At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of June, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of All Saints, Child’s Hill, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Child’s Hill, is vested in

Sir Samuel Hoare, of Sidestrand Hall, Cromer, in the county of Norfolk, Baronet, the Reverend George Frederick Head, of Clifton, in the county of Gloucester, Clerk in Holy Orders, Frederick Poynton Weaver, of Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, Doctor of Medicine, Henry Edward Millar, of Heathdown, Hampstead aforesaid, Esquire, and Edward Webster Cox, of Number 8, Ellerdale-road, Hampstead aforesaid, Esquire (hereinafter called ‘the present Patrons’) as trustees for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances.

“And whereas the present Patrons are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Child’s Hill, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London.

“And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, now Bishop of London, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of All Saints, Child’s Hill, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the particular district or new parish of All Saints, Child’s Hill.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the present Patrons (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of
