swindon, and extending thence first westward and then in various directions along such boundary (thereby crossing both Telford-road and the North Wilts branch of the Wilts and Berks Canal, and then proceeding for some distance in a line parallel to the south-western side of such canal) for a distance of one mile and six chains or thereabouts to the point where such boundary meets the boundary which divides the said parish of Rodbourne Cheney from the said parish of Lydiard Millicent.

"II. And also all that portion of the said new parish of Swindon New Town which is bounded upon the north-west by the above described portion of the said parish of Rodbourne Cheney, upon the west by the said parish of Lydiard Tregoze, upon the south by the parish of Swindon, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Swindon from the said new parish of Swindon New Town at the centre of the bridge which carries the main line of the Great Western Railway across the road leading from Wootton Bassett to Swindon, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of one mile and six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the Gloucester Branch Line of the same railway, and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Swindon New Town from the said parish of Rodbourne Cheney."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bristol.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

And whereas by section twenty-three of the aforesaid Act it is further enacted “that whenever two or more benefices which have at any time been united into one benefice shall be disunited and become separate benefices under the provisions of this Act, whether the Order for disunion shall extend to the whole number of benefices of which such united benefice consisted, or to one or more of such benefices only, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons) to assign and

“attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to, or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively, as to His Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice.”

And whereas the Right Reverend Augustus, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, hath represented in a writing dated the twenty-third day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four, to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

“I, Augustus, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, do hereby represent to your Grace that it appears to me that the disunion of the united benefice of Stoke-on-Tern with Childs Ercall, in the county of Salop and my diocese of Lichfield, by the separation of the rectory of Stoke-on-Tern aforesaid from the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Childs Ercall aforesaid may be made with advantage to the interests of religion.”

And whereas on the eighteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and five, the said Archbishop inquired into the circumstances of the case.

And whereas on the fifth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and six, the said Archbishop certified to His Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:—

“We the undersigned, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council—

“That the Right Reverend Augustus, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, as Bishop of the diocese in which is situate the united benefice consisting of the rectory of Stoke-on-Tern and the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Childs Ercall in the county of Salop and diocese of Lichfield, having represented unto us that the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the rectory of Stoke-on-Tern from the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Childs Ercall, may be made with advantage to the interests of religion, we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

“That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might usefully be dissolved.

“That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry to Your Majesty in Council, we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer doors of each of the parish churches of Stoke-on-Tern and of Childs Ercall, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion, and no such cause has been shown.

“The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Lichfield, our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

“And we do hereby certify the inquiry aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in-case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the rectory of Stoke-on-Tern from the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Childs Ercall, so as to constitute each of them a separate benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only, and in accordance with the statement of circumstances above referred to we recommend that each benefice shall retain its own endowments and emoluments and bear its own charges and outgoings.

“Randall Cantuar.”

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said united benefice, consisting of the rectory of Stoke-on-Tern and the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Childs Ercall, situate in the county of Salop and diocese of Lichfield, shall be disunited by separating the said rectory of Stoke-on-Tern from the said vicarage or perpetual curacy of Childs Ercall.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is further pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop, with the consent of the Patron of the said benefices, signified in writing under his hand, to assign and attach to each of such benefices respectively its own original endowments and emoluments, and to direct that each benefice shall bear its own charges and outgoings.
